TOMMIES WILL CHEW GUM

Order Placed Provides for British Soldiers in France. New York, July 15 .- Vice-President Bresnahan of the American

Chiele Company says:
"American Chiele Company recently received from the British government, for the use of the British army in France, what is believed to be the largest single order for chewing gum ever taken. It called for 57,000,000 sticks of the various brands of gum.

"The sale amounted to more than ber of orders, executed by the American Chicle Company for the British government since the war began. The order was filled from our American

JOFFRE SEES VICTORY.

Defeat of Germany Will Bring Joy to All Free Nations.

Paris, July 15.—Joseph Joffre, Marshal of France, has sent the following message to the American Expeditionary Force in France on the occasion of Bastile Day: "France celebrates on July 14th her national independence, as Americans observed theirs on July 4th. On these two solemn days American and French hearts beat in unison, all feel that the moment approaches when, thanks to their common effort, the defeat of Germany will allow all free nations to celebrate at last the independence of the world."

Committed To "Mongoe Doctsine." London, July 15 .- Australia committed to a 'Monroe Doctrine' olicy toward the Southern Pacific. W. M. Hughes, Premier of Australia, declared in an address at a luncheon to the Dominion Government heads at the Pilgrims' Club. "Australia" dare not ussent to the return to Germany of her former island possesstons in the Pacific. It would give Germany control of Australia."

It's Easy To Find Work

But the worker who desires to find the best oportunity to serve and to earn will advertise. Classified advertising does not cost much. It is not "out of reach" to anybody. And it may be relied upon to find for you the work which you can do best, and through which you can earn most. A small investment which has in it such possibilities is not to be overlooked.
