NOT TO BE SOLD IN BULK.
Order is Expected to Compel Sale of Candy Only in Packages. A local confectioner forecasted on Saturday morning that new regulations would shortly be issued by the Canada Food Board compelling the sale of candy only in packages. It is believed that in this way considerable sugar can be saved for private consumption, as the sale of candy in bulk is said to be wasteful in that respect. No definite word has been received from the Canada Food Board regarding the expected order.

Special Attraction.
Sunday night, 7 o'clock, specially attractive evangelistic meeting in Gospel Hall, near Y.M.C.A. Mr. Richard Irving (evangelist) and H. G. Lockett, M.A., of Ingersoll, are the speakers. Everybody invited.

In Magistrate Hunter's court, Walter McConnell and Gordon McDonald, charged with a breach of the O.T.A., gave their recognition to appear for the hearing of the case on Tuesday next at ten o'clock. The case arose out of a conviction recently made in Magistrate Farrell's court.

INCIDENTS OF THE DAY

LOCAL NOTES AND ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.
Happenings in the City and Vicinity
What the Merchants Offer to the Readers of the Whig.
As Monday is Labor Day, the Whig will not be published.
There was no session of the Police Court on Saturday morning.
The military police rounded up a German in the court on Friday. He was placed in Fort Henry.
A report going the rounds on Saturday is to the effect that Major J. S. Sharp was located at Niagara Falls.
Now is the time to have your piano tuned. We carry two expert tuners and will assure entire satisfaction. C. W. Lindsay, Limited.
Rev. J. A. Waddell left Saturday for Toronto. On Tuesday and Wednesday he will attend a district convention on Sunday school work at Kingston's representative.
Oscar F. Cooke, who was seriously injured by an exploding automobile tire several weeks ago, has improved considerably. His arm is still bandaged, but is able to be out daily.
The death of Mrs. Susanna Plunkett, Marmora, occurred at the General Hospital on Saturday. Mrs. Plunkett was the daughter of Thomas Bonter. Her husband died some years ago.
There will be eight floats, and probably more, in the big Labor Day parade. The electrical workers, painters, machinists, moulders, boot-makers and barbers are arranging for floats.
Ice cream, 99-98% pure, costs a little more, but typoid costs much more. We serve Neilson's at our fountain and deliver Neilson's bricks to any address in the city. Austin's Drug Store, market square.
On Wednesday last, Rev. J. A. Waddell united in marriage Miss A. Thompson, of Mountain Grove, and Ralph Steeth, of Battersea, at the Princess Street Methodist church parsonage. They left on a trip to Toronto.
We will rent you a piano, and at end of six months if you feel like purchasing instrument we will allow the six months' rental on purchase price, and arrange easy terms on balance. C. W. Lindsay, Limited.
Local bookshellers have been busy during the past few days stocking up with school books in preparation for the opening of the schools next week. Large crates bearing consignments of the books were received in the city on Friday.
The village of Portsmouth bears the name of a famous naval port, and the residents should warmly support the appeal to be made for the Sailors' Relief Fund next week. J. D. Bankier is anxious to secure the names of residents who will assist in the canvass.

Bicycle Races.
Three of Toronto's fastest riders will take part in the races at the fair grounds on Monday, also championship baseball match. Admission, 25c.
