An Appeal to the Public.

The increase in the cost of food and other materials has thrown such a burden on the Orphans' Home that our expenditure has for some time now exceeds our income by $2,000. Those responsible for the administration of affairs are averse to making use of any part of our small endowment to meet the ordinary expenses, as if this were done it would mean a lessened revenue and deficit for the future. We, on behalf of this most deserving institution, to which in times of need, support has always been accorded, direct the attention of generous Kingstonians to our requirements, and urge, as promptly as possible, assistance by way of subscriptions however small to be sent the treasurer.

At the Theatres

At the Grand. Charming Madge Evans, the "world's kiddie star," added many new admirers to her already long list when she appeared at the Grand last evening in a delightful new World Picture Brady-Made entitled, "Want—A Mother." The story tells of the adventures of a little girl whose mother is dead and of her efforts to find a suitable mother for herself as she grievously misses the tender care and loving kindness that only a mother can give. The quest for this personage leads the little girl into many surprising and interesting adventures and Madge Evans in this role does some of the very best acting that she has ever done. Supporting Madge in this production is George MacQuarrie who has been co-starred in many other pictures with this tiny film favorite. If you want to see something real good be sure and be on hand to-night and see this superior offering. Besides this feature there was Lonesome Luke comedy an O. Henry story and the Pathe News along with the well-known Raffles in a novelty vaudeville act that was just the thing required to complete this extraordinary entertainment. Don't forget that this bill will be repeated to-night and tomorrow only.

At Griffin's. Appearing to signal advantage in "Miss" Brot Harte's ideal of the Golden West of '49, Mary Pickford headlined a unique programme at Griffin's last night and will be shown to-night and Saturday. As "Miss," this universal favorite has abundant opportunities for the display of her versatile genius. She is at her best as the harum-scarum child of the mines, the daughter of a drunken father to whom she paid the most devoted care. The object of ridicule wherever she went, the sport of the boys and girls of Red Gulch, she had learned to take her own part, and in numerous scenes with these children she demonstrates beyond question her fighting qualities. That "Miss" will be a worthy successor to "Tess of the Storm Country," in the hearts of "Our Mary's" admirers, there can be little doubt. The picture has been produced upon an elaborate scale. Another feature is George Walsh in a decidedly attractive play "Brave and Bold," which is sure to please all admirers of this athletic star.

IN EARLY MORNING HOURS

Thirteen-year-old Lad Counting Money on Street Corner.

While on his beat at two o'clock on Friday morning, Police Constable William Nicholson was surprised to see a lad standing on the corner of Queen and Montreal streets, counting money. The lad had in his possession $3.58, made up of silver and copper. He acted in a very suspicious manner, and, when questioned, told so many different stories that Constable Nicholson took him in charge. Later on the youngster confessed that he had stolen the money from a garage. It was learned Friday morning that the proprietor of the garage would not prosecute and as a result it is likely the boy will be allowed to go with a warning.

ONGWANADA TENDERS

Have Been Sent to Ottawa for Consideration.

Tenders for the extension to the Ongwanada Hospital were received on Thursday and were all forwarded to the Department of Public Works for consideration. J. W. Power, architect, is the local representative of the Government. The work that will be begun now is the erection of just one of the proposed buildings. When this is finished and occupied the others called for in the plan will be built as required, as it was definitely ascertained that the labor required for such a large undertaking was not available. Needless to say, a number of local contractors are eagerly interested in the award.
