Waldron's

At the Theatres

At The Grand.
Tears and laughter will hold sway at the Grand-Opera House to-night, where "Turn to the Right," the widely-praised comedy drama success of last year in New York and Chicago, is to be presented with the original cast and production. Local audiences will see this quaint mixture of fun and mother-love exactly as it ran for a solid year at the Gaiety Theatre, New York, and George M. Cohan's Grand Opera House, Chicago, the producers having steadfastly declined to organize any duplicate or "No. 2" companies.

"Turn to the Right" was written by Winchell Smith and John E. Hazard, and it is presented by Mr. Smith in association with John L. Golden, a famous writer of songs and lyrics. Its charm of simplicity and wholesomeness place it at the top of the list of Winchell Smith successes, which includes "The Bomerang," "The Fortunate Hunter," "Polly of the Circus," "Brewster's Millions" and other notable offerings.

The original cast is headed by Ruth Chester as the snow-haired Mother Bascom, through whose Christian faith and undying mother-love three erring youths are restored to lives of honesty and usefulness.

Other members of the original cast are Samuel Reed, Edgar Nelson, Dewitt Newing, Harry Humphrey and Al Sincoff.

Mrs. Castle at Grand.
For Friday matinee and night only the Grand will offer one of the most interesting and absorbing photoplays of the season. Mrs. Vernon Castle, the celebrated dancer and actress, will be presented in her latest Pathe release, "The Hilliest Mystery." In this picture the plot is of the most entertaining type imaginable as the little would suggest and interwoven through the mysterious proceedings is a very pretty little romance. Mrs. Castle is seen at her best in this production and as she is so well known her name alone ought to be a great drawing card. She has a splendid supporting cast which is typical of all Pathe pictures and the scenery was all obtained on large country estates that were secured for the purpose of making this picture. Other films will be the Pathe News, a Lonesome Luke comedy and an O. Henry story. For the vaudeville a dandy act has been secured that will round out a first class bill. Don't forget that this is for Friday only as "Turn to the Right" will be on Thursday evening and "Everywoman" on Saturday both matinee and night.

"Everywoman"
Seats are now selling for "Everywoman" which will be at the Grand Opera House on Saturday Sept. 7th, matinee and night.

This play has evidently attracted widespread attention, judging from the lines at the box-office, and splendid audiences for all performances are assured.

"Everywoman" heralded as a kaleidoscope of bewildering stage picture, lavish costumes, and sumptuous scenery, is officially designated a dramatic spectacle. This phraseology is adopted by the producer to banish the lurking notion of its having an unpleasant connection with morals and preachments. As a matter of fact the Walter Browne drama is a highly up-to-date musical show, gorgeous in those richly appointed appeal to eye and ear. The action of the play is accompanied by a score of illustrative music, and interpreted by an orchestra of almost grand opera size.

"Everywoman" is strikingly presented in this superb production, presented under the direction of Henry W. Savage.
In this splendid play there is a definite story. It is the quest of a young woman for love, and in panoramic form, is unfolded the adventures of a fair maid—her encounter with Greed, Riches and Passion and the other happenings which befall her as she wanders her tortuous, thorny path, only to return to her once happy but deserted home to seek consolation at the shrine of Truth.

Strand.
The programme offered at the Strand to-night and for the balance of this week will be very attractive from the fact that the comedy element will predominate. Mabel Norman, the winsome comedienne, known as the happy girl—will appear in her latest Goldwyn success, entitled "Back to the Woods," a five-act comedy drama that carries a very excellent dramatic story with many very funny situations, and, being a story of the Moine lumber woods, has many very beautiful scenes, of the great outside world in the pine forest, a picture refreshing to the eye and clean as a pin in story and theme. Besides this splendid feature General Manager Green states he will send in several good comedy and short reel subjects making a big show for the week-end—at the Strand's popular matinee and evening prices—and in the very near future some of the biggest and best pictures produced will be seen in Kingston at the Strand.

At Griffin's.
A bill of unusual attractiveness has been procured by the management of this popular playhouse to be exhibited to-day, Friday and Saturday, and is headed by the screen's cleverest comedienne, Marguerite Clarke, in her latest and without a doubt her most charming production, "Uncle Tom's Cabin." In this photoplay Miss Clark portrays a dual role, that of Little Eva and Topsy, in a manner that cannot fail to impress even the most blasé theatregoers. Two more decided contrasts in character can hardly be imagined than the saintly, golden-haired heroine of the story and the ignorant, uncouth child of slavery, yet Miss Clark's interpretation of both roles is nothing short of perfect and true to life in both instances.

There are few persons who have not at some time or other seen this pathetic play, and fewer still who have not laughed and cried over the story, but Marguerite Clarke in "Uncle Tom's Cabin" marks a new epoch in the production of this famous play, and to see it as portrayed by this dainty little actress is to see it at its finest, and complete in every detail. This is a picture you cannot afford to miss.

Military News

Lieut. Col. Stuart and Major Lawson are in Belleville interviewing Mayor Platt and the civic authorities on the matter of securing accommodation for an office staff of fifty-five clerks, who will be sent to Belleville in the autumn to look after the work of the discharge depot which is to be established there at the armouries and for which the armouries have been prepared. The depot, it is understood will handle 800 men.

OTTAWA CONTRACTOR TO BUILD BARRACKS

At Barriefield—Bate McMahon Arrives With Thirty-Five Men.

It is announced that Bate McMahon of Ottawa has been awarded the contract for the Barriefield barracks and will commence the work of erection at once. Four car loads of lumber arrived on Wednesday and he has brought thirty-five men from Ottawa to do the work. Mr. McMahon has the labor and equipment necessary for such a large undertaking and the work is expected to go on uninterruptedly. This firm has been engaged on military contracts in different parts of the Dominion. No figures are announced, but it is stated that it is likely the contract was let on a percentage basis.

The barracks at Barriefield have to be completed in eighty days and the firm holds the record for filling its contracts in the time specified. One official said to-day: "Just watch the Barriefield common for the next two or three days for developments." The soldiers in camp at present will have to go into quarters by the 1st of Oct. and, if the weather is unfavorable, possibly at an earlier date. Col. "Bob" Low, it is reported, will be on the job and his presence is regarded as a guarantee that it will be hustled from start to finish.

The erection of twenty-two buildings, eleven of them 200 feet long, in eighty days calls for a highly efficient organization and the execution of the contract will be of unusual interest in military circles.
