Face Nothing But Running Sores FROM ECZEMA

No rest day or night for those afflicted with that terrible skin disease, eczema, or, as it is often called, salt rheum.

With its unbearable burning, itching, torturing day and night, relief is gladly welcomed.

There is no remedy like Burdock Blood Bitters for giving relief to such sufferers; no other remedy has done, or can do so much for those who are almost driven to distraction with the terrible torture. Apply it externally and it takes out the stinging, itching and burning, and promotes healthy healing. Take it internally and it gets at the source of the disease in the blood, and completely and permanently drives it out of the system.

Miss Mary V. Chambers, Anagnone Ridge, N.B., writes: "I used Burdock Blood Bitters for eczema. I had it when an infant, but it left me. Two years ago it came back. I used doctors' medicine, but it did good only while I used it. At last my face was nothing but a running sore. I saw in the paper what E.P.B. did for people. I took it, and today I am free from that terrible disease. Manufactured only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont."

Cocoon Oil Fine For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else, that contains too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain milled cocoon oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoons will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get milled cocoon oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

THE STREETS OF HANGARD

ARE SCENES OF CARNAGE, NIGHT AND DAY.

Hardest Fighting of Present Battle Has Been Incessant Since March 21, and Allies Still Hold the Place.

With the French Army in France, April 17.—The hardest fighting of the present battle south of the River Somme has been almost incessant around Hangard-on-Santerre since April 21. British and French have been engaged side by side, in defending this highly important and strategic position on the road between Noyon and Amiens. Several times it has been wrested from them, only to be retaken in a heroic counter-attack.

On the 4th, 9th and 12th of April the streets of Hangard were scenes of horrible carnage, both night and day, when the enemy was driven from house to house before the French battalions. On the latter date, when the latest attack was delivered by the French, one of their battalions was surrounded in the overwhelming German advance.

The major commanding entrenched himself in the ruins of a castle, from which he held the enemy in check for over ten hours, meanwhile signalling repeatedly for help and asking his comrades to hasten. The major was captured, but shortly afterward other French troops, with a British battalion, arrived, and after a terrific onslaught reached the blazing castle. They rescued the survivors and took a hundred German prisoners, but the major, with another officer, had been carried off in the interim.

OF 10,000 EXILES BUT 1,500 SURVIVE

They Are Now Being Brought to Jerusalem in British Motor Cars.

Jerusalem, April 17.—Fifteen hundred Armenians, survivors of the many thousands of victims exiled by the Turks two and a half years ago to the wilderness east of the River Jordan, have been found making their way towards Jericho, the town recently captured from the Turks by the British.

The exiles, who were dragged by the Turks from the cities of Adana, Kharkne Marash, Aintab, Urfa and Kessab, had been compelled to march by Ottoman troops to break stones on roads. The Armenians are being brought to Jerusalem in British motor trucks.

Six thousand Syrian refugees from Es Salt, 22 miles north of the Dead Sea, are expected to arrive in Jerusalem this week. In connection with the refugees situation here the Rev. Stephen Van R. Trowbridge, of Brooklyn, representative of the American Commission for Armenians and Syrian Relief, said:

"We will equip expeditions to meet the exiles and will provide industrial relief if additional funds can be sent from the United States. Nine hundred Armenians who were rescued by Arabs at Tawfile, between Maan and the Dead Sea, will be removed to Port Said. "For months from 20 to 30 of the exiles have died of starvation each day. The original number was 10,000. From Tawfile a message has come through saying: 'The price of a life is the price of bread.'"

Hins Sense Failure. Amsterdam, April 17.—"The full strategic plan has not been accomplished," declares the Frankfurter Zeitung. "The battle apparently does not produce the desired result."

Told In Twilight

(Notice—Hereafter, the Whig, in common with other papers all over Canada, will make a charge of 50c for inserting an engagement, marriage or reception announcement.)

Those who attended the Bridge and the Damsant which the Catabaqui Chapter of the Daughters of the Empire gave in the City Hall on Saturday afternoon very much enjoyed this entertainment which had been so perfectly planned and carried out by the Regent, Mrs. Walter Macneil and his members of this chapter. The tea tables, which were very bright and pretty with vases of lovely daffodils, were arranged around the sides of the hall, while the centre was cleared for dancing. Splendid music was supplied and the large number of young people who came in at the tea hour, continued the dance until seven o'clock.

Miss Katie Birmingham was hostess at the Bridge Club last evening.

SHELL-SHOCKED MEN AS FIRE RANGERS

Returned Soldiers Given Opportunity to Regain Their Health.

Toronto, April 17.—Twelve hundred fire rangers, all of them men beyond the age of military usefulness, married men or returned soldiers, have been engaged by the Department of Lands, Forests and Mines for the summer's forest protection work. In past years a considerable number of students were employed, but this spring Hon. Mr. Ferguson, working upon the principle that a young man fit to do fire ranging is able to work upon a farm, has refused to employ as rangers, either exempted students or young fellows under age.

Peterboro Man Killed.

Peterboro, April 17.—John Clancy, an employee of the Quaker Oats Company, was fatally injured on Monday when caught between two freight cars that were being shunted on the company's tracks. His spine and legs were broken, and he died in the hospital an hour later. Deceased leaves a wife and two children. An inquest was opened.

Probs: Thursday, showery.

No Humbug! Lift Off Corns

Doesn't hurt a bit to lift a corn or callus off with fingers

For a few cents you can get a small bottle of the magic drug freezone recently discovered by a Cincinnati man.

Just ask at any drug store for a small bottle of freezone. Apply a few drops upon a tender, aching corn and instantly, yes, immediately, all soreness disappears and shortly you will find the corn or callus so loose that you lift it out, root and all, with the fingers.

Just think! Not one bit of pain before applying freezone or afterwards. It doesn't even irritate the surrounding skin.

Hard corns, soft corns, or corns between the toes, also hardened calluses on bottom of feet, just seem to shrivel up and fall off without hurting a particle. It is almost magical.

Ladies! Keep a tiny bottle on your dresser and never let a corn or callus ache twice.

IF HAIR IS TURNING GRAY, USE SAGE TEA

Here's Grandmother's Recipe to Darken and Beautify Faded Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

At Halifax, N.S., the marriage took place of Nursing Sister Barnes, Canadian Army Corps, daughter of Rev. Charles Barnes, Bloxholm, England, and Lieut. Charles Burdick, U.S.N., executive officer of a United States hospital ship in port.

Fear that he was about to be conscripted and sent to the front is said by the police to have been the cause of the suicide of Omer Robitaille, a barber, twenty-six years of age, who hanged himself in his room at 275, St. Martin street, Montreal.
