Y.M.C.A. WORK AT CAMP.

To be Commenced by the Middle of Next Week.
On Friday afternoon members of the Military Y.M.C.A. staff were in conference with the military authorities at Barrfield regarding the association work for the season. Arrangements are nearly completed, and it is expected the "Y" will be in full swing by the middle of the week.

The opening of the Y.M.C.A. work has been delayed this season through the start has been delayed, this year's work promises to excel previous years.

This year's staff has been well selected and is composed of men who are experienced in the different departments. George Young, who has been in charge here during the winter, will have charge of the camp work. Rev. D. F. Wright, of Rochester, N.Y., will have charge of the religious programme. Mr. Wright was formerly "Y" secretary at Peterboro, and has had much success in "Y" work.

Charles Ward, of Toronto West End "Y," will look after athletics. Mr. Ward is not new to Barrfield, having been connected in similar work here in 1915. E. L. Oatin, also of Toronto, will arrange the social programme. He is a Victoria College man and has had experience along this line.

It is expected that P. J. Lee, of the National Council, will be here for the opening at Barrfield.
