

FROM THE COUNTRYSIDE

Frontenac

GLENVALE.

July 15.—The hum of the mowing machine is again heard and farmers report a fair crop. Miss Hilda Orser was successful in passing her recent examination in music. Miss Hubbard is to be congratulated on having the five pupils she trained for entrance, all successful, namely, Ola Butterfield, Kathleen Campsall, Marjorie Ellerbeck, Michael Maloney and Melville Patterson. G. A. E. Clark is building an addition to his barn, Mr. and Mrs. George Watts, also Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith, Olesca, were recent visitors at J.A.O. Ellerbeck's. Roy Gordon is at home after his recent illness in the General Hospital. J. Cooper is undergoing treatment in the Hotel Dieu, Kingston. A large number attended the Orange celebration at Sydenham on Friday last.

KEELERVILLE.

July 12.—The rains have improved the crops very much the past two weeks. There is an abundant crop of everything except hay, which is not quite up to the average. The cheese factory had to shut down for a day for repairs. Mr. Andrews, cheese maker, is on the sick list. Miss Jennie Clark is spending a few days with Mrs. R. J. Stanley at Sunbury. Miss Mildred Anglin is spending her holidays at Athens and Brockville. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sleeth of Cedar Lake and Mrs. Townsend, of Sydenham at John Robb's; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Sands of Milburn at James McLroy's Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Towrie and Miss Clara Taber of Glen Buell and J. S. Roberts and family and Miss Ruby Buck and Mrs. Buck, all at J. E. Anglin's. J. E. Anglin attended the funeral of his aunt at Iroquois last Wednesday. Miss Lillie Scott of Sunbury is at David Sleeth's. Mr. and Mrs. William Dixon are at Kingston. Quite a number of stray cattle got into pound this week. Haymaking will commence next week.

PERTH ROAD.

July 15.—The strawberry season is over but the buckberries are plentiful. Haymaking will soon be here. The members of the Presbyterian church and his many friends of other denominations learned with regret that Rev. Mr. Caswell is leaving. He has received "a call" from Tamworth. His farewell sermon was given last Sunday morning. All feel the loss of a kind brother and friend. The members of the Perth Road L.O.L. and many others attended the celebration at Sydenham on the 12th. Buffalo, N.Y. is the guest of her mother, Mrs. F. Clough. Miss Gowen-Kingston, is spending a few days at Miss E. Raymond's. The entrance pupils, Hilliard Raymond and Harry Votary, were successful in their recent examinations. The Wilbur Helping Hand will meet at the home of Mrs. R. Smith, next Wednesday. The M.L.M. Circle met at the shore of Indian Lake last Wednesday afternoon, where an enjoyable time was spent.

HARROWSMITH.

July 15.—On the afternoon of July 4th Mrs. F. McCammon was hostess to a few invited friends in honor of her guest of a few days, Mrs. Thomas Moore and little daughter, Isabelle, Kingston. A wartime lunch was served upon the shady lawn. Among those present were: Mrs. B. Parry, Murvale; Mrs. E. E. Day, Mrs. Elgin Babcock, Mrs. F. D. Knapp, Miss L. M. Phillips, Miss E. M. Clow and Miss Graer Thompson. Among those who attended the funeral services of the late Mrs. W. Amey, Wilton, on Saturday afternoon last were Albert Snider and sister, Mrs. McCammon, Mr. and Mrs. John Clow, Miss E. M. Clow and Mrs. Ethel Davis, William Shaugraw, an old and highly respected resident of Portland township, passed away on Sunday afternoon after a long illness. The funeral services will be held at the house on Tuesday afternoon. There were only a few who did not attend the celebration of Sydenham on July 12th. Mrs. F. D. Knapp and party motored to Deseronto on Sunday. W. Cook and family, Smith's Falls, are spending a few days with his mother. Mrs. Alfred Babcock, Belleville, is visiting friends here and at Sydenham. Mr. and Mrs. S. Peters, Kingston, spent the weekend at W. J. Lyons'. Mrs. E.

Knowlton and little son of Kingston, are at Elmer Charlton's.

MOUNTAIN GROVE.

July 12.—Rev. A. Webster left on July 2nd to drive to his new work at Bridgenorth. Mrs. Webster and Miss Ruby went by train on Friday. Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Bukler arrived on Wednesday of last week. Miss Agnes Price is at home after visiting friends at Wooler. Mrs. William Fraser has gone to Kingston for an operation. Mr. and Mrs. A. McDonald accompanied her. Mrs. A. W. Thompson entertained the Women's Institute on Wednesday. A number from here attended the G.W.V.A. celebration in Kingston on Dominion Day. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Clark, a daughter, J. E. Price made a business trip to Kingston this week. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Thompson have gone to Kingston to visit their son, Hugh, at Barriefield camp. Miss Mabel Price will return to Napanee on Monday, accompanied by Misses Gertrude and Kathleen, who will visit their aunt, Mrs. W. J. Magee, at "The Pines." Mrs. W. H. Cowley and children are visiting friends in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Smith have returned to Toronto. Miss Evelyn Coulter is holidaying at Wolfe Island. Huckleberrying is the principal occupation just now, and every one reports a great crop. James McDonald and party motored to Smith's Falls to attend the celebration. The local L.O.L. is not celebrating this year.

Lennox and Addington

MILL HAVEN.

July 11.—The rains of the past week has helped the crops wonderfully in this vicinity. Quite a number of farmers are shipping their baled hay. Robert Rickey is laying the foundation for a new grist mill. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Bell of Napanee spent Sunday at Harvey Amey's. Miss Iva Peters, of Oshawa, is visiting at her sister's, Mrs. H. Hegadori; Mr. and Mrs. John Wright, London; Mrs. John Turner and Miss Annie Hockney, Chatham, spent last week at Fred Wemp's; Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Huffman and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lloyd, Hay Bay, spent Sunday at Oscar Amey's.

BETHEL.

July 15.—Hay harvesting has started, but meadows are not far from being cut. A few from around here attended the celebration in Deseronto on Friday last. Fred Baker and father spent a few days, north, in search of buckberries; reports are that they are very plentiful in some places. Mr. and Mrs. George Hawley and son, Harold, also Miss Cassie Miller, Hay Bay, spent a day at J. M. Jaynes'. Miss Estella Manion is spending her holidays at her home here. A number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Huff gathered at their home and spent a very pleasant evening on Monday last. Mrs. Clarence Allen, Moscow, at her father's, W. McWilliams, Mr. and Mrs. K. Lee, Wilton, spent a day last week with Mr. and Mrs. John Curl. Ogden Hinch is home on furlough for two or three days. Mrs. Fred Baker came home on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Salsbury spent a recent evening at Wesley. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Higgs, Hay Bay, spent over night at Wesley Surl's. Mrs. John O'Mara visited her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Dillon, for a few days recently, at Chippanaw. Miss Jennie O'Mara has been visiting friends at Centreville. Mrs. William Jackson has returned from Toronto, where she spent a couple of weeks with her daughter, Mrs. N. Sutton.

ODESSA.

July 15.—Mrs. Herbert Kendall, late of Montreal, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Clyde. Mrs. Harry Peters, Lindsay, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Mabey. Archibald Babcock and family, Manotick, visited relatives last week. Miss Rosi Joy, Napanee, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Manour last Thursday. Harry Denyes, Petawawa camp, and late of Vancouver, called on friends last week. Fred Sproule, Toronto, is spending his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Sproule, Miss Lena Burley is visiting friends in Kingston. Mrs. A. McCabe, Kingston, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Robert Bennett. Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Simmons, Wilton, spent last Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Thompson. Miss Zita Kenyon, Kingston, is spending her vacation with relatives here. The sale and tea held in the Salvation Army Barracks last Saturday night was a great success. The many booths were handsomely decorated and well filled with useful and well-made articles, which reflected great credit to the enthusiastic workers. The barracks has been painted recently and many other improvements have been completed on the officers' quarters. The funeral of Mrs. Andrew Mavety, who passed away in the Kingston General Hospital last Friday, was held from her late home last Sunday afternoon. The services were conducted by Capt. Foster and the remains placed in Violet cemetery.

CENTREVILLE.

July 10.—Continued wet weather is leaving the farmers very idle at present, but it going to make the hay and grain rush all together. The remains of the late Matthew Gehan, Camden East, were brought to the Roman Catholic church on Monday where a solemn requiem mass was sung by Rev. E. McCarthy, after which his remains were interred in the church cemetery. Miss Bird Kennedy, Brooklyn, N.Y., is visiting her mother, Mrs. P. Evans.
