CIVIC COMMITTEES MEET INCIDENTS OF THE DAY

WAGES OF INCINERATOR EMPLOYEES TO BE INCREASED.

The Produce Raised in the Garden of the Home for the Aged is Valued at $1,279.

At a meeting of the Board of Works Wednesday evening it was decided to accept $250 from the street railway company in full for repairs made to Alfred street through the tearing up of the company's tracks.

Requests for sewers at the foot of Barrie street and at the corner of Barrack and Bagot streets were received and referred to the city engineer.

The board will ask the City Council for a further appropriation of $2,000 to complete the year's work.

Home for the Aged.

At a meeting of the Home for the Aged committee Wednesday afternoon, Superintendent Baldwin reported that there are at present forty-eight inmates, twenty-six males and twenty-two females.

Upwards of four hundred returned men arrived in the city shortly before 9 o'clock on Thursday morning. The men for the most part belong to the Ottawa-Kingston district, and during the day were issued transportation to their homes.

They were a happy lot very anxious to get to their homes. Many of the boys who returned Thursday morning had been overseas three and four years. Many were lame, and nearly all had battle scars to show the part they played in chasing the Hun.

World had been here sooner, but old Fritz got too busy and had to stay and help tame him, was the remark one chap made to the Whig as he walked along with the aid of a cane.

Mayor Hughes received no notification of the arrival of the returned men, and was not at the railway station to give them a welcome, greatly to his regret. The soldiers came unheralded. Mayor Hughes at once wrote to Col. Marriott, of the discharge depot at Quebec, asking him if it was not possible to give Kingston official notice some hours in advance of the coming of returned soldiers.

The following district men arrived here: Brockville—Capt. D. W. Davis, H. G. Breakall, J. E. Dixon, S. Robertson, C. S. M. H. L. Stephenson, Pte. W. F. Baker.

Belleville—Pte. T. Smith, Pte. C. A. Simpson, Sergt. J. H. Turney, Corp. A. L. Jess, Pte. A. Gaudinier, Gr. G. A. Irvin.

Gananoque—Spr. S. Bovey, Capt. J. G. McCammon. T. J. Wilson, Coe Hill, is also among the returned men.

During the day the following additional Kingston men arrive in the city: Pte. E. A. Demarse, Pte. C. C. McIvor, Portsmouth.

Pte. Patrick Donnelly, of Arranprior, Served With the 21st Battalion.

Corp. W. E. ROBERTS WAS KILLED IN ACTION Former Member Kingston Fire Department Paid Supreme Sacrifice.

Still another well-known Kingstonian has paid the supreme sacrifice on the field of battle. Word has been received of the death in action of Corporal W. E. Roberts, a former member of the Kingston fire department, and a brother of Ernest Roberts, of the waterworks department.

Corporal Roberts went overseas with the 25th (Quebec) Highlanders, and later was transferred to the 102 Infantry in France.

Deceased was widely known around the city, and his many friends were sorry to hear of his death. He served three years on the local fire department, from 1908 to 1911. A wife and two children survive.
