The Theatres

To-night, "Uncle Tom's Cabin." In many respects William H. Kibbe's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" is the most important of the season's productions. In the first place it serves to exploit the masterpieces of two of Europe's noted artists, i.e., Ralph Brunel's elaborate painting entitled "The Celestial City," and Hartz Veron's picture of the New Orleans slave mart; and secondly it has brought back into prominence the memories of that grand old lady, Harriet Beecher Stowe, and serves to reveal the beautiful lessons really to be learned by careful attention. Second to the Holy Book does Uncle Tom's Cabin rank as a sacred instructor. The pulpit has endorsed it as a moral teacher worthy of mankind's support while the Board of Education in many of the large cities has encouraged scholars in witnessing the worthy dramatization of the story that was instrumental in making our country religious, free and happy. The Kible revival will be brought to the Grand Opera House to-night.

At the Strand. Lois Weber has completed a companion picture to "The Price of a Good Time." Under the title of "The Doctor and the Woman," this new Jewel production will be shown at the Strand Theatre on the first three days of next week. "The Doctor and the Woman" is the photoplay adaptation of Mary Roberts Rinehart's popular novel, a moving picture drama, it is confidently stated that its popularity will exceed that of its immediate predecessor, "The Price of a Good Time."

Mildred Harris, the dainty little star who enacted the principal role in the later production, again assumes the stellar part in "The Doctor and the Woman." With her appears True Boardman, whose work in recent serials showing him as a gentlemanly highwayman, has made him one of the really popular film stars. Edith Storey, will also be seen in a five-act Metro Wonder-play, "Revenge." Comedy and topical reels will also be shown.

At Griffin's. A large audience was again present at Griffin's last night to see the splendid programme of the best in photoplays. Mary Pickford's newest Arctcraft picture "Ammilly of Clothesline Alley," continued to please as on the previous evening, and all admirers of "our Mary" were well satisfied with this humorous production which is filled to the brim with typical Pickford mannerisms. To-night this picture will be shown for the last time, as will also the remainder of our bill, which consists in part of the noted Russian star, Sonia Markova in "A Heart's Revenge," a picture which has proved deeply interesting during the last two days, and the opening chapters of "The Eagle's Eye," the best serial story seen in a long time.

Meek and sympathy with the bereaved was adopted, many speaking regarding the eminent work performed by deceased for the church. A resolution of appreciation of the ministry of Rev. J. D. The Popular Milo. "Why pay 10c for outside brands when you can get the Milo cigar three for 27?" is the argument advanced in an advertisement of the George McGowan Co., which appears in today's paper. The local dealers are featuring this popular cigar now. Smokers who give preference to this brand are not only patronizing city retailers, but through them, the local manufacturer, this keeping the money in circulation at home. The popular Milo is being sold at a price that should greatly increase its sale in the city.

Familiar Quotations

If we work upon marble, it will perish; if upon brass, time will efface it; if we rear temples, they will crumble into dust; but if we work upon our immortal minds—if we imbue them with principles, with the just fear of God and love of our fellowmen—we engrave on those tablets something which will brighten through all eternity.
