The Theatres

At the Grand.
The Grand will offer an exceptionally good bill for to-night and Wednesday, matinee and night, in the form of the latest Triangle production, "Cassidy." In this five-act feature Dick Rosson will be starred and he is supported by a capable company of artists especially selected for this picture. The elaborate stage settings and beautiful outdoor scenery shown was obtained partly in New York and the rest at Palm Beach, Florida. The story deals with a burglar who rescues a girl who in turn saves him. Intermingled throughout the story is a remarkable plot of political intrigue and also a very pretty little romance. Besides this there will be the Pathe News, another reel of good film and one of those amusingly funny comedies that is a show in itself. A feature act of polite vaudeville will complete this programme which will be shown for to-night and Wednesday only, as "Watch Your Step" will be the attraction on Tuesday.

At The Strand.
Absolutely the greatest motion picture in the world is "The Whip," the mastery production which comes to the Strand Theatre on the first three days of this week. It is not one star, but six; with not only one sensational scene, but scores of them. Produced on the most lavish scale imaginable—a train wreck staged for the purpose of securing one scene alone cost $25,000—this tremendous production marks a new epoch in the history of the silent drama. The motion picture has been elaborated from the gigantic stage production which ran at the Drury Lane Theatre in London for three years and in New York City for two years. The stage play also had a two-year run in Australia and was translated into other languages than the English and was played with huge success in Europe. The motion picture, offering, as it does, much greater possibilities for scenic effects than the stage could possibly do, is a really wonderful offering. It is an attraction of the highest possible merit and entertaining abilities and it has been well named the greatest motion picture in the world.
F. X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne will also be seen in a five-act Metro Wonderplay, "Under Suspicion."

At Griffin's.
A story that will appeal to men and women of all ages is "The Belgian," Sydney Olcott's stupendous visualization of the tragedy of Belgium, which comes to Griffin's for to-day, Tuesday and Wednesday. "The Belgian" is one of the most remarkable pictures ever offered to the public. It has as its background the most pitiful tragedy in the history of the world—the ravaging of Belgium. There is portrayed vividly against this background a tender and intensely human love story. In addition to its other merits the cast of this picture contains the names of such splendid artists as Walker Whiteside and Valentine Grant, to say nothing of a host of others. No such galaxy of screen talent has ever been assembled in the creation of a photoplay. The two stars have reached the pinnacle of artistic success in their portrayal of the leading roles of this stupendous heart interest spectacle. In addition to the above great feature, vivacious Vivian Martin, in "A Petticoat Pilot," and our usual thrilling chapter of "Vengeance and the Woman," will be shown.

Bleached and Unbleached Cottons

FOR TUESDAY, AND WE STRONGLY ADVISE YOU TO BUY THEM — WHILE THE BUYING IS GOOD

WHY COTTON IS SO SCARCE

A 12-inch gun disposes of a bale of cotton with every shot fired.

A machine gun in operation will use up a bale in three minutes.

In a naval battle like the one off Jutland, from five to six thousand pounds a minute are consumed by each warship.

The proposed additions to the allied fleet of aeroplanes will require 100,000 bales of cotton, this fabric to substitute linen.

HAVE YOU EVER SEEN A BALE OF COTTON?

It's a monstrous thing—a great cube—two yards each way. Imagine if you can, after reading the collection of short paragraphs at the left, the demands that the war is making on the world's cotton supplies. Then consider how wonderful it is that we have cottons to offer at any price. And you'll readily realize that it's nothing short of extraordinary that it is possible to find such values as those embodied in Tuesday's special features. We strongly advise you to share in these exceptional offerings.
