

Have Your New Suit Just Right

Just as easy and costs no more to have it right than to have it the other way.

A selection from our new models will insure rightness in every way: Rightness in style; rightness in fabric; rightness in price.

We've many uncommon styles that will dress a man rather than just clothe him.

High price? Not a bit of it. This store knows nothing about lofty prices.

Suits at $18, $20, $22 up to $30.

Military News

Major Douglas Ellis, D.S.O., has been appointed brigade major of the Canadian Engineers' Training Corps at Seaford, Eng. He will at once reorganize the corps and put on a solid basis. Recently the major has been mentioned a second time in despatches.

Four garrison military police from Kingston are at Watertown, N.Y., to escort the fifteen Canadian deserters back to Canada. They can not be released however until word is received from the State Department at Washington releasing them under the provisions of the Immigration law.

Sergeant-Major Boss is now established with the Engineers at Brockville, and Sergt. H. Hough has succeeded him in the office of the D.A.A. and Q.M.G.

Nursing Sister A. McIntyre, A.M.C., has been taken on the strength of the Ontario Military Hospital, Cobourg.

Applications for discharge of draftees who claim to be American citizens may be dealt with on a consular certificate, but applications concerning those voluntarily enlisted in the United States through the B. and C. R. M. must be referred to Militia Headquarters, with a full statement of facts, together with official information from the American Consul asking for discharge. If the man is subject to United States draft, arrangements will probably be made to hand him over to the United States military authorities.

Lieut. L. H. Sherwood has been appointed to the 2nd Battalion, C.O.R.

Hon. Capt. John Oviatt, chaplain services, has been struck off the strength of the C.E.F.

Major H. J. Woodside, late 14th Battalion, and Lieut.-Col. Rene de Salabery, late 230th Battalion, have been struck off the strength of the C.E.F.

Hon. Lieut.-Col. A. G. Doughty, C.M.G., has been appointed Director of War Trophies, with the rank of lieutenant-colonel, with travelling expenses.

Col. R. D. Street, public representative, M. D. No. 3, under the M.S.A. is in the city. Speaking of the work of his department, he said a great many men are being added to the army's strength, and much work has yet to be done. All pleas of hardship are dealt with, and each case is decided upon its merits. Cases of real hardship are sometimes found, but they are rare.

Col. Boggs, judge advocate-general for M.D. No. 3, has taken up his duties in an office adjacent to that of the D.O.C. Col. Boggs practised law before the war and went overseas with the 35th Battalion. He is relieving General Hemming of a great deal of work in connection with the applications for leave. General Hemming has been called upon to perform an enormous amount of office work, some days examining and signing 500 documents. Col. Boggs will be available for courts of inquiry, too, throughout the district.

Letters to the Editor

Calling the V. A. D.'s to Church, Kingston, June 21 (To the Editor): I feel there has been some misunderstanding as to the attitude of the members of St. John's Ambulance Brigade, toward their church parade on Sunday next. I have been at all the meetings, and have not heard one member of the brigade object to being "ordered" to parade. It would be absurd to do so, for while our services are voluntary, once we sign up we are under orders. As for the uniforms, we quite understand that they are to be purchased at our own expense, and all the V. A. D.'s who work in the hospital have the complete indoor uniform. It has been felt by those in authority that we should have the straw hat and leather belt to wear on the street and from the hospital, as they do in larger cities. These can be procured at a trifling cost. This is the only additional expense connected with the church parade.

I am sure on the whole the V. A. D.'s are pleased with the idea of attending church together on this occasion, as the object is to return thanks that Jerusalem, where the work of the brigade was begun many centuries ago, during the Crusades, is at last in the hands of the British. I also feel I am only voicing the feeling of the V. A. D.'s who work at the military hospitals, in saying that we are grateful for the opportunity given to us to do something for the brave men who have done so much for us.

Yours sincerely,
MARY GOING, V.A.D.

OBITUARY

The Late Mrs. Alva Boulton. On Thursday night the death occurred in the Kingston General Hospital of Bertha Myrtle, wife of Alva Boulton, Ernestown. The deceased had been ill for a long time, and death came as a relief to much suffering. The late Mrs. Boulton was born in Ernestown forty-seven years ago, and was a life-long resident. The remains were transferred to her late residence by the firm of James Reid, and interment will be made on Sunday.

The Brockville police have been asked to look for a man who made off from Kingston with a bicycle from a local livery and has not returned it. Strawberries for Saturday are going to be extra fancy at Carnovsky's.

The Theatres

At the Grand. "The Cross Bearers," the spectacularly marvelous World Picture, Brady-made, was shown at the Grand last night with popular Montagu Love as the star. Never has Mr. Love been cast in a more brilliant and powerful role and never has his ability been set to such good effect. As Cardinal Mercier, the world famous Belgian prelate, he sturdily stands up against the advancing German hordes and how he protects his people is told in a way that makes it a photoplay that is intensely thrilling and immensely entertaining. No opportunity was lost during the making of the picture to take advantage of the remarkable scenic effects possible, and many faithful reproductions are seen, such as Louvain Cathedral, in which Cardinal Mercier is celebrating mass when the enemy rush in and take possession, and this feature there was also shown the Pathé News, an O. Henry story, a Lonesome Luke comedy and other reels along with Elsie Stark in a novel aerial act that pleased the large audience. This bill will be repeated to-night, and to-morrow, matinee and night.

At the Strand. What has been pronounced as the best film shown for some time at the Strand is that which started last night and which will be shown to-night and to-morrow, matinee and night, "Fools For Luck," with Taylor Holmes in the title role. The large audience last night was delighted with the action, the plot and the acting of the splendid cast chosen to filmize the thrilling and entertaining story. Expense was not considered by the Esanay people in its production, and the success which it has attained wherever shown is proof that given them by the Strand management in securing this remarkable film. There are some good comedy reels, and Charlie Chaplin films also shown. The whole bill is well worth seeing.

At Griffin's. Depicting a character of the west, with the requirements of which he is thoroughly familiar, and which is bound to accentuate his fame as being perhaps the foremost actor of the day, in strenuous western characterizations, William S. Hart as usual carried his enthusiastic audience with him in the presentation of his new Artercraft photoplay, "The Tiger Man," at Griffin's Theatre yesterday. There is a certain fascination about the wild life characterization so indelibly associated with the name of "Big Bill" Hart, so that one unconsciously breathes for the moment the same atmosphere which he knows how to vest with such convincing realism. One feels the thrills of expectancy, danger, heroism and rugged love and all those human emotions which his genius touches with the magic wand of verity, and it is indisputable that one is the better for the wholesome sentiments the yinspire.

Now is the time to have your piano tuned. We carry two expert tuners and will assure entire satisfaction. C. W. Lindsay, Limited.

Nutmeg mania at Carnovsky's. The men of Davis' tannery who recently went out received letters from the firm to report on Friday morning or else they would be considered as having left the firm's employ. The letter stated that any monies due would be sent them by registered letter.
