COUNTY COURT SITTING.

Three Cases Have Been Finished Before Judge Madden.

Two cases were concluded at the non-jury sittings of the County Court on Wednesday and after one case had been heard on Thursday morning Judge Madden resumed the sitting until next Tuesday afternoon. On Wednesday the action of S. Anglin & Co., against Lieut.-Col. W. F. Floyd, formerly officer commanding the 139th Battalion, for an outstanding account for lumber ordered for campaign purposes, was dismissed with costs. It could not be established that Lieut.-Col. Floyd was personally liable for an account charged to the battalion.

Judgment was reserved in the action of Nicholas Murphy against Roy Deline for $120 alleged to be due in a lumber deal. Deline purchased several thousand feet of lumber from Murphy and paid $100 down. He then sold the lumber to the Frontenac Lumbering Company, but it was found that part of the lumber was missing and part of it was unfit for their use. Accordingly Deline failed to pay the balance and Murphy is now suing for the outstanding amount.

On Thursday morning the action of Mrs. Hannah Martin against the Canadian Accident Company was heard but judgment was reserved.

NEW AMUSEMENT TAXES.

Higher Priced Tickets Will Bear More Burden.

Kingston theatregoers are due for another shock scheduled for November 1st. The tremendous demands imposed by the war have rendered the amusement taxes quite inadequate, and it is announced by Hon. T. W. McGarry, provincial treasurer, that the new scale for amusements to be adopted on November 1st will be:

- Tickets costing up to 15c . . . 1c
- over 15c to 45c . . . 2c
- over 45c to 95c . . . 5c
- over 95c to $1.45 . . . 10c
- over $1.45 to $2.00 . . . 15c
- over $2.00 to $3.00 . . . 20c
- all over $3.00 . . . 25c

It is on the higher priced tickets that the new taxes will take effect. The admission to "movie" theatres in Kingston varies from 10c to 25c and the new scale will not be changed for these. It is on tickets above 45c that the taxes will be added. The present taxes are as follows: Tickets up to 15c . . . 1c up to 50c . . . 2c up to $1.00 . . . 5c over $1.00 . . . 10c No official notification has yet been received by local theatre managers.

Preacher Serving In Y. M. C. A. "Hut" In Training Camp Finds His Duties Many and Varied.

If there is a notion that Y. M. C. A. work in the camps consists in selling stamps and handing out pocket testaments, let it be dispelled at once. One preacher, serving in a hut in a New Jersey camp, reports that he has done almost everything under the sun except preach.

He has built fires, swept floors, looked after hundreds of packages of laundry, umpired basketball games, organized a gym club, stage-managed a circus, sold ice cream at the canteen, and driven a sliver ten miles and back three times a week to provide home for boys who could not write, and he has taught those same boys their first lessons in the English language. He has been a repository for hundreds of heart secrets, and he has served as trustee for the care of as many as thirty Liberty bonds at a time.

Perhaps oddest of his many tasks was one that came his way on a wild and stormy night in April, when the master of arms at the military station entered the "hut" but after taps, carrying a red box under his arm.

"Say," said the master of arms, "we've got a lot of T. N. T. mines stored at this station. Here's the detonators in this box. There's considerable lightning around, and it isn't safe to leave these things close to the mines. Would you just as soon take care of the box over night?"

The Red Triangle man slept that night (or tried to sleep) with enough high explosive under his foot to blow his half way to heaven.
