THE SOCIAL SERVICE WORK

DONE IN ONTARIO DURING THE LAST YEAR.

New Basis of Appointment—A Devotional Conference Held in the Cathedral Wednesday Afternoon.

That the synod had reason to be pleased with the work carried on during the year along lines of social service, was the most encouraging report that Prof. H. Michell, M. A., diocesan secretary of the Council for Social Service, gave to the members, in a fifteen-minute address to the synod on Wednesday morning.

Prof. Michell distributed to the members copies of the report of the council for social service, and stated that he had nothing much to add to it. He pointed out that there had been considerable activity in Kingston. During the year, the speaker had sent out 30,000 pieces of literature. Over 1,300 replies had been received. The speaker had sent out upwards of five hundred letters.

"I think we have reason to be proud of what we have accomplished," added the speaker. "I am convinced that our propaganda is taking hold. I have received scores of letters from all over Canada, commending our work. We have been working under a great difficulty. We have not yet secured a secretary. At the present moment we have not a secretary, and have not the money to cover his salary."

Prof. Michell stated that this last year, double the amount of the previous year had been raised for the work.

"We are casting our bread on the waters, and we are meeting with much success," said the speaker at the close of his brief, but very impressive address, and as he sat down, the members of synod gave a hearty round of applause.

Canon H. H. Bedford Jones moved, seconded by Francis King, that the synod accept the appointment of $8,350 for M.S.C.C. for the current year, $7,250, to be included in the apportionment to parishes, the extra $1,000 for northwest needs, to be appealed for in a special way, and raised outside, and further, that the synod ask Bishop Bidwell to issue a letter on the subject.

After considerable discussion, this motion was put to the synod and was carried.

On motion of Col. R. J. Gardiner, Rev. H. H. Bedford Jones, the Chancellor and lay secretary, were appointed a committee to meet the finance committee of St. George's Cathedral to discuss the extra $1,000 for northwest needs, and to report to the synod office, and to report to the present session of synod.

In view of the fact that there will be no session of the provincial synod this year, Chancellor McDonald moved, seconded by Archdeacon Beamish that there be no election of delegates at this session. The motion was carried. This means that the old panel of delegates will be called upon to serve, should there be an emergency meeting of the provincial synod.

It was announced that the sum of $20.63 had been received at the synod service, to be devoted to missions.

The synod took up a report of the committee on a new basis of apportionment. Archdeacon Dobbs presented this report, which stated "that having carefully looked into the systems adopted in the dioceses of Ottawa and Toronto, we are prepared to recommend adoption of a somewhat modified form of these systems, having regard to our own special needs, and the canons of the diocese. We believe that the most satisfactory and equitable basis will be found to be that of the net assessable parochial income."

Rev. A. L. McTear objected to the report. He did not regard it as practical, and had objected to the suggestion at the meeting of the executive. A fair way would be to take a basis in the last seven years.

Archdeacon Dobbs, replying to the criticism that the scheme would not be practical, stated that the scheme was one used by Ottawa and Toronto synods, and had given good satisfaction. It was the opinion that it was a very fair basis.

Bishop Bidwell felt it would be wise to give the scheme a trial. It could at any time be revised or withdrawn.

On the vote being called, the report of the committee was adopted. This means that the matter will be further taken up at the next meeting of the executive.

The question of the stipend of the secretary, Rev. J. W. Jones, was under discussion, and it was decided, on motion of Francis King, to fix the secretary's salary at $1,850, the secretary to pay for his office assistance out of this amount.

There was much discussion on the assessment fund report, and it was finally adopted.

The vote for the election of delegates to general synod took place at 12.30 p.m., when synod adjourned.

At 2.30 p.m. synod met in the cathedral for a devotional conference conducted by Bishop Bidwell, after which Rev. Arthur Carlisle spoke on "Spiritual Problems Arising From the War." Following this, Rev. John H. H. Coleman read a paper on "Christ and Modern Life."

To-night the members of synod are to be guests at a missionary supper, at which addresses will be delivered.

The Theatres

"Over the Top."

Large audiences were again thrilled at the showing of "Over the Top" with Sergt. Arthur Guy Empey at the Grand Opera House on Tuesday evening. The appearance of the doughty little American hero, who was wounded three times at the front, was the occasion for much enthusiasm and as the views of the soldiers' lives in the trenches were thrown on the screen the patriotic fervor of Kingstonsians was stirred. Under the supervision of Sergt. Empey the picture was filmed and the scenes depicted are true to those that confront one in the battle area in France. "Over the Top" is a film that should be missed by no one who wants to realize just what trench life is like. It will be shown for the last time on Wednesday night.

At the Grand.

A romantic tale of love in London is told in "Stolen Hours," the unique new "old picture," Brady-unique in which charming Ethel Clayton is the star and which will be shown at the Grand on Thursday and Friday only. Miss Clayton takes the role of Diana Lester, a beautiful girl, whose mother died when she was a baby and who has been brought up by her father, a professional gambler. But despite her father's occupation and his low associates, Diana has grown up pure, sweet and unsullied. And then she met Hugh Carton, a member of Parliament, and a rising young politician who was slated for a cabinet position. She came to love Hugh with all her heart and soul, and then she found out that he was married and that, although he did not live with his wife, she refused to give him a divorce. How Diana meets this situation and what happens is unfolded during the showing of the picture which is one that none should miss. There will also be the Pathe News, a two reel Lonesome Luke comedy and other films along with a vaudeville and that will prove a winner.

"The Heart of Wexona." Coming.

David Belasco's wonderful play, "The Heart of Wexona," comes to the Grand Opera House on Saturday, June 1st, matinee and night. "The Heart of Wexona" is regarded by many as the greatest play of North-western life ever produced on the English speaking stage. The play has to do with the daughter of an Indian chief, who has had the educational advantages of Eastern colleges, and intimately deals with many phases of a romantic heart story of love and reality. The play is one of deeply sustained interest throughout. "The Heart of Wexona" was first produced by David Belasco and Charles Frohman at the Lyceum Theatre, New York, and enjoyed a run of an entire season. The New York critics were a unit in pronouncing it a smashing good play, a play of joyous excitement for young folks or folks who still retain youthful hearts. There are fun, excitement, tears, smiles, until the audience literally howls with delight.

At Griffin's.

Another large audience assembled at Griffin's last evening, and highly enjoyed the excellent programme presented, which is headed by the eminent artist, William Farum in the triumph of his successful career, "When a Man Sees Red." Don't miss this photodramatic treat, which is a thrilling picturization depicting a strong man's triumph. Another feature which was enthusiastically received was the distinguished actor Sessue Hayakawa in "The Honor of His House," showing his popular favorite in the best picture he has ever made. See these two pictures at Griffin's to-night, and also the ever interesting serial, "Vengeance and the Woman."

Real Daughter Of The Empire.

Mrs. John Bell Carruthers, regent of the Municipal Chapter, Kingston, is in very deep and truth, Daughter of the Empire. She has given her five sons to the fighting forces, and one has already laid down his life. Besides this her daughters are working as V.A.D.'s, and she herself helped greatly with work for the troops when in England, as well as in her own town, and beyond this she and her husband have given up much of their beautiful grounds at "Annandale" for war production.
