WRECKAGE ON THE LAKE

STEAMER REPORTS SEEING SOME ON TRIP TO KINGSTON.

Steamer Phelan Met With a Mishap and Was Assisted by the Tug Forest, of Morrisburg—Movements of Vessels.

The steamer Howard W., which arrived in port on Tuesday on her way from Oswego to Montreal, reported having seen considerable wreckage on the lake. As far as is known at present there is no local vessel reported missing.

The steamer School Craft was in port from Montreal on her way to Erie.

The steamer Phelan met with a mishap while going through Rapid du Plan. She broke her steering gear, but the tug Forest, owned by Messrs. Birmingham and Forest, of Morrisburg, arrived on the scene and got her through all right. The tug Forest is a staunch tug, and will be engaged in rendering aid to disabled steamers. Just recently she has had a number of jobs of this kind.

M.T. Co's. Bulletin—The tug Thomson is due to arrive to-day with two coal barges from Oswego; the steamer Windsor cleared from Oswego Tuesday night for Montreal loaded with coal; the tug Glyde arrived from Montreal with two light barges, and cleared with two grain barges for Montreal; the tug Laura Grace cleared with the barge Selkirk for Oswego; the steamer Cataract is due to arrive to-night from Montreal; the steamer India will arrive to-night from Montreal.

The steamer Omaha arrived from Charlotte at 3.35 a.m. and cleared for Montreal at 4.35 a.m. on Wednesday.

Military News

Brig-Gen. T. D. R. Hemming inspected an Engineer Draft today at Brockville.

Brig-Gen. G. S. Maunsell, accompanied by Major McManus garrison adjutant, inspected an overseas draft today at the Barriefield Camp, also volunteers for Siberia.

The proclamation calling for the registration of American citizens of Group I on September 28th has been changed making the date of registration Oct. 12th. All other groups are required to register within ten days from that date.

No men have been ordered to report in this district for about three months those last called being between the ages of 20 and 23. Work is progressing, however, on the recategorization. Last fall when the tribunals were sitting, a great many secured exemption automatically because the physical standard was very high and minor defects were regarded as sufficient to lower the category. Now minor defects are not regarded as sufficient to lower the category as experience at the front has proved that a slight degree of flat foot, for instance, is no handicap. A medical officer is reviewing the medical history sheet of all categories other than "A" with the result that a larger number of men will be available for service.

C.S.M. A. Rolfe, permanent A.S.C. school of instruction, Toronto, and formerly of Kingston, has reported at headquarters for duty in connection with cooking arrangements throughout the district. He was detailed with each unit in turn with a view to imparting instruction and obtaining uniformity in this important department. Brig-Gen. Hemming, C.M.G., G.O.C., is also directing particular attention to sanitation, and the responsibility of the cooks is emphasized.

Thursday afternoon, the 26th inst., will be observed as a half holiday for all troops in the Kingston garrison who wish to attend the Kingston fair.

Major Philip de L. Paasy, C. R. C. E., and Major S. Thompson, D.A.D.M.S., went to Picton and Cobourg on duty Tuesday.

Orders have come for the officers going with the Siberian Expeditionary force to report at Victoria, B. C., and it is likely they will go forward by the end of the week. The local men are Capt. J. H. Box, M. C., Lieut. J. Munro and H. D. Connell.

At the Theatres

"Eyes of Youth" To-night. Possibly everybody has tried crystal gazing, with the forlorn hope of getting a glimpse into the tantalizing future. The secret of the failure is not in the crystal, but in the gazer. One must know how to look if one wishes to see anything. Of universal interest, therefore, is the famous New York dramatic novelty, "Eyes of Youth," which A. H. Woods and the Messrs. Shubert will present at the Grand Opera House to-night and to-morrow, both matinee and night, direct from a run of one year at the Maxine Elliott Theatre, New York. The story has to do with the choice of a young girl on the threshold of life, to whom several alternatives present themselves. Undecided what to do she meets a Hindu Yogi who teaches her how to study her own heart and through this understanding how to see the future, revealed through the medium of a crystal ball. The episodes in the play are visualizations of the scenes and incidents revealed in the crystal. They are not only picturesque and interesting in themselves, but they are part of a progressive dramatic story with a great morale significance.

At Griffin's. Another highly pleased audience witnessed the splendid programme of feature photoplays exhibited at Griffin's last night. Ed Bennett in "The Keys of the Righteous" proved especially attractive and kept the interest of the audience from beginning to end. This beautiful Thomas W. Ince star has been seen in many lovely productions, but never in one with such heart appeal and charm as the "Keys of the Righteous," and consequently Miss Bennett is seen at her best. Don't miss this picture and the remainder of our programme, which consists of "The Story of a Mistaken Identity" played in a typical Russell manner and containing many unusual thrills, and also an interesting chapter of the great serial, "A Fight For Millions," which shows the hero, Win Duncan, performing deeds of unexcelled heroism. This programme will be given a final showing this evening, and should not be overlooked by lovers of good photoplays.

Strand Theatre. In "A Successful Adventure" the delightful comedy-drama, in which charming May Allison is starred, and which will be seen at the Strand Theatre, a masked ball takes place at a yacht club, which is the last word in beauty of setting and costume for a picture production. In this brilliant scene two hundred dancers appear in all manner of costumes and glittering jewelry. All are masked until the usual time—twelve o'clock—and then the unmasking takes place. This is a time of danger for the little heroine played by Miss Allison, but it all turns out for the best, and the fun and gaiety is fully sustained through the evening. "A Successful Adventure" is a play particularly suited to the beautiful star, and gives full scope for her clever interpretations of the role she plays. June Mathis wrote Miss Allison's new play and Harry Franklin directed it.

LADY PINK TOES HAS HER INNINGS

There is no excuse today for women to have ugly, painful corns

For a few cents you can get a quarter ounce of the magic drug freezeone recently discovered by a Cincinnati chemist.

Apply a few drops of this freezeone upon a tender, aching corn or callus and instantly, yes, immediately, all soreness disappears and shortly you will find the corn or callus so loose that you lift it out, root and all, with the fingers.

Just think! Not one bit of pain before applying freezeone or afterwards. It doesn't even irritate the surrounding skin.

Hard corns, soft corns or corns between the toes, also hardened calluses on bottom of feet, just seem to shrivel up and fall off without hurting a particle. It is almost magical.
