GIFTS OF CHURCHES

To Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Buckler on Mountain Grove.

Mountain Grove, July 9.—Presentations and addresses were tendered Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Buckler by their two congregations on their departure for Saugeais Island to Mountain Grove. The head church people on Tuesday evening, June 25th, filled the parsonage, and after reading an address expressive of their faithfulness with which their pastor and wife had served their church and community for four years, presented them with a handsome silver pierced casserole and a teapot with silver trimmings. Light refreshments were served, and with the clerk of the township, Thomas Graham, in the chair, a delightful social and uplifting evening followed.

On the following Sabbath evening, notwithstanding a downpour of rain, the Centre church of Senjoy was well filled and at the close of a farewell sermon Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Buckler were presented with another address and a jardinerie pot and a fern dish set in pierced silver. Mr. and Mrs. Buckler expressed their deep gratitude not only for the gifts, but especially for the love that prompted them, stating it was their highest delight and aim to lift up Christ to a perishing world.

Wedded at Westport.

Westport, July 8.—The wedding was solemnized in St. Edward's Church, Westport, of Marie, eldest daughter of Mrs. M. A. Whelan, and P. A. Lynch, lieutenant in the C.E.F., Father O'Rourke officiating. THE SEVENTH DAY AT SEA AND STILL GOING.

By BUD FISHER.

"I'M DOPING OUT A SCHEME TO CONQUER THE SUBMARINE EVIL. I'LL MAKE THE SUB-ZONE AS SAFE AS FORTY-SECOND STREET AND BROADWAY."

"WHY WERENT YOU IN THE LIFE-BOAT DRILL? IF WE GET HIT BY A TORPEDO YOU'LL WISH YOU'D BEEN ON THE JOB!"

"I JUST FIGURED OUT A WAY TO WIPE OUT THE SUBMARINE MENACE—THE DAYS OF THE TORPEDO ARE PAST AND I'LL WIN THE WAR FOR THE ALLIES."

"GREAT! WHAT'S THE IDEA?"

"YOU KNOW TRAINED SEALS ARE THE EASIEST ANIMALS IN THE WORLD TO TEACH ANYTHING TO. YOU CAN TEACH THEM TO HATE ANYTHING!"

"WHAT'S THAT GOT TO DO WITH IT?"

"WHY, I'LL TEACH A FLOCK OF TRAINED SEALS TO HATE SUBMARINES, AND WHEN A DESTROYER ENTERS THE SUB-ZONE THEY CAN CRACK ONE OF MY SEALS OVERBOARD AND—"

"AND WHEN IT FINDS A SUBMARINE—IT'LL COME UP HATING, THEN THE DESTROYER WILL KNOW WHERE THE 'SUB' IS AND—"
