HAD STRANGE EXPERIENCE

DAVID KENNEY, AGED TORONTO MAN, DIED IN THE HOSPITAL.

Had Drawn Money to Enjoy Vacation at the Seashore. But Was Taken Ill and Lost His Bearings—Thought He Was in Montreal on Regaining Consciousness at Local Hospital.

David Kenney, the aged Toronto man, who was taken off a G.T.R. train a few days ago, in a helpless condition, and who had $1,350.27 in his possession, died in the General Hospital on Friday morning at three o'clock.

According to information he gave at the hospital, Kenney had a strange experience.

When he reached the hospital, on examination, he was found to be running a high temperature, and the whole system had been inactive for several days, but with a little toning and clearing up, he regained consciousness and told how it all happened.

He had drawn his money from the Bank of Toronto, intending to spend some time at the seashore, went to Montreal and from there to Quebec, but concluded that the cool breezes were not agreeing with him, hence returned to Montreal, where he consulted a doctor, who recommended him to go to the hospital. At that time he apparently lost his bearings, as he thought he was in the Montreal General Hospital, when he regained consciousness. He was never able to even guess at how much money he had, but told of being in the employ of the Rennie Seed Company for twenty-eight years. He is English born, unmarried, and has given no indication as to where his relatives are.

The Rennie Seed Company was notified some few days ago of his illness, and on Friday of his death. The body has been handed over to S. S. Corbett, undertaker, awaiting orders from Toronto. He was seventy-three years of age.

Military News

Major-Gen. Garnet Hughes has retired from the command of Whitley Camp to accept an important British appointment. He will be succeeded at Whitley by either Gen. Hill or Gen. Rennie. Major-Gen. Garnet Hughes is a son of Major-Gen. Sir Sam Hughes and a graduate of the Royal Military College. When the fifth Canadian division was formed in England he was placed in command of it, but it was broken up some months ago, as the troops were not available to place it in the field as a unit.

Among the Canadian appointments announced in a cable from England are two of local interest. Major H. C. Croer, formerly of the Army Service Corps, Kingston, has been appointed D.A.A. and Q.M.G. at headquarters, Bramshott; Major F. H. Codville, formerly of the 80th Battalion, has been gazetted to the Flying Corps.

Swimming off the Cataragui Bridge is not to be continued. In district orders issued to-day instructions are given to all troops that no part of the bridge is to be used as a point from which to enter the water.

Monday, July 29th, being civic holiday, will be observed as a half holiday by the troops in garrison.

Sergt-Major (W.O.) T. W. Egglestone has been posted to the R. C. H. A.

Lieut. Earl P. Ham, of the gymnastic staff, is transferred to the second battalion, E.O.R.

Lieut.-Col. William Beattie, C. M. G., chaplain services, is detailed to perform the duties of director of chaplain services, with the honor rank of colonel while so employed.

Lieut. George E. Robertson has been attached for duty to the 2nd Battalion E.O.R.

Lieut.-Col. Edward Rupert McNeill has been struck off the strength of the C.E.F. in Canada, being surplus in rank to establishment.

Special instructions are issued respecting the compilation of War Diaries.

To-night there will be a big time in the "Y" marquee at Barrfield. A concert will be put on by the Salvation Army, followed by a moving picture play.

The C.A.D.C. is playing the C.A. S.C. at the Cricket Field to-night at six o'clock. This is a regular "Y" Military League game.

The Late Mrs. Caleb Snyder. At the family residence, about four miles north of Verona, Ont., on June 28th, Mrs. Miriam Snyder, relict of the late Caleb Snyder, passed to the Better Land, after an illness of several weeks. The deceased was born in Kingston township seventy-eight years ago. In 1865 she was married to Caleb Snyder, who predeceased her twenty years. She was one of the oldest residents, having lived thereabouts during the last fifty years. Mrs. Snyder was of an unassuming disposition, and for many years lived a noble Christian life that shone brightest in the home. Her children who survive are—Lyford Snyder, Mrs. Joseph Gene, Stanley Snyder, Mrs. Wilmet Hadden and Byard Snyder; also two step-children, Davis C. Snyder and Pimaron Snyder. The funeral services were conducted in the Verona Free Methodist church by Rev. A. F. Ball, assisted by Rev. R. Burnham.

At the Theatres

At The Grand.

A strikingly unusual film was "The Spurs of Sybil," the new World Picture Brady-Made which was shown at the Grand last evening. Alice Brady was the charming star in the production and the role portrayed by her was that of Sybil Drew, a poor relation who has been brought up in affluence by her wealthy aunt. The aunt comes to the opinion that Sybil would be happier and better off if she would earn her own living for a year. So she arouses the spirit of the girl and in the end she starts forth. Adventures begin immediately after leaving her aunt's home and they continue at a rapid rate from then on and the conclusion of the photoplay is entirely different from anything that you would expect. Other reels shown were the usual Pathe News, O. Henry story and Lonesome Luke comedy. The vaudeville was Hogue and Hardy in their novelty act that made a decided hit. This programme will be shown again to-night and also Saturday, both matinee and night. Coming, "Lest We Forget," the first three days of August.

At Griffin's.

Appearing in a role no less fascinating than any of her previous portrayals, Mary Pickford was seen in her latest Artercraft photoplay, "How Could You, Jean," at Griffin's Theatre last evening. "How Could You, Jean?" shows little Mary, the incomparable, in an entirely new role, that of an almost grown-up society girl, who turns cook when fate deals her a blank in the form of a depleted bank account. It is heralded as one of the brightest and cleverest photoplays in which "America's Sweetheart" has ever appeared and will be shown at the above theatre this evening and also to-morrow afternoon and evening. In addition to the above superb photoplay we are also showing clever Jack Gardiner in "The Range Boss" and ever-interesting serial, "The Eagle's Eye."
