

CAPT. KEN WILLIAMS DEAD
PASSED AWAY ON SUNDAY NIGHT IN OTTAWA.

Deceased Was a Well-known Kingston Rugby Player and G.S.C. Officer, Who Served Overseas.

The unexpected passing of Capt. Kenneth Fenwick A. Williams in Ottawa on Sunday night removes from the Canadian sporting fraternity an outstanding figure, known from coast to coast. His sudden demise will be regretted by hundreds of enthusiasts who remembered his exploits in the field of athletics and who were proud to have known such a man as he.

The late Capt. Williams was born in Kingston thirty-one years ago, the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Williams, University avenue. He was a member of a family, the male members of which were athletes from their youngest days, and throughout his school days in Kingston he was a happy combination of a successful

LATE CAPT. KENNETH WILLIAMS, scholar and an enthusiastic sport. In Queen's University he played full-back on the college football team, and he typified the splendid manhood for which that university is far famed. As a rugby player he was counted as one of the foremost of Canada's exponents and the name of "Ken" Williams was a byword in the sporting world. Notwithstanding his success on the athletic field, he was not one-sided and graduated in the faculties of arts in 1909 and applied science in 1910.

After his graduation he was associated with the Canadian Northern Railway electric department in Montreal and Calgary. Soon after the war broke out he was taken on the strength of the Canadian Army Service Corps, and served for over a year in France as officer commanding the 3rd Field Bakery. Last February he returned to Canada and was stationed in Ottawa, where he was conservation officer at headquarters. A fortnight ago he underwent a slight operation from which he had almost recovered when he suffered a relapse and passed away on Sunday night.

The late Capt. Williams is survived by his wife and one little boy, Ronald Kenneth. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Williams, University avenue, four brothers, Lieut. Jack Williams and Sergt. Leo Williams, now in England; Howard Williams, B.Sc., with the Hydro-Electric Commission, Niagara Falls, and Knox Williams, residing on University avenue, and three sisters, Mrs. Ernest Sparks, Mrs. J. Welch and Miss Marjorie Williams, all residing in Kingston, also remain to mourn his loss.

At the Theatres

At the Grand.
For to-night, Tuesday and Wednesday the Grand will return to its old bill of vaudeville and pictures and the feature for these three days will be the Vitagraph five reel production, "Love Watches," and having for the star, young and beautiful Corinne Griffith. In this French farce she has the role made famous by Billie Burke in London and later in New York, and may be said to give one of the best characterizations of her screen career. She is admirably supported by an all-star cast including Denton Vane, Edward Burns, Florence Deshon, Julia Swayne Gordon and Alice Terry. The story has to deal with a girl who marries a count of many affairs after jilting her sweetheart and following a scene on account of a young widow who loves her husband she flees to her former friend. In the end things turn out to the satisfaction of everyone and the girl and her husband count are the most satisfied of all. There will also be the Pathe News, a good comedy and other reels. The vaudeville will consist of a first class act that comes highly recommended.

At Griffin's.
A bill of rare excellence has been secured by the management of this theatre to be presented to-day, Tuesday and Wednesday, and is headlined by "A Modern Lorelei," the marine feature which has created such a sensation by its hearty and general interest. "A Modern Lorelei" is presented with a splendid cast headed by Tyrone Power, who is known wherever stage and screen plays have been shown. The sweetness of the story is peculiarly appealing, and the beauty of its many scenes are entrancing. There is not a single scene in "Lorelei" which does not impress by its beauty of location, and the many interesting and educational bits worked into the film in a perfectly natural manner make the picture a rare treat.
