USUAGE OF PRISONERS DISGRACE TO NATURE

The Russian Captives Especially Ill-treated—Many Die From Starvation.

London, May 22.—Sergt. Waters, of the Royal Berks Regiment, who has been a prisoner of war in Germany, and is now interned in Holland, writing home, says: "I saw awful cases of mistreatment of prisoners when in Germany, especially amongst the Russians. Some were degraded to human nature; but the Germans did not care a cent if they all died. I actually saw nine or ten men carried to their last resting-place in one week through neglect and starvation. We must thank God for delivering us from such bondage. No one could realize what is going on in Germany among the prisoners of war."

Members on the Government side are receiving telegrams from all parts of Ontario, urging them, before the session closes, to use their vote and influence to revoke the Order-in-Council cancelling the exemptions of young men between the ages of twenty and twenty-two, inclusive.
