FARMERS ARE INTERESTED

IN THE FRONTENAC FARMERS' CO-OPERATIVE ASSOCIATION.

Getting Credit From Banks to Carry on Business—A. E. Weller is Acting as Business Manager.

A meeting of the Frontenac Farmers' Co-operative Association was held on Tuesday evening at Cataraqui. Forty-four members were in attendance. J. L. F. Sproule, president, occupied the chair. He read the constitution of the association, which was chartered to buy farmers' equipment and supplies and to sell farm produce such as grain, hay, roots, stock, etc. He announced that arrangements had been made with the banks for credit to carry on business which were satisfactory. The basis of this was capital, but not subscribed capital, in the form of notes signed by each member of the club and deposited as collateral. The explanation of the use of the notes was quite satisfactory, and all the members present signed them.

The meeting became a purely business one. The members clearly saw that by casting in their lot with each other they could obtain what they required through the club to great advantage, and the secretary, Mr. Kiell, was kept busy entering orders which totalled over a carload.

A. W. Sirrett, local agricultural representative, gave valuable advice along scientific lines. A. E. Weller consented to act as business manager. The club has gotten down to brass tacks as a business organization, and Mr. Sproule proves a very capable chairman. Fifty members farmers drive eighteen miles to be present Tuesday night.

STEPHENS-AULD NUPTIALS

At the Bride's Home "Rose Cottage," Front Road.

On Saturday evening a pretty June wedding was performed by the Rev. D. A. Lough, pastor of Brook street church, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Auld, Rose Cottage, Front road, when their eldest daughter Violet Evelyn became the bride of Charles Hurwell Stephens, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Sillas Stephens, Aurora. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked very sweet in grey crepe de chene with grey georgette hat with coral tulle and rosebuds and carried a shower of sweetheart roses. Miss Grace Auld, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and wore a white embroidered organdie with pink georgette hat and carried pink sweet peas. Gunter Elliott Irwin, of the Trench Motor Brigade, recently returned from France, was groomsmen. The ceremony was performed in the drawing room under the shade of daisies, and the wedding march was played by Miss Pearl Nesbitt. During the signing of the register, Miss Grace Auld sang very sweetly "The Garden of My Heart." About twenty-five guests were present. In the dining room the table was decorated with white streamers caught with orange blossoms. The groom's gift to the bride was a cheque, the bridesmaid a pearl bar pin, and to the groomsmen, gold links. Mr. and Mrs. Stephens will reside in Toronto. The groom is well known in the city, being in Science 18, Queen's University.

Huff-Robinson Wedding.

A pretty wedding took place in St. Luke's church, Camden East, on June 26th, when Miss Agnes Louise, eldest daughter of John and Mrs. Robinson, was united in marriage to Harold Walter, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Huff, Camden East, by the Rev. Mr. Spencer. At 10.30 a.m. to the strains of the Wedding March, played by the church, the bride entered the church on the arm of her father, escorted by the full choir. The young bride looked very sweet gowned in white nylon with well and orange blossoms, and wearing the groom's gift, a beautiful sunburst of pearls. She carried a bouquet of roses and maiden hair fern. They were unattended. The church was tastefully decorated by the members of the choir, of which the contracting parties were members. The ceremony over the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous dinner was served. At 3 p.m. amidst showers of good wishes from a host of friends, who had gathered to wish them "God speed upon their journey through life," the young couple left for a trip to Ottawa and other points. On their return they will reside in Camden East, where the groom is a prosperous young farmer. The many beautiful and useful gifts received showed the esteem of which the bride and groom were held. Out of town guests were: W. H. Robinson and the Misses Robinson's, Perth Road; Mrs. Henry Letch, Kingston; Mrs. Harry Letch, Ottawa; Mrs. J. W. Connor, Master George and Miss Helena, Kingston.
