CANADIAN BOXERS GET HIGH PRAISE

Old Country Critics Impressed With Form in Recent Bouts.

The Canadian soldiers in England have brought some very good fighting men with the gloves, and the names of Harold Robb, Joe Atwood, and Jimmy Clark have already been placed high in the list of history written since the war began. Clark was the first to draw the attention of the British public to his prowess by knocking out Fred Tomasego, of Paddington, in nine rounds, and later on he had some stirring bouts with Curley Walker.

Meanwhile, another Canadian boxer has caught the critical eye of late. This is Private A. Allen, who knocked out the very able lad, Private Joe Boker, in five rounds, at the Ring. Boker is a good boxer, clever, and the owner of a useful right, but he could not live against Allen, who has all the cyclonic hustle for which our Colonial cousins are famous. Allen was born at Paris, and as a real Cornishman is qualified for a spot at a British championship, if his form is good enough. He weighs 16st. 7 lb. Allen has been in Canada a dozen years and has seen a lot of active service in France during the last three years. His boxing experience covers bouts in Canada and the States where he has met most men like Freddy Welsh, Mike Gibbons, Owen Moran in the capacity of sparring partner. When Private Allen met Corporal Parry, London, Rifle Brigade, at the Ring, to box fifteen rounds, Allen beat his opponent in the first round. This notwithstanding that Allen was suffering from an abscess on the jaw.

Babe's Come-Back. The Pittsburgh fans, when they see old "Babe" Adams back on the mound, will have some pleasant reminiscences recalled to their memory. It is stated that "Babe" will return, and our best wishes for a successful come-back are his. He has been with the Kansas City Association Club, and became a free agent when the league finished under pressure. Back in 1900 Adams was in his prime. It was that year that the Pittsburgh club finished on top of the National League heap, and were due to meet the Detroit Tigers for the world's championship, which resulted in the honor being bestowed upon the Pirates. Babe pitched one of the best games of his career against "Wild Bill" Donovan, who, incidentally, is also with the Tigers now. "Wild Bill" passed three men, and then got rid of the next three by the strike out route. "Babe" lost his game in the fifteenth inning 1-0, when a young fellow but a few years in the majors by the name of Ty Cobb stole home with twenty-five thousand fans howling at "Babe" to get the ball up to the plate.

Anson Earned His Money. A veteran baseball enthusiast points out that records of consecutive games played by modern exponents of the national pastime do not compare with the achievements of old time players. Adrian C. Anson played in 691 games and again in 568 games in succession, Sam Crawford in 472, Roger Connor in 437, Dave Cross in 429, Frank Isbell in 412, and George Burns in 459.

CHICAGO'S PROPOSAL.

Great Lakes Trophy Returning to Toronto.

The Great Lakes championship trophy may be brought back to Toronto. The Royal Canadian Yacht Club has received a letter from the Chicago Yacht Club offering to hand this trophy back to the former holders, and the R.C.Y.C. is considering the offer. Thereby hangs a tale which recalls memories of those good old races off the island shore before the war. In 1912 the Patricia, of the R.C.Y.C. won the trophy at Chicago, and in 1914 the losers challenged. The races set for August of that year, but while the Chicago yacht, the Valiant, was still in the Welland Canal war was declared, and the R.C.Y.C. boys immediately donned khaki, so that the races had to be called off. The R.C.Y.C. surrendered the trophy and the Chicago yachtsmen accepted it, much to the surprise of many, considering the circumstances, but now that the United States is at war the Chicago men undoubtedly realize the difficulties that beset the local club at that time, and are offering to return the trophy. It is hoped that the races will be staged again when the war is over.

BASEBALL ON SATURDAY.

The League Game Taken by the Athletics.

The baseball game at the Cricket Field was attended by a large crowd on Saturday afternoon and the fans witnessed a great game. Purcell was in his best form and held the noses of the Red Sox right down to the ground, cooping up thirteen strikeouts. The game was nip and tuck right through to the last when the Athletics stood up on their hind legs and walloped some of Kenney's for a series of base runs. The teams: Athletics—Spoor, c.; Schultz, 1b.; Thompson, 2b.; Johnson, c.; Coyne, r.f.; Cummings, 3b.; Spencer, l.f.; Millan, c.f.; Purcell, p.; Olson, substitute.

Red Sox—Adams, c.f.; Graham, r.f.; Baker, 2b.; Stagg, 1b.; Hagerman, c.; Smith, 3b.; McKevey, l.f.; Saunders, 3b.; Kenney, p.

THIS YOUNG LADY

Said to be Second May Sutton at Tennis.

Eastern tennis authorities and followers of the court game in general are extremely interested in reports from the Pacific coast regarding the staying ability of Mira Brarens, a youthful product of the San Francisco public park courts. According to one reference to Miss Brarens, who in reality is still in her teens, she has all the marks of a second May Sutton. This is high praise, for if the latest California tennis phenomenon can, in time, reach the tennis playing pinnacle achieved by Miss Sutton, now Mrs. Handy, America will be well fortified in this department of the game for the international play, which is certain to develop after the termination of the present war.

Manager George Witte, of the Buffalo team, got into an argument with Umpire O'Brien at Binghamton, N.Y., which terminated in a fight, and the whole Buffalo team jumped on the umpire. O'Brien defended himself as best he could, but the odds were too great and he got laid beating. Witte hit the umpire so hard that he broke his thumb and could not play again.

INSIDE BASEBALL.

Likely George Stallings Claims Credit For New Scheme.

Credit for one of the latest improvements of inside baseball is given to George Stallings, manager of the Boston Braves.

Stallings noticed that when he sent a player to bat with instructions to sacrifice when the situation was obvious—that a sacrifice was to be delivered, the opposition, unless it was careless, sought to checkmate the plan.

The opposing infield would draw. The opposing pitcher would pitch and inside. If the batsman tried to bunt, a pop fly would often result.

"Why play right into the hands of the other fellows?" said Stallings. "Let's try some way to get the better of them." As a result Stallings evolved a new plan of action.

If the opposing pitcher throws in a high one that obviously is a ball, the batsman is to let it go by. If the pitch is a strike the batter is to swing, thus standing a chance of driving the ball through the drawn-in infield. Should he miss, the opposition is puzzled. It may think the hit and run is to be attempted, and consequently relax vigilance for a bunt, which gives the batter a good chance to lay the ball down and beat it out.

Junior Rugby for Montreal. In Montreal an effort will be made to revive junior Rugby football this autumn under the auspices of the Province of Quebec Rugby Football Association.

In view of the fact that only junior sports will be catered to, the majority of the high school teams will have to be depended on to furnish the men to fill out the teams. President George McSweeney, in speaking of the revival of the sport, stated that he would call a meeting some time next month, when the matter will be discussed. Under the rules of the association, men fit for military service and those of the draft age would hardly be eligible to compete in the series. It is the idea of those behind the revival of the sport to play the game for patriotic purposes.

Here's One For Little Book.

A record, unique in the history of the American association, was established on Sunday, when Catcher Kelly, in the second game of a double-header, played with both Toledo and Louisville.

Kelly started behind the bat with Toledo. When the Louisville catcher, Myers, broke his collarbone, Louisville had no backstop to put in, Koehler having departed in response to a draft call. As a result, Toledo was forced to loan a catcher. Manager Bresnahan went behind the bat for Toledo and loaned Kelly to Louisville.

While Louisville with Toledo, Kelly was once at bat and had one put-out and one assist. While playing with Louisville he cracked out one hit in two times up and had two put-outs.

To Rejoin Pirates.

Charles "Babe" Adams, hero of the 1909 world's series, has signed a contract to pitch again for the Pittsburgh Pirates, and will report to the team as soon as possible, it was officially announced here today by officers of the club. He has been with the Kansas City Club of the American Association and became a free agent for the present when that league closed its season.
