SECOND SECTION

HULL WOMAN HAS GAINED 28 POUNDS

Improvement of Mrs. McCann is Talk of Entire Neighborhood.

"My wife has actually gained twenty-eight pounds by taking Tanlac and her wonderful improvement is the talk of all the neighborhood."

"Yes sir, I can say for a fact," he continued, "my wife hasn't been in such good health before in seven years. She had been in a badly run-down condition for about that long and gradually got worse in spite of all she could do."

"I had seen Tanlac so highly recommended that I finally got a bottle for her and I have never seen such a wonderful improvement in anyone. Soon after she commenced taking it she began to pick up and look better. She has taken five bottles now, and she has not only gotten back to her old weight of one hundred and twenty-eight pounds, but she has actually gone ten pounds above that, as she now weighs one hundred and thirty-eight."

Tanlac is sold in Kingston by A. P. Chown, in Plevna by Gilbert Oster, in Battersby by C. S. Clark, in Fernleigh by Ervin Martin, in Ardooch by M. J. Scullion, in Sharbot Lake by W. Y. Cannon.

DEATH OF J. A. B. SMITH

HE HAD BEEN ILL FOR SOME TIME PAST.

For Sixty-five Years He Served As An Anglican Chorister—He Was A Liberal and Ex-member of Board of Education.

A kindly old resident of Kingston passed away on Saturday night in the person of Joseph Alfred Bacon Smith, for nearly fifty years a well-known citizen. The late Mr. Smith had been in poor health for some months, but it has only been during the past month that it was necessary for him to be confined to his home.

The week preceding his demise showed signs of improvement, but he passed away very suddenly on Saturday night at the home of his son, Ald. Norman A. Smith, on Alfred street.

Seventy-one years ago the late Mr. Smith was born in St. John's, Newfoundland, of Devonshire parentage. It was perhaps natural that, being reared in an atmosphere adhering strictly to the religious tenets of the Anglican church, he would soon be come closely connected with that organization. While still a boy of six years he took his place in the choir, and for nearly sixty-five years he had been a chorister in the Anglican church. At seven years of age he was admitted to full membership in the choir of the Cathedral of St. John, Newfoundland, and later when he removed to Quebec he joined St. Matthew's, the first cathedral choir in that city. In 1870 the late Mr. Smith came to Kingston, and sang in three of the city's choirs, later joining the surplined choir of St. George's cathedral when it was organized by the late Dean Smith. During his long period of service, which he believed to have been surpassed by no chorister in the Dominion, and is perhaps unique even among the old hand, the late Mr. Smith seldom missed a service of prayer and praise.

Moreover, his interests were not confined only to the choir for he was secretary of St. George's Society for many years, and was closely associated with all church activities. On the Board of Education he represented Ontario Ward for eight years, and for the cause of Liberalism in the city he devoted much effort.

Deceased survived by one daughter, Mrs. G. L. Marshall, of Syracuse, who has been with him for some weeks, also three sons, Herbert J., of Chicago, and Sydney C. and Ald. Norman A., of Kingston.

HISTORIC SILVER SERVICE.

Litigation Over Plate Presented Sir Mackenzie Bowell in Riel Case.

When Sir Mackenzie Bowell died he willed that three family oil paintings and a service of silver valued at some $1,100 should remain in possession of his daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Margaret McCarthy, while she lived at the family homestead, after which it was to pass to his son, John Moore Bowell, and then to his namesake, Mackenzie Bowell.

There is some doubt as to what became of the silver plate, and application is being made to Justice Rose for an interpretation of the will. The service has a peculiar interest as, according to the will, it was presented to Sir Mackenzie Bowell "for the course pursued by him while a member of the House of Commons in the conduct of the investigation, and in moving the expulsion of Louis Riel (the murderer of Scott, a brother Orangeman) from the House of Commons, of which he was then a member."

Died in Toronto.

Rev. Dr. James Allen, general secretary of the Home Mission Department of the Methodist Church, died in Toronto on Saturday. Deceased was at one time assistant pastor of Sydenham and Queen street Methodist churches here. He owned a summer cottage near Gananoque.

Visiting a Brother.

Lansing Rudd and R. S. Harting, Toronto, registered at the Frontenac for a few days, to see people and get their assistance in carrying out a scheme whereby each householder shall undertake to keep his own premises in order. This would be a great aid to the council.

DEATH OF RICHARD RINGER.

He Was a Veteran of Picton; A Splendid Citizen.

Picton Times.—Richard Ringer passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John A. Wallace, on June 29th. Mr. Ringer had been ill for about a month. The deceased was one of the oldest residents of the town, having located here in 1849. He was born in England, and on coming to Canada lived for a few years at Perth and Smith's Falls. His first business venture in Picton was in partnership with the late Richard Madden in a harness shop. Afterwards he went into partnership with Lucius Hart in the carriage-making business. This partnership continued until the death of Mr. Hart, when Mr. Ringer continued the business the firm had developed.

Six years ago Mr. Ringer was appointed janitor of the post office building, a position he filled faithfully up to within a few weeks of his death. The flag on the post office building hung at half mast out of respect for the deceased.

During his long and honorable career in Picton Mr. Ringer filled many positions of trust. He had been High school trustee, councilor, church warden of St. Mary Magdalene's church, and for many years he was treasurer for the local lodge of the A.O.U.W. when that institution was flourishing. Mr. Ringer was married in Picton to Miss Emeline Babcock who predeceased him thirteen years. His second marriage was with Mrs. Campney who is also deceased. The surviving members of his family are Mrs. George R. Hare, Picton; Mrs. Ida Hunt, who resided with her father; Mrs. Albert Seeds, Toronto; Mrs. John A. Wallace, Picton; William A. Ringer, who is at present in Kansas; and Herbert J. Ringer, Picton. One son, Charles E. Ringer, has been dead some eight years. A sister, Mrs. William Beckett, resides in Picton.

SOLIQUY.

To me this life is like a mask Silk-woven—yet I dare not ask To take it off that I may peer Beyond the length of this dark year Into the future which I pray, Will fast bring forth a brighter day.

For these are days of war and sin And only those who dwell within Their time, can ever know the pain That's caused for but a little gain Upon a world-wide battlefield.

'T seems the foe will never yield, And though we fight for Honor, Right, Their rule goes on, a rule of Might— The Devil's might, perhaps you say Oh well, we'll know on that bright day.

When all our tears are dry And Heaven alone shall stand Victorious, free— The Temple of Eternity.

DISOBEYED 'SILENT POLICEMAN'

Lady Driving Auto Will Be Summoned Before Magistrate.

Even the "silent policeman" are not able to make some auto drivers keep to the right. A lady driver made the wrong turn at the corner of Brock and Wellington street, where the first "silent policeman" was put on duty, but she ignored his appeal to keep to the right, and as a result will have to walk the carpet at the police court. The lady was also minus her 1918 marker, and this means that she will have two charges to face.

On Saturday afternoon, several more "silent policemen" were put in position by the City Engineer. It is the general opinion that the installation of these signs will be the means of curtailing the number of accidents and infractions of the by-laws at street corners.

Tried to Attack Governor.

Sarnia, Ont., July 2.—Fred West, over London, in jail awaiting transfer to Kingston whence he will serve two years for stealing an automobile and a bike, made an effort to break jail. He had two large stones hidden in the cell and a good sized club in a sock. When Governor Dodd went into the cell Westover tried to strike him with a stone. Governor Dodd was too quick and Westover's teeth reached for the club. The jail governor landed a blow on Westover's jaw which laid him out so badly that a doctor had to be called. He was taken to Kingston to-day.

William B. Grey, for years a resident of Carleton Place, died at the home of his son Robert, at Maryfield, Sask., on June 10th. Mr. Grey was born May 24th, 1834.

Shell Shocked Nerves

Shattered nerves are the source of greatest suffering to many a returned soldier.

The doctor can give something to relieve physical pain, but when the nervous system breaks down and you are sleepless, nervous and mentally worried, real cure only comes when the exhausted nerve cells are nourished back to health, and vigor by such restorative, up-building treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

UNVEILING OF A TABLET

IN MEMORY OF THE LATE LIEUT. RODGIE STEWART.

Ceremony at Chalmers Church on Sunday Morning—Major Wilson Says Religion Alone Can Prevent War.

A marble tablet erected by his parents was unveiled in Chalmers church on Sunday morning in memory of the late Lieut. A. Rodgie Stewart, candidate Artillery, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Stewart, who was killed in action on July 9th, 1917. There was a large congregation present. In attendance were Col. J. S. N. Leslie, inspector of artillery for Eastern Canada, Major Witherspoon and Capt. A. Wilson of the Royal Military College staff, and representatives of the veterans' associations. Major the Rev. R. J. Wilson, minister of Chalmers, officiated, assisted by Rev. Dr. Macgillivray. After the singing of the National Anthem and with the congregation standing, Dr. Macgillivray, under the leadership of the deceased young artillery officer grew to manhood, performed the unveiling ceremony and pronounced a touching eulogy upon the young man who had given his life for his country. The Union Jack covering the tablet was drawn aside by Sergeant-Major Setterington, who was with Lieut. Stewart when he was killed and who himself was wounded in the same action, and has just recovered. The Sergeant-Major placed a cross over the grave of his commander.

Major Wilson, in an impressive discourse, calling the people to prayer and supplication that peace might soon come and victory in the cause of right, said that three great horrors had faced the world—famine, pestilence and war. Commerce had triumphed over famine and science over pestilence, but neither commerce nor science could prevent war. Religion only could overcome war, because it touched the heart of man.

SOLDIERS AT CHURCH.

A Special Service At St. George's Cathedral.

A service of intercession was held in St. George's Cathedral on Sunday at ten o'clock in accordance with the proclamation of the Government. In District Orders issued on Friday all Protestant soldiers were required to parade there with their respective units. There was a special service for soldiers. The following units were in the parade: General Maunsell and H.Q. Staff, 1st Depot Battalion, E.O.R., from Barsefield camp under command of Major Green, 3rd Depot Battalion, C.G.R., from Fort Henry, under command of Major Sauve, C.A.S.C., under command of Lieut. Askwith, Instructional Cadre, under command of Q.M. Sergt-Major Dryden, N.C.O.'s and men from the H.Q. Staff at the Armouries, Great War Veterans, under command of Lieut. Dye, G.W.V.A. band and Salvation Army band, Capt. Edwards was brigade major.

The service was appropriate. Dean Starr preached an excellent sermon which appealed particularly to soldiers. He took for his text verses 16-18, I Chronicles XI. King David longed for a drink of water from the well at the gate of Bethlehem, which was enclosed by the Philistine garrison. Three of his men broke through, obtained water from the well and brought it to the king, but he would not drink of it but poured it out to the Lord, saying, "God forbid that I should do this thing. Shall I drink the blood of these men that have put their lives in jeopardy?"

AT PRINCESS STREET CHURCH.

Rev. J. A. Waddell Commenced His Pastorate on Sunday.

Rev. J. A. Waddell commenced his pastorate at Princess street Methodist church on Sunday. The annual Flower Day was observed at the morning service, when a bright and helpful service was held. Addresses were given by Rev. Mr. Waddell, Rev. Mr. Pierce and Rev. Mr. Shook. In addition to the addresses, there was a programme of music and recitations. Rev. Mr. Waddell preached in the evening. The attendance was good at both the services, and the new pastor made a most favorable impression on the members of the congregation, to the majority of whom he is no stranger. He is an excellent speaker, a hard worker in the various church organizations, especially in the Sunday school, and with the hearty support of all the members, which he is sure to receive, his pastorate should make great progress under his leadership. A wide circle of friends all over the city are glad to welcome Rev. Mr. Waddell and Mrs. Waddell. The latter is a Kingstonian and well-known throughout the city.

SLACKER IN FRANCE POSED AS WOMAN

By Contrast, Two French Girls Try to Enter the Army.

Paris, July 2.—Henri Baillierot has a strong penchant for yellow; in fact, he was yellow, as the Americans use the word. So he tired of horizon blue, and coming to Paris on leave, hid his uniform in a closet and attired himself in a yellow kimono. It was thus he was found, living under the name of Mlle Rose Bary. The police say he made a pretty girl.

By contrast, there is the case of two girls from Grenoble who attired themselves as polins and tried to get to the Italian front. They almost got away with it, which proves again, Parisian journals remark, that woman is man's superior.

War Tidings.

An Exchange Telegraph despatch from Moscow says German troops have occupied Tiflis, the largest city in the Caucasus district.

In the second of two attempted midnight airplane raids on the French capital the Germans succeeded in dropping several bombs in the suburbs.

A Havas despatch from Basel says in an Allied raid on Mannheim on Saturday the force killed five and injured fourteen persons and caused severe property damage.

In operations on the Marne front, south of the river Oureq, on Sunday night the French succeeded in improving their positions near Passy-en-Valois. German counter-attacks near Mosley, were repulsed. The French also captured a German strong point southwest of Soissons.

An official statement records German artillery activity between Albert and Arras and in the Flanders sectors.

Italian forces, supported by Allied troops, captured Monte di Val Bellia Saturday with 800 prisoners and subsequently repulsed all counter-attacks.

British repulsed local attack Sunday near Merris. German artillery showed great activity on the Flanders front.

RE-ADJUSTING BANK CREDITS.

Loans to be Made to Farmers—Essential to Production.

Montreal, July 2.—"It is clear that if the war requirements of the Government are to be financed without undue expansion of banking credits," says a circular issued from the president's office of the Canadian Bankers' Association, "not only must there be some reduction of existing credits, but there will have to be applied a rigid check upon the further expansion of credit in direction not clearly essential for the prosecution of the war and for the health and the necessary comfort of the people."

The specific ways of conserving credit are left to the judgment of the bank managers. In general terms, however, Mr. Pease urges that loans for productive purposes, particularly loans to increase production on the farm, must have the right of way. A line must be drawn between essential and non-essential industries, and all manufacturers must be urged to carry as small inventories as possible. The payment of large dividends is deprecated.

WAS WELL RECEIVED.

A New Pastor Begins Ministry on Flower Day.

Rev. D. A. Lough, the new pastor at Brock street Methodist church, commenced his ministry in the city on Sunday morning under particularly auspicious circumstances. It was Flower Sunday, and a large adult congregation was most encouraging.

A number of pleasing choruses by a specially chosen choir of girls as well as recitations by Miss Doris Hurd, Miss Mildred Leonard and Master George Nash were most enjoyable.

In a short address Rev. Mr. Lough expressed his joy at the assumption of his new field of service and trust that with the co-operation of the adherents of the church something of worth might be accomplished for the extension of the Kingdom of Christ.
