The greatest motion picture of all time.

Theda Bara in Cleopatra

The greatest screen siren of today as the greatest queen siren of yesterday.

MISS BARA AT HER BEST

What a New York newspaper had to say of this spectacle:

"The picture is so big that one is completely overwhelmed. The spectacle simply beggars description. The greatest of all film spectacles plays. There is no stint in anything. The production is flawless in its settings, magnificent beyond compare, and the performance of Miss Bara is at all times vastly interesting. Never has she looked so regally beautiful, and if the original Cleopatra was just half so lovely we do not blame Anthony for renouncing Rome." — N. Y. Tribune.

Do You Eat Cheese?

Doonohy St. Marsh in "Good Housekeeping."

Cheese is not only cheaper but more nutritious than meat—nearly twice as nutritious. Cottage cheese is one of the richest in nutritive value. Every pound of cottage cheese, at a cost of 12c to 17c., furnishes as tissue-building material equal in amount to one and one-fifth pounds of sirloin steak.

Cheese Cracker Pudding suggests a dainty and appetizing luncheon dish in which cottage cheese or American cheese must be used. Soak two cupsful of cracker-crumbs in two cupsful of milk. Add one and one-half cupsful of grated cheese, two eggs, slightly beaten, and salt and pepper to taste. Turn into a buttered pudding dish and sprinkle the top with cracker crumbs. Bake in a moderate oven until the pudding is firm.

Rye Bread Cheese Pudding not only follows the rules of conservation but has a taste and line the bottom and sides with slices of buttered rye bread. Sprinkle two cupsful of cottage cheese or grated American cheese over the bread. Beat one egg lightly, add two and one-half cupsful of milk, and pour this mixture over for one-half hour or until the pudding is firm.

Pilot crackers suggest a cheese dish which will please the children. Soak one-half pound of pilot crackers in cold water until soft. Arrange in a buttered pudding-dish and sprinkle the layers with one cupful of cottage cheese or grated American cheese. Beat two and one-half cupsful of milk and season with salt, pepper, and paprika. Pour over the pilot crackers and sprinkle with cracker-crumbs. Bake in a moderate oven one-half hour.

Scalloped Cheese with Corn makes an excellent combination meat substitute and vegetable dish. Melt two teaspoonfuls of butter or a margarine and add two teaspoonfuls of flour. While stirring, gradually add two cupsful of cold milk. Cook until the mixture thickens. To this white sauce add two cupsful of canned-corn or fresh corn cut off the cob, one cupful of grated cheese, and one-half cupful of fresh chopped fine. Season to taste with salt or pepper. Turn in a buttered baking-dish and bake in a moderate oven for about twenty minutes.
