Sacrificing a present pleasure for a future good. Save. Von Hindenburg has quit the job.

The horse thieves of the past have been succeeded by the auto thieves of the present.

Germany, remarks the Ottawa Citizen, hasn't apparently realized yet that U.S. also stands for unconditional surrender.

Germany are grinding up from five to fifteen carloads of human bones for fertilizers.

"My navy is unwaveringly supporting the army in its difficult struggle," boasts the Kaiser.

A young Napanee woman has arrested for the alleged murder of her illegitimate child.

The Allies are falling back upon the Old Testament for guidance.

The Montreal Gazette declares that scores of draft evaders are alleged to be hiding in the mountains of Quebec.

The Hun is very clever. He pleads for an armistice just at the time when Great Britain, the United States and Canada are launching new war loans campaigns.

Citizens of Allied countries, residents in Canada, are shortly to be called upon to join the colors.

Spanish influenza is spreading rapidly throughout the province, and Kingston is not exempt.

Where Canadians Shirk. The plain fact of the matter is, Canadians have not yet accepted war standards.

How Wealth Begins. How does wealth begin? Real wealth, not false wealth. The kind nothing, consistent with the welfare of the public, likely to dislocate business or the ordinary affairs of life.

LIVING WAGE QUESTION. The Toronto telephone girls, in a very reasonable statement of a girl's financial requirement for one year in Toronto, figured that it costs her at least $16.35 a week to live.

WILSON'S REPLY IS SUBTLE MANOEUVRE. Washington, Oct. 9.—President Wilson made a subtle manoeuvre when, in his message, he inquired whether Prince Max spoke for Germany's war aims as well as the people's.

LILLE. Lille, the largest city in France in German hands, will soon be evacuated. It has been wantonly despoiled and its inhabitants cruelly handled.

Cape Vincent Officer Hurt. Lieut. H. J. Scobell, Cape Vincent, N.Y., Company M, 148th Infantry, was wounded in action, Aug. 4th.

Breach of Promise. The breach of promise action brought by Margaret La Sha against Clarence S. Thompson, of Alexandria Bay, N.Y., has been discontinued.

THE SILENT GENERAL. Napoleon, of the great renown, was fond of sounding phrases. He cried, "The pyramid look down."

Public Opinion. Rubbing It In. Our idea of an irresistible attack is a drive at 'em by a tank filled with Toronto policemen.

Thick-headed Huns. Apparently it is going to take some time to get it into the Imperial German Government's head that it is not even going to be present at the peace conference except possibly as Exhibit A.

Not Jubilating. Von Hertling says that events on the western front should not depress the German people.

Always Pessimists. "Will Canada seize her opportunity?" asks a writer in one of the weekly magazines.

A Reactionary Legislature. In defeating woman's suffrage the United States Senate has shown itself less democratic and more reactionary than the British House of Lords.

Where Canadians Shirk. The plain fact of the matter is, Canadians have not yet accepted war standards.

How Wealth Begins. How does wealth begin? Real wealth, not false wealth. The kind that spells success and happiness. The secret of a man's success has never been the amount of money he makes; but in the ratio of income to outgo.
