Potter-Irwin Wedding.

On June 5th a quiet wedding was solemnized at the archbishop's palace, when Irene Irwin was united in marriage to Alexander Potter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Potter, Rideau street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Hanley. The bride was unattended and looked charming in a suit of navy blue silk with picture hat to match. She carried a bouquet of bridal flowers. Many beautiful presents were received, showing the high esteem in which the young couple are held. The operating staff of the Bell Telephone Co., of which the bride was a former employee, presented her with a silver tea service.

Excursions For Convalescents. It was announced last evening at the G.W.V.A. meeting that excursions will be run twice a week from Kingston to Leek Island for the benefit of convalescent soldiers. The boat holds twenty-five and the trips will be free of charge. The use of the boat was donated to Major Starr by a wealthy American lady. The vocational branch will supply an engineer. At Leek Island lunch will be served to the party by the generous lady who resides there during the summer months. Dean Starr's good offices are highly appreciated by the members of the G.W.V.A.

The Women's Missionary Society of Queen Street Methodist church held their regular meeting at the beautiful home of Dean and Mrs. H. T. J. Coleman on Monday afternoon. Afterward tea was served on the lawn.

The Theatres

At The Grand.
The excellent bill at the Grand last night pleased the large audience immensely. The feature picture consisted of "The Woman Between Friends" and is a screen adaptation from "Between Friends," the famous novel by Robert W. Chambers, who is known the world over for his wonderful writings. This is the third picture by Vitagraph of the Chambers books, the other two being "The Fettered Woman" and "Who Goes There!" In this absorbing drama of love and tragedy Alice Joyce has the stellar role and she is capably supported by many favorites, including Marie MacDermott, Robert Walker, Bernard Seigel and others. The story is woven about two young American artists and a flower girl in Paris and is told in a powerful, vivid way that will hold your interest until the last minute. Other pictures shown were the Pathe News, a two-reel Judge Brown story that is the best yet, and a screamingly funny comedy that will make you laugh from start to finish. The vaudeville, Prof. McKay and his mechanical doll, has a splendid act. This same programme will be repeated to-night and to-morrow, matinee and night only.

At Griffin's.
The announcement that Douglas Fairbanks, he of the smile, broad and genial, was to be seen in his latest photocomedy, "Mr. Fix-It," was the lodestone that attracted an unusually large audience to this theatre last night. Mr. Fairbanks' admirers, seemingly numberless as the sands of the seashore, were there in great force, as was evidenced by the laughter and applause that greeted each scene of the excellent picture treat served so admirably to display his wonderfully versatility as a screen star. Much praise was lavished also on the exceptional William Fox production shown last night, entitled, "Heart and Soul," and featuring the world-famed screen star, Theda Bara. This is a timely patriotic photo-play, showing Miss Bara in a great and stirring emotional drama. There two features comprise the major portion of one of the best programmes exhibited in this theatre in some time, and the equal to any shown in any playhouse in Canada.

Thanks for Interest.
Col. F. S. S. Johnson, American Consul, has received a letter from Max J. Gauthier, written at The Hague on May 9th, 1918, thanking him for his kindly interest while a prisoner in Germany. He says: "I am very thankful to you for what you have done for me during my captivity in Germany. If it hadn't been for your nice parcels you were sending I don't know how I could have lived on German rations. The prisoner of war who is depending only on their ration is not very well off, believe me."

Opened a New Branch.
Comrade Clarke went to Trenton last week and organized a branch of the G.W.V.A. There were seventy-five members in attendance and officers were appointed. Capt. "Watty" Macnee, late 21st Battalion, was elected secretary.

Dwellings Damaged by Fire.
Damage to the extent of several hundred dollars was done to the dwellings at No. 8, 10, 12 Corrigan street, late on Monday afternoon, when fire broke out in the house of Charles Sturman. The blaze was quickly quenched.
