SUSTAIN CHALMERS' CALL

TO THE REV. R. J. WILSON, OF VANCOUVER, B.C.

The Kingston Presbytery Hears a Deputation From Chalmers—The Call is to Be Officially Extended.

The call extended to Rev. R. J. Wilson, of Vancouver, B.C., by Chalmers church, was considered at a special meeting of the Kingston Presbytery, held in Chalmers church on Thursday afternoon at three o'clock. The moderator, Rev. J. Rattray, of Tweed, presided.

Prof. W. G. Jordan, interim moderator, gave an account of the management of the congregation at Chalmers church by himself, and a committee, during the vacancy. He stated that after inquiries in various directions, and after careful consideration, Rev. R. J. Wilson, of Vancouver, had been asked to preach anniversary services, as they were well satisfied with his coming, and wanted him to meet the congregation. In view of the early meeting of the presbytery, the time had not been long, but the call had been well signed, by 253, with one elder to hear from.

Principal Ross reported for the session, stating that it unanimously concurred in the call.

J. M. Farrell spoke on behalf of the managers, and stated that before making recommendations they had taken due steps to try and interpret the feelings of the congregation.

The following gentlemen spoke on behalf of the congregation: D. G. Laidlaw, who referred to the work of Rev. Mr. Wilson among the young men, and the need there would be for such work in the future; Prof. MacClement, who mentioned the unanimity in his own particular district, and W. H. Dyde, who spoke on behalf of the business men of the congregation.

The call of the moderator was then approved, and the call was sustained.

Rev. Principal McKay, of Westminster Hall, and Rev. J. H. Miller, of Vancouver, were appointed to present the claims of Chalmers church, in the Westminster Presbytery.

The presbytery gave permission to keep the call open another week, so that others might have an opportunity of singing, in case Dr. Wilson accepts.

The moderator and the clerk of Presbytery were appointed a committee to arrange with Chalmers session for the induction.

"The Trail Of The Lonesome Pine."

Through Eugene Walter's dramatization of "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," sweeps the joy, the zest, the enthusiasm of youth in action. June's primitive love is wonderfully developed by Mr. Walter's skill in transferring Mr. Fox's book to the stage, while the scenic conception of the lovely pine, the cabin and the conquest of the Gap forms a moving background full of color and naturalness. A appreciative audience in Boston, Philadelphia, New York and Chicago packed the theatres during long runs of the play in those cities. Seldom has a play been given such an artistic production. It enhances the portrayal of people, whom primitive life has hardened, with deep understanding and sympathy. Miss Louise Price in the role of June gives an irresistibly charming impersonation of Mr. Fox's widely read book heroine. It appears at Grand Opera House on Saturday, April 27th, matinee and night.

Theda Bara in "Cleopatra."

All who see Theda Bara in "Cleopatra," William Fox's spectacular film production that opens at the Grand Opera House on Monday afternoon, for a three-day engagement, with matinees daily, will realize the tremendous difficulties of such an undertaking. The imagination of the audience is carried back nineteen hundred years, in the settings of the many hundred scenes of historical accuracy. Temples and palaces in all gorgeousness, represent both Egyptian and Roman influence. This is the occasion of a production that starts by its magnificence and by the hugeness of its representation. Theda Bara is already an idol of the screen, but by her portrayal of the passionate and siren Cleopatra, she has advanced as an actress in a way that is almost incomparable. She is said to realize as Cleopatra every phase of amatory enticement that conquered all who came under her influence, winning both Julius Caesar and Marc Antony from the call of leadership only to be followed by their downfall. It is a graphic story that has been exposed with rare fidelity to historical records.

It is expected that a large quantity of baled hay will soon be boated across from Wolfe Island for shipment to New York and Boston markets.

Rev. Dr. Macgillivray is to preach anniversary sermons in the Church of the Redeemer, Deseronto, on Sunday.

LADIES! LOOK YOUNG, DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Use the Old-time Sage Tea and Sulphur and Nobody Will Know.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You misten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.
