

FRIENDS THOUGHT HE WOULD DIE

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Conquered Dyspepsia and Restored His Health.

MR. ROBERT NEWTON.

Little Bras d'Or, C. B. was a terrible sufferer from Dyspepsia and Constipation for years. I had pain after eating, belching gas, constant headaches, and did not sleep well at night. I lost so much weight—going from 185 pounds to 146 pounds—that I became alarmed and saw several doctors who, however, did me no good. Finally, a friend told me to try "Fruit-a-tives".

In a week, there was improvement. The constipation was corrected; and soon I was free of pain, headaches and that miserable feeling that accompanies Dyspepsia. I continued to take this splendid fruit medicine and now I am well, strong and vigorous". ROBERT NEWTON.

FOR KINGSTON IN HIS FARM CLOTHES TO SERVE.

A Young Ontario Farmer Started Off Without a Farewell at Home—A Very Touching Case.

The Peterboro Examiner says: When John Doherty, a young Ontario farmer living near Drummond's Station, finished a long day's work Wednesday night about ten o'clock he wasn't sure that it was his last. In his pocket was a letter from Kingston ordering him to report for military service, and he was already four or five days overdue. He had been torn by forces that are now in open conflict; on the one hand was his father's depleted store of man-power, and the seeding unfinished, and on the other were gaps in the army, with a place assigned to him. He had taken the liberty to remain those three or four days because there was so much to do and so little done. But they were uneasy days. The shadow of the military police officer seemed to follow him, and the letter with its railway pass and two dollars for personal expenses was a constant reminder that his plough had been superseded by the sword.

So last night he concluded that the wisest course was to report for duty. After supper he went through his chores in the ordinary routine, and treated the seed with formaldehyde. At ten o'clock he turned his back on home and, without telling his parents that he was going, struck across the field to the railway and walked eight miles to Peterboro. He reached the city about midnight, and was noticed by Constables Deannard and Brumley on the George street beat. He had intended to wait until morning for the G.T.R. train, but the police advised him to take the midnight C.P.R., transferring at Sharbot Lake for Kingston. Doherty was dressed just as he had dropped the plough, in overalls and smock. He told the police that he wished to avoid the scene of parting at home, thinking it would be better to write his parents from Kingston. Sergt. Blade saw him off, sending him away with a cheery message instead of apprehending him as a deserter and probably claiming the ten dollars which is allowed in such cases. Doherty told him that his working day had been from 5 a.m. (new time) until eight at night. After the day's work in the fields, he had to feed and bed the cattle, and prepare the grain for the next day, and was out again at five. His father's land comprised 320 acres. He has a brother in England, and there now remain at home his father, who he said was advanced in years and unfitted for hard work by rheumatism, and a young brother whose help was limited. When he boarded the train, it was his second experience; the other ride had been from Drummond's Station to Peterboro. Doherty departed, as unsophisticated as the country makes them, with the intention of explaining his delay in reporting to the authorities at Kingston and of asking permission for leave until June 1st, in order that he might complete the seeding at home in long stretches from 5 a.m. until 10 p.m. He had never been examined by the doctors, having applied for and obtained exemption as a farmer. But he built no expectations of being rejected, and was even doubtful of receiving the leave that is now granted to farm draftees.

HERMIT LED TO FORTUNES

Two, at Least, of His Three Shafts Have Turned Out Well.

When Ben Hollinger, Alex. Gillies and the late Barney McEusney broke the trail through the bush, into Wilfrid and Tisdale townships from Kelso, on the T. & N. O. Railway, their goal was not brought into sight until those experienced and hardy prospectors stumbled across one of the most perfectly constructed shafts, tongue and groove in a most expert manner. "There sure must be something worth while close by where such a shaft was sunk," declared Hollinger, and a search was begun, which resulted in discovery of the shaft in due time netting Ben $320,000 cash. McEusney, who died recently in Toronto, slipped in a shaft, which, as the Porcupine Crown prospectors say, was the shaft of the

TROUBLED WITH CONSTIPATION

FROM 16 TO 20.

Constipation is one of the commonest ills of mankind, and one too often allowed to go unlooked after until some serious complication sets in.

If the bowels are properly looked after there will be no constipation, jaundice, sick or bilious headaches, heartburn, coated tongue, sour stomach, floating specks before the eyes, etc.

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills will keep your bowels so regulated that in no time the constipation will disappear entirely. Miss Emma E. Melanson, Halifax, N.S., writes: "I am now 20 years of age, and since I was 16 I have been greatly troubled with constipation, so much so that at times I would be in bed three or four days a month. I tried all the old-fashioned remedies, castor oil, casars, etc., with only temporary relief until my sister-in-law gave me some of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills. From the first they seemed beneficial and I gave them a fair trial. This was two years ago, and with an occasional dose I have kept entirely free from constipation for the period mentioned."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. The area staked by Gillies was absorbed by the Hollinger mines. On the second trip in from Kelso, Hollinger came across Jack Wilson and Jack and Frank Campbell living in a small tent, and before he could relate his discovery Wilson began to tell of the wonderfully constructed shaft he had found on his property. This led to the foundation of the Dome mine.

There was a third similar mysterious shaft, and this prospect is now being aggressively developed by the Porcupine Whelpdale Mines, and although a depth of only 100 feet has yet been reached, there is every hope that it, too, will prove to be a bonanza. The twelve-vein system parallels that of the Hollinger, and gold values from these, as shown by assays, are reported to be as high as $500 to the ton. The width of these veins varies from 4 to 14 feet, with indicated lengths of from 550 to 2,000 feet. The three strange shafts are attributed to an English hermit, who for a long time lived in the district.

The death of Mrs. Clifford McDonald, occurred at McDonald's Corner on May 6th. Deceased was held in high esteem by all who knew her and was a faithful member of Knox church, president of the Young People's Guild, and the very efficient secretary-treasurer of the Women's Institute. Death was due to anaemia which had been creeping on unconsciously for months. Deceased was twenty-eight years of age.
