"FLAVELLE DAY" IN THE COMMONS

An Open Secret That It Will Be Next Week SHOULD NOT HESITATE TO MAKE A BURNT OFFERING OF JOSEPH.

He Is An Added Burden to the Government Because He Has Succeeded in Getting in Wrong With Everybody.

Ottawa, May 3.—It is an open secret that there will be a "Flavelle day" in the House of Commons some time next week when the activities of this great and good man with the beautiful smile and the cash register mind will be thoroughly dissected.

It was generally conceded before the election that Sir Joseph was the greatest load that Union Government had to carry, and it is just as generally expected that he isn't a pound lighter right now.

The wonder grows why a Government which is primarily responsible for Sir Joseph should hesitate to make a burnt offering of him to public opinion, roused as it is by the Winnipeg chicken incident.

Somehow or other the people have got it into their heads that to employ a rich pork-packer as Chairman of the Munitions Board at a salary of nothing and find yourself leaving him free to make his profit out of bacon and other side lines, is like marrying a widow with a million dollars and the conventional sooner or later the party of the second part is sure to get the worst of it.

Sir Joseph was pretty well spread over the field of endeavor before the election and he is still posted at most of the strategic spots where information can be headed off.

the bacon, enquiry has hardly had time to settle before another small that reaches to-bish Heaven. The agricultural west does not like Sir Joseph because he is a food forestaller, reaping gains where he has not sowed, and the manufacturing east doesn't like him either because he doesn't want anybody to take profits but himself.

But Sir Joseph's club on affairs is slipping, as events go to show. He worked for a baronetcy which would give him the privilege of stamping his crest on every rasher of bacon, and now that baronetcy is to expire when Sir Joseph dies.

In the last seven years Sir Joseph had had quite a few cans tied to his tail but the biggest of all is the iron of international policy which has given Canada practically everything Sir Joseph fought against in 1911.

The stern logic of events has satisfied nearly all Sir Joseph's opinions in regard to the home market which is no secret to him that he would rather talk about religion.

Slight Stroke of Paralysis

Down Left Side—Stomach and Heart Affected—Case Baffled Doctors For Three Years.

Trenton, Ont., May 3.—A very interesting report has been received from Mrs. Pringle in regard to her recovery from partial paralysis. This was a most extreme case, for doctors had been trying for three years to find something which would restore the depleted nerve force.

One can scarcely imagine stronger evidence of the restorative influence of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Mrs. C. Pringle, Queen street, Trenton, Ont., writes: "About five years ago I was troubled with my stomach, there was a sort of paralyzed feeling across it and up my left side, and my heart seemed almost to stop beating. I called in the Doctor, and he thought it was symptoms of a stroke. My stomach kept getting worse. At times the pounding would be intense, almost unbearable, and I thought I would go wild. Sleep was out of the question. I tried different doctors, giving each one a fair trial, and doctoring nearly three years. My case seemed to baffled them. It was a nervous breakdown caused by overwork and worry. During all this time I could not do any work, and my friends thought it was a matter of time how long I would live. Some one advised me to try something to build up the system, and I tried different medicines. Finally I thought I would try Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and see if they would do me any good. A famous doctor sanctioned my using these pills, and told me they would be good for me. They seemed to be just what I required, as I soon saw an improvement. I took about fifteen boxes, and the results have been very gratifying. I am now enjoying splendid health, and able to do all my work, eating anything I wish, and can go to bed and get a good night's rest. I have recommended Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to many of my friends, who have also secured good results from this treatment."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, a full treatment of 6 boxes for $2.75, at all dealers or by mail from Dr. J. C. Chase, Ltd., Toronto. Do not be misled into accepting a substitute. Imitations only disappoint.
