

Cocoon Oil Makes A Splendid Shampoo

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with. Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else that contains too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain maulimond cocoon oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless) is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair. Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly and it leaves it fine and silky, bright fluffy and easy to manage. You can get maulimond cocoon oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

Prescription Service

At Best's stores is second to none. That it is appreciated is amply proven by the number of doctors who send their prescriptions here and by the hundreds of satisfied customers. Both at the main store and at the Branch a qualified druggist is always on the job, waiting to compound medicine which may mean life or death. This service means long, weary hours and careful, trying watchfulness, and it is really up to you to take advantage of it and take all your doctor's orders to "Best's."

The "Best" Drug Stores

Open Sundays, 124 Princess St. Branch: 414 Princess St. The Ottawa government will adopt a policy to prevent strikes during the war. Drastic measures are proposed.

AT SCENE OF CATASTROPHE

MR. AND MRS. D. B. GAGE VISITED IN SYRACUSE, N.Y.

Their Son, Bertram, Assisted in Aiding the Injured in the Terrible Powder Explosion Near There. Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Gage, 179 Pine street, have just returned from Syracuse, N.Y., after a visit with their son and family, Bertram R. Gage. The latter is doing well in Uncle Sam's army and likes the country very well indeed. He is employed in one of the large machine shops there. Mr. and Mrs. Gage arrived in Syracuse the night following the big explosion at Split Rock, which is about five miles out of the city. Their son, with a number of other young men, at once offered their services as first aid men and saw many sad sights. Some bodies were found lodged in high trees, others were thrown over high buildings. Mr. and Mrs. Gage visited some of the fine churches on Sunday. One Methodist church, which is called La Fayette Methodist church, who lost a number of their members in the explosion, felt the loss keenly. Syracuse like all of the other Allied cities is doing splendid Red Cross work. Two large troops of other city while Mr. and Mrs. Gage were there. Mr. Gage is the father-in-law of Lieut. H. E. Law, who was the first Canadian to land in France in 1914.

A REIGN OF TERROR PROCEEDS IN MOSCOW

Rich People Dress in Poor Clothes To Avoid Attracting Attention. Amsterdam, July 12.—Telegraphing from Moscow, the correspondent of the Frankfurter Zeitung says: "The bourgeoisie are experiencing a veritable reign of terror. They are being turned out of their houses, which are being used for the billeting of troops. Furniture and valuables are being removed to cellars and to other hiding places. "Rich people, in order to avoid attracting attention, go about dressed in the poorest clothes and live in daily fear of being evicted from their homes by armed workmen and soldiers. "The cost of living is extremely high. The cost of food is the highest. Flour rose in a few days from 200 to 350 roubles. No bread is obtainable. Grain supplies from the Ukraine, northern Caucasus and Siberia to northern and central Russia have completely ceased. No one could assert their relations between the German authorities and the Soviet Government are normal or friendly.

THE FRENCH CAPTURE ANOTHER VILLAGE

Also Continue Progress North of Chavigny Farm—Javage Farm Occupied. (Canadian Press Despatch) Paris, July 12.—The village of Long Pont on the Savieres river east of Villers-Botterets, has been captured by the French. The French also continued their progress north of Chavigny farm and east of Faverolles. Javage farm, north-east of Faverolles, also was occupied. In raids north of Montdidier and in Champagne the French captured fifteen prisoners. The official text reads: "Our troops continued their progress north of Chavigny farm and east of Faverolles. Last night our troops occupied the village of Long Pont and Javage farm. Two raids, one north of Montdidier and the other in the Champagne, resulted in the capture of fifteen prisoners. German artillery was rather active on the left bank of the Meuse (Verdun region)."

NOT BLAMED FOR MURDER.

Frees Bolsheviks From Responsibility in Von Mirbach's Death. London, July 12.—The German Government does not intend to hold the Soviet Government responsible for the death of Count von Mirbach, the German Ambassador, according to a semi-official announcement from Berlin transmitted to the Exchange Telegraph Company by way of Amsterdam. It being evident that Russia is going—all that is possible to punish the murderers. The semi-official statement adds: "The German Government and nation hope that the Russian Government and people will succeed in nipping the present revolutionary agitation in the bud." This announcement brings into contrast the attitude of Germany towards von Mirbach's assassination and her strong arm in dealing with the Chinese when China was in the hands of the Boxers and the German Minister, Baron von Ketteler, was assassinated.

GIFT OF HOME FOR NURSES.

Gratitude for Restoration to Health of Child. London, July 12.—I desire on behalf of my wife and myself to present this building for a nurses' residence as an expression of our gratitude to God for the complete restoration to health of our only child, Marlon Aubrey Beck, who was threatened with a serious illness. In these words Sir Adam Beck presented to the London Health Association a $30,000 nurses' residence, which was dedicated by Sir James Lougheed and Sir William Hearst. The edifice, which is to house the staff of the Queen Alexandra Sanitarium for Tuberculosis at Byron, will, as a result of a proposal advanced by Col. Gordon Ingram, be named the Marlon Beck Home for Nurses.

Likely a German Falsehood. Washington, July 12.—Germany has revoked an important army order issued several days ago for the despatch of twelve divisions to the Italian front from France, according to cables to the Italian embassy here today. The report is from Swiss sources, and the Italian command suggests that it may be false—a move to distract attention from the Italian operations.
