A Fatal Accident at Richardson's Grain Elevator on Thursday Morning.

WHEN A DERRICK FELL, CRUSH-ING HIS SKULL.

Child's Parents And Brothers And Sisters Were Abroad-An Inquest May Be Held on Friday Night. Ovila Lalonde, aged three years, was instantly killed on Thursday morning about ten o'clock when a derrick fell on him while playing on the deck of the M.T. Co. barge Montreal, at Richardson's grain elevator and crushed his skull. The accident FRENCH AND BRITISH was witnessed by a member of the crew, Paul Lecompte. Whether one of the guy ropes holding up one of the tripods had been loosened or not, is unknown, but the crashing of the conrelvance to the deck was the first intimation that anything was wrong.

Dr. W. W. Sands was called to the scene of the occurrence and viewed the remains. He stated that an in- ers, says the official statement issubut that if it were held it would be importance on the rest of the front. on Friday night.
