

YEAR 85, NO. 114

KINGSTON, ONTARIO, WEDNESDAY, MAY 15, 1918

SECOND SECTION

EASY TO FEED ASSEMBLY

OWING TO PRESBYTERIAN FONDNESS FOR OATS.

A Necessity Assembly at London, Ont.—An oatmeal assembly and a tea synod will balance very well.

London, Ont., May 15.—The Presbyterian Assembly which meets in St. Andrew's church on June 6th will be known as the "Necessity Assembly," because it meets in the face of opposition from prominent individuals, important presbyteries and influential boards, and for the reason that it has to meet because it was called "ordered" by the Moderator of the Assembly last year at Montreal.

It seems that the railways this year will not recognize the value of the Assembly to the extent of allowing the usual one fare rate, and, secondly, they are adding fifteen per cent to the regular cost of a return ticket. It is surmised that it will be a somewhat slimly attended court.

The attitude of the prices for the home here necessitates for living is as dizzy high in London as anywhere else to-day, and it is one of the outstanding characteristics of preachers that they have good endowments, because they have good consciences. If Assembly meets in the autumn, when the gardens all are now planting were bringing in their sheaves it would not be so hard to feed the commissioners.

London plans to conserve wheat for the overseas needs will not suffer much dislocation from the Assembly men, owing to their known ability to eat oats. If the Assembly had the same fondness for tea and cake that the Anglican Synod delegates have (and by the way, the Anglican Synod meets in London in the same week as the Assembly), we might have Mr. O'Connor's successor making reports to the disinterested Hon. Mr. Crothers. The oatmeal Assembly and the tea synod will balance very well, and they will both be as welcome as the showers of June, which they usually cause to fall wherever they meet.

Place Where Macbeth Was Slain is Given to City.

Dundee, Scotland, May 14.—Belmont Castle, the scene of the final struggle between Macbeth and Macduff when Macbeth was slain, has been given to the City of Dundee by its owner, Mrs. Murray, who inherited a large fortune from her brother, Sir James Caird. The castle, which is located seventeen miles from Dundee, was once the home of the British Premier, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman. The property includes 900 acres of park land, and is valued at $2,000,000.

The allied troops have been so thoroughly trained in the use of the gas mask that the Hun gas shells no longer have any terrors for them. They work on, as shown in the accompanying official photograph, as if the air were free of poisonous gas.
