The proposal to start an auto service between Gananogue and Kingston met with favor and efforts will be made to encourage the trade between the two places. The greater production movement was reported to be in full swing and about 50 S.O.S. have been placed on neighboring farms. It was reported that three times the amount of land will be cultivated this year than was cultivated last year.

Death at Wilton.

Wilton, May 1.—A sad death occurred on Thursday afternoon last, April 25th, when Miss Pearl Switzer passed away at the residence of her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Lewis. The deceased had been ill since Feb. 18th with heart trouble, which developed into paralysis. Miss Switzer was one of Wilton's most popular young ladies. She was a young woman whose kindly and cheerful disposition and sunny smile brought sunshine to all her many friends. Pearl will be missed in all her many walks of life. She was active in the Red Cross Society, the Woman's Missionary Society and in the Mission Band. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. N. B. Switzer, her only brother, Blake Switzer, and her grand parents. The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon at her late residence and was largely attended. The remains were placed in the family plot in the Wilton cemetery. Floral offerings were received from: The family, pillow; Clarence Spafford, wreath; J. M. Spafford and family, wreath; P. M. Lewis, Chicago, wreath; Red Cross Society, cross; Dr. H. E. and Mrs. Alabee, Odessa, spray; Woman's Missionary Society, wreath; Mission Band, spray; Wilton Dramatic Club, spray. The pallbearers were Percy Shibley, Walter Shibley, Earl Burt, Stewart Simmons, Lorne Storms, Earl Perry. The three young men who carried wreaths were Clarence Taylor, John R. Purdy and Stinson Carr.

OBITUARY

Late W. George McCullagh.

Samuel McCullagh, of the Armoures, received word on Friday morning of the death of his only brother, W. George McCullagh. Deceased was sixty-three years of age, and had been engaged in farming at Altmar, N.Y. For some years he was chief engineer of the Kingston fire department under Chief Henry Youden. A wife and one son, who enlisted for overseas service, survive. Deceased's mother, who lives in Kingston, was ninety-three years old on April 11th last. Samuel McCullagh left for Altmar on Friday. It is expected that the remains will be brought to Kingston for interment.

The Late Miss Evelyn McDermott.

The funeral of the late Miss Evelyn McDermott, who passed away on Wednesday, was held on Friday morning to St. James' chapel, where a solemn requiem mass was sung by Rev. A. Hanley. The remains were interred in St. Mary's cemetery. James McDermott, George Daley, James Lorimer, John Innes, G. T. Martin and V. McDermott acted as pallbearers.

The deceased, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McDermott, Hickson avenue, was a sweet and charming girl and will be much missed by her large circle of acquaintances who will learn with regret of her demise after an illness of some months' duration. The late Miss McDermott was a Roman Catholic in religion, and an honor graduate of the Notre Dame convent of this city. She continued her studies at Queen's University and received her B.A. degree in 1915, and in 1916 graduated from the Faculty of Education. Besides her sorrowing parents, there are four sisters and one brother surviving to whom the sympathy of their many friends will be extended: Rev. Sister Elizabeth Marie, Congregation de Notre Dame, St. Andrew's West Montreal; Dora Thomas, and Lillian and Vincent, at home.

Mrs. Henry Horsey.

Word was received in the city of the death of Mrs. Horsey, on Friday morning of Mrs. Horsey, widow of the late Henry Horsey, who was a native of Kingston, and who for many years resided in Kingston, afterwards moving to Ottawa. She was formerly Miss Rose and was well known in this city. H. Herbert Horsey, Pictou, and Miss Amy Horsey, of Ottawa, survive. Deceased had only been ill a few days, death following a paralytic stroke. The remains will be brought to Kingston via the Canadian Northern Railway on Monday afternoon, and the funeral will take place to Cataract cemetery.

SOLDIERS WELCOMED BACK FROM OVERSEAS

Four Kingston Men Among the Fifty-seven Who Arrived Thursday Afternoon

At 4:15 p.m. Thursday the Canadian-Pacific train brought home fifty-seven soldiers. All are casualties. Among the number are Lieut. Harry Gent, Ptes. Fred Leader, C. Leavage and E. Mitchell of Kingston. A warm welcome was given to the party on the station platform by mayor J. M. Hughes, who on behalf of the citizens of Kingston, expressed great pleasure over their safe return and the gratitude and esteem in which they are held for loyally answering the call to the colors to fight for liberty and righteousness and all that the Empire stands for. Canada owes to all her soldiers a debt of gratitude she can never fully pay. Great applause followed the mayor's address.

They boys were met by committees of the Great War Veterans' Association and the Army and Navy Veterans, Captain Sharp, Casualty officer, and the staff of the Invalid Soldiers' Commission and W. McLaughlin secretary of the Soldiers' Aid Commission. The Army and Navy Veterans treated the boys to hot coffee and sandwiches which the party thoroughly enjoyed. The R.C.H.A. band enlivened the event with stirring airs. The party formed into fours and led by the band marched to the Armoures where they were all reported and given passes enabling them to go to their homes.

Religious denominations of patients: Anglicans 11; Roman Catholics 10; Methodist 1.

OUT OUT ICE CREAM AND MAKING OF CANDY

Trades and Labor Council Placed Itself on Record Thursday Night.

The members of the Trades and Labor Council, at their regular meeting held on Thursday night placed themselves on record as being opposed to the manufacture of ice cream and candies in war time, when there was such a scarcity of sugar.

The members felt that some legislation should be passed prohibiting the manufacture of ice cream and candies. The fact that so much cream finds its way to the ice cream dealers tends to keep the price of butter very high.

BRITISH GAINED THE ADVANTAGE

(Canadian Press Despatch.) London, May 3.—In the neighborhood of Villers Bretonneux, on the front before Amiens, the British gained the advantage in the local fighting during the night the War Office announces. On the northern front there was active artillery firing, especially near Givency, forest of Donoppe and Loree, and south of Ypres.
