Racery May Change. The executive of the Canadian Wheelmen's Association has granted permission to certain bicycle racing men to transfer their allegiance to the Royal Canadian Bicycle Club, which proposes to re-enter the cycle racing field. This is an unusual privilege, but it has been extended because of the belief that bicycle racing in general would be benefited by the active participation of the Royal Canadians in the sport once more.

Baseball Briefs

Art. Phelan, who was slated to join the St. Paul team when Chattanooga disbanded, elected to go to work in a munitions plant at Hopewell, Va., playing with the plant ball team on the side. However St. Paul gets Pitcher Howard Merritt from Chattanooga, and needs pitchers more than infielders anyway.

Milwaukee was offered $12,500 for Pitcher Marvin Goodwin last year, but President Timme elected to take players instead of cash and made the deal with the St. Louis Cardinals by which his club got Livingston, Bescher, North and Bohne. North and Bohne enlisted and Bescher refused to play for the salary offered so was traded off. Livingston quit the game. About all Milwaukee has to show for Goodwin, there is Cosy Dolan, who came in the deal for Bescher.

The Louisville Colonels look pretty much like a Southern League team with Compton, Knisley, Bues, Bennett and Barger on their list. Cy Barger was secured from Memphis, the report that he would go to the Chicago Cubs having been a piece of camouflage. Joe Bennett was secured from Mobile. He looked like one of the best young pitching bets in the south, and Pat Flaherty, who made the deal says he will be a star in the big show one of these days.

Curtis Wheat, brother of Mack and Zack of the Brooklyn Dodgers, who is playing with the Springfield Eastern Leaguers, is said to be developing into a ball player of promise, and there is talk that he may get a trial on the Brooklyn team. He is but twenty years old.

The Toledo club is giving a trial to Cecil Coombs, veteran outfielder, who was with the Little Rock team until the Southern League disbanded.

Roy Ellum, shortstop and late manager of the Nashville team, joins the Indianapolis Indians. Manager Lajoie expects to use him at second base as a regular if he makes good.

Bob Steele, released by the Pittsburgh Pirates to Kansas City in the Sanders deal, along with Carmen Hill, refused to accept the transfer, and it is reported he has jumped to the shipyards. After waiving on Steele the Cincinnati club changed its mind and concluded it would like to have him, but Kansas City asked the small sum of $2,500 for his release and negotiations were blocked. Thus a pretty capable pitcher is lost to baseball because of lack of coordination. That Steele is worth while is indubitable, which was a one-hit affair against the Cardinals.

Frank Wilson, the White Sox recruit outfielder from Vancouver, appeared in his first game on July 2nd as a pinch hitter and walked. He bats and throws left-handed and Manager Rowland believes he is going to make good.

Winning Owners on English Turf.

For the first time in many years a member of the fair sex heads the list of winning owners in English flat racing, the half-season showings of Lady Jane Douglas, with a total amount of $45,500, leading the stable. Solly Joel is second with $25,407, while Lord Derby with $25,365 to his credit is close up at third place. Other leading owners in order are: A. W. Cox, $17,000; Sir W. J. Tatem, $12,790; C. T. Garland, $12,650, and J. Watson, $11,370. Gainsborough's big win in the famous Derby Stakes places him at the top of winning horses with $45,500, Perry coming next with $20,500, while My Dear is third with $17,000. With thirty-one victories so far to his credit, the famous champion jockey, Steve Donoghue, tops the list of winning jockeys, B. Carslake is second with eighteen, followed by F. Fox, fifteen; G. Hulme, thirteen, and A. Whalley, with eleven.

World's Bicycle Championships. During the months of August and September next several world's championship bicycle races will be decided at the Philadelphia and Boston tracks. Heretofore these contests were staged in the great French Metropole, Parc des Princes, Paris. Owing to war conditions in Europe, the International Cycling Association has given the National Cycling Association of this country the right to hold the events.

Arranging for Big Team Games. Arrangements were closed in Montreal to have Chicago and Boston teams of the National League play on July 28th. It will be the first major league game ever played in Montreal, and if financially successful, it is intimated that a series of games between nearby major league teams will be staged here during the season.

A LENGTHY OLD BOY.

"Red" Fisher is Target for "Slings and Arrows."

There is so much to "Catcher" "Red" Fisher of the Leafs—six feet four inches of height and over 200 pounds on the hoof—that if there is anything coming his way he has difficulty in moving soon enough and far enough to evade it.

In the first inning of the second game at the Island Stadium, Toronto, he was hit on the "Adam's apple" by a foul ball which bounded up from the plate. The big boy rolled his eyes, and although obviously in great pain endeavored pluckily to shake it off. He was unable to continue, however, and was taken out in favor of Howley.

It is recalled that while catching for Hamilton in the Canadian League against Peterboro at the latter city on May 20th, 1913, he was hit flush on the jaw by a pitched ball and knocked out as cleanly as ever was any boxer. Half a dozen fellow-players loaded him into an ambulance and he was taken to the team's hotel, where he recovered slowly. The pitcher who hit him was a big Swede named Knute Belting of Decatur, Ill. Two doctors were in attendance on Fisher for several hours, and it was feared that he might not recover. They say that he has been plucky ever since, but he was not half as scared as was Belting, who lost his nerve and control for several weeks.

Cubs Prove Very Expensive. President Weegham and his partners have spent a world of money to promote the Cubs in Chicago. They paid $500,000 for the franchise in 1916, also $30,000 for players that failed to "make good." Since last fall the Cubs' owners have spent $50,000 for Alexander and Kilfler, $12,000 for Tyler, $10,000 for Hollocher and $10,000 for Barber. Up to this season the Cubs lost big money in operating expenses, so that when the pennant race began in April it was roughly estimated that the Chicago magnates were at least $700,000 in the hole. The Cubs, however, are drawing profitable gate receipts at home and abroad this year, and if they remain on top the club's indebtedness will be considerably reduced.
