Happy Bond Holders When Rates Come Down

Aside altogether from the element of patriotism involved in the purchase of the next Victory Loan, its potentiality as an investment security is of outstanding importance. This is particularly true of the fifteen-year maturity.

Not only is the 5 1-2 per cent. rate of interest which it yields much higher than it was possible for an investor in the securities of any stable government to obtain in pre-war days, but the Victory Loan is giltedged in the fullest sense of the term. True, there has been a substantial increase in the public debt of the country during the past four years, but, on the other hand, there has DRIVER FOR TANK WAGGON. APeven a greater increase in the annual productive value of the Do-Taking the sum total of agriculture, live stock, manufacturing, mining, fisheries, and lumbering, it is now approximately four billions. In other words, the annual production of the Dominion exceeds Young MAN FOR DELIVERY. APPLY by more than four-fold, the increase which has taken place in our public debt, since the outbreak of the war. And, furthermore, back of it all are the present and potential resources of the country

Advantages as Investment. Prior to the outbreak of the war, the normal spread between the interest rate on Government securities and first class mortgages was approximately 2 to 2 1-2 per cent. During the last two or three years the spread has narrowed down to about one-half. To ordinary investors,that is those who have sums of from five to twenty-five thousand dollars to invest-the meaning of this is ob-

When war ceases, and the money markets of the world again return to normal conditions, the spread in interest will yield between Govern- GOOD PLAIN COOK; NO HOUSEment bonds and loans on mortgages must necessarily again widen, because of the higher character of the former type of security.

The holder of the fifteen-year Vic-S tory bonds will, however, still be drawing the high rate of 5 1-2 per cent. on a security of the highest grade. And one, too, that will be

THE TRUE CANADIAN. "No true Canadian will be found wanting in his response to the appeal which the next Victory Loan will make to him. He will weigh in his conscience the question of how much he is going to subscribe to that loan to help to victory the highest cause for which men have ever faced the ELECTRIC WIREMEN WANTED AT supreme sacrifice. He will not fail to hear the call of duty. He will do his part towards making the loan a success worthy of Canada, whose resources, from ocean to ocean, are all behind it."-Grain Growers'

At Montreal over five million dollars in large individual subscriptions, apart from the amounts collected by the various teams, represent the first day's contribution towards the fifth Victory Loan.
