Despite high prices, the Allies may yet have Turkey for Thanksgiving day.

Save to-day that you may be prepared to do your part when the next Victory Loan is floated.

Bulgaria has quit and Turkey is getting ready to back out. The rats are always the first to desert a sinking ship.

The small nations, which Germany claimed had no right to exist, are landing some vigorous and effective punches these days.

Premier Clemenceau, France's wonderful old man, spent his seventy-eighth birthday by visiting the front line trenches.

"This is not the time to speak of peace," declares Bishop Fallon, lately returned from the front.

Forced out of Cambrai, the Hun could not resist the temptation to apply the torch to this historic French city.

Whatever money we lend to the government goes to the maintenance and equipment of our armies.

Despite President Wilson's appeal to Congress for nation-wide woman suffrage, that body has refused to pass the desired legislation.

According to the Provincial Board of Health, Kingston has an unenviable reputation as a typhoid centre.

The Military Service Council announces that it has exhausted the resources of Class I.

In 1917 the fire loss in Ontario amounted to $6,449,435. During the first seven months of 1918 it reached $8,120,265.

against this, for the most part, unnecessary national loss. The people of the province have been asked by the authorities to observe a fire prevention day this month.

LETTERS THE SOLDIERS LIKE.

A soldier on the other side—a soldier who has paid now the ultimate price for world democracy—wrote home a letter which reached his family only after his death.

The "go-get-'em" spirit he found best expressed by Elsie Janis, the talented actress so well known to Kingstonians.

And so there you have, from the pen of the soldier himself, the kind of letters he likes best. Write him "go-get-'em" letters always.

THE GROWTH OF INSURANCE.

The Public Service Bulletin, issued under authority of the Province of Ontario, devotes liberal space to the consideration of fraternal insurance in the province.

There exist a very large number of small societies paying sick and funeral benefits only.

WHERE THE BATTLE RAGES.

St. Quentin has fallen; Cambrai is surrounded; Douai is in imminent danger.

Major-General Maurice points out that the number of American troops who have so far taken part in the battle has not been sufficient to give Poch the overwhelming strength he possesses.

soldiers can accomplish when called upon. The small numbers who have so far engaged the foe have covered themselves with glory.

Four Canadian divisions are fighting—and sustaining severe losses—on the Cambrai front.

Tiger's 78th Birthday Spent at Front, Giving Generals Lot of Worry.

Paris, Oct. 3.—The Tiger celebrated his seventy-eighth birthday by leaving Paris on Saturday evening for the front.

PUBLIC OPINION

Just As Easily. (Ottawa Journal). It may be well to remind some uneasy people that increased pay under the name of "war bonus" can be just as easily spent as the rest.

Their Last Chance. (London Advertiser). One of the saddest reflections of the German general staff these days is that in one of his books Poch tells just how a successful should be conducted.

Premeditative. (Hitchcock Times-Despatch). The Kaiser in his speech at Essen, declared the Germans were a military people.

For Pickling, Of Course. (Toronto Star). A carload of whiskey disguised as "pickles" has been seized at North Bay.

was meant to be used in pickling persons at the point of destination.

Why The Distinction.

It is important that the Dominion paper commissioner will forbid the starting of any new daily papers until after the war.

SELF DENIAL

I do without a lot of things, because I wish to can such things as Carl and old Red Bill; as Hoover says: "That man is wise and loyal who'll economize, and do it with a will."
