NIGHT COUGH

You know it! It begins with a tickling, irritating sensation in your throat. You cough to clear the throat. In a moment -there it is again!

A minute's peace, then again you cough, and so on until you cough your throat sore, and by the time the cough is sufficiently allayed to permit you to sleep, you are thoroughly worn out. This kind of experience is particularly trying to old people.

Peps make this sort of thing quite unnecessary.

Put a Peps pastille on your tongue and allow it to slowly dissolve. Healing fumes are then liberated, which mingle with the breath and are carried to the remotest parts of the air passages and lungs, allaying the irritation and soothing the inflamed membranes, thus ending the cough and making sleep possible.

Peps are also best for bronchitis, laryngitis, asthma, sore throat and colds. Try Peps at our expense.

MORALE IN ENGLAND HIGH

AND THE FOOD CONDITIONS BETTER THAN LAST YEAR.

Staff-Sergt. Sherborne Wilder Speaks of the Khaki University of Canada Now in Full Swing Overseas.

The people in England have no doubt for peace at the present stage in the war, and they are more anxious to continue with all the power at their command than at any previous time. This is a statement made by Staff-Sergt. Sherborne Wilder, 215 Frontenac street, who arrived home from overseas on Tuesday evening. He sailed from Southampton on Monday, October 21st on the Aquitania, and after a pleasant voyage, with no trouble from submarines, arrived at New York exactly a week later.

Staff-Sergt. Wilder was one of Canada's original firsts and belonged to the 2nd Battalion. He was wounded in the second battle of Ypres in April, 1915, and was sent to hospital in Devon, England. Later he was transferred to the 2nd London General Hospital. As a result of his wounds he lost his left eye. On recovering he was attached to the Canadian Pay Office in London, and soon rose to the rank of staff-sergeant. He was on duty there until the time of his departure for Canada.

He gives a most interesting story of conditions in the British Isles at the present time. In the dark days of March of this year there was a desperate situation, and the people of England were almost in despair.
But with bulldog pluck they persisted and worked harder than ever. A fresh combing out of the man power of the country took place, and by degrees the situation became easier. At the present time there is a cheerful optimistic spirit all over the British Isles, without any outward demonstrations of the great victories that the troops have been gaining. The peace offers of Germany were received with ridicule, and the unanimous feeling of the people is that there can be no peace until the Huns are completely beaten, and made powerless to attempt another war.

The food conditions in England are improving, and are far better than they were a year ago. There is a plentiful supply of potatoes, and cereals, and bacon is plentiful.

meat, although rationed, is not really scarce, and of butter and margarine there is a fair supply. Coal is very scarce, and the population are strictly rationed in fuel and gas.
The morale of the civil population is very high, and the people are resolved to carry on until the enemy begs for peace on their own territory. No one over there expects an early peace, and preparations are going on as if the war were to last for another year at least.

Staff-Sergt. Wilder, in an interview with the Whig, spoke with great enthusiasm of the Khaki University of Canada, which is now in full swing in the Canadian camps overseas. He claims that it is the finest thing yet done for the soldiers. In this university of many colleges the education of the men is carried on as if they were still in Canada. The headquarters of the university are in London, and the president is Prof. H. M. Tory, formerly of the University of Alberta.
Capt. Frisby, formerly of a Toronto business college, is business manager, and Lieut. Sheel is secretary.
There is a large school of the troops in London, and colleges in every Canadian camp in England.
All Canada soldiers are eligible for membership, draftees as well as men who are convalescing from wounds.
The classes are held in the spare time of the troops, and special hours are set during the day for lectures.

The subjects taught are as varied as can be found in any university curriculum. In addition to the regular university course of arts, medicine and science, there are classes in mechanical training, business courses, and also courses in agriculture. The agricultural course is supplemented by practical work on the land, the King having given the university the use of many of the royal model farms at Windsor. The students of the university have a splendid athletic society, and are allowed the free use of the Richmond Rowing Club and their boats.

The university is open to all officers, N.C.O.'s, and men of the Canadian army. There is a nominal entrance fee of twenty-five cents.
All the books used are supplied at cost price, and if in good condition at the end of the course are bought back from the students at a rate of seventy-five per cent. of their cost.
There is a branch college in every camp in England, and in France there is the Vimy Ridge College, which carries on the work when the troops are in rest billets. The whole system is worked from London, and when a man goes to France he is transferred from the English college to the Vimy Ridge College, and his education goes on without interruption. The same principle is carried out when men are returned from France to England, or transferred from one camp to another.

The soldiers are taking the greatest possible advantage of this scheme of fitting them for the return to civil life, and to keep the students in touch with their various subjects. In the London college alone there were eight hundred students. The scheme is attracting the attention of the authorities in Great Britain, and also in Australia and New Zealand. It is likely that all the colonies will have their Khaki colleges in the near future, and to Canada belongs the credit of establishing the first.

CANADIAN ARMY AND
THE VICTORY LOAN

War Costing Canada Over Million Dollars a Day - $400,000,000 Will Be This Year's Bill.

Nearly 600,000 have been enrolled in the Canadian Expeditionary Force.
About 425,000 have gone overseas.
Canada's 1918 war bill will be $400,000,000.

Canada's 1917 war bill was $320,- 000,000.
Canada's war expenditure is now $35,000,000 a month, or $420,000,000 a year.
It exceeds $1,000,000 a day.
The $420,000,000 subscribed to the 1917 Victory Loan will not do much more than pay this year's war bill.

$500,000,000 are needed throughout the Victory Loan, even though peace should come to-morrow.

BANKS WILL LEND.

In order to help out small subscribers to the Victory Loan the banks will lend subscribers, on the probable certainty of repayment within a year, up to 90 per cent. of the amount of the investment in the Loan. The rate of interest charged by the banks is 5 1/2 per cent. Repayment is to be made monthly and quarterly. These are much better terms than were granted last year.

There are over 425,000 Canadians overseas who will have to be kept for at least a year, even if peace were to come this month.

No one who looks at the casualty lists can do otherwise than subscribe every dollar possible to the Victory Loan.

The Canadians in France have set a high standard for those at home to reach in the Victory Loan campaign.
Canada must put every ounce of effort into the Victory Loan drive.

Over-subscribing to the Victory Loan would have a wonderful effect on the Canadian Corps in France. It would be the best thing that Canada could possibly do.

Russia a Nightmare, Says Lovoff.
Honolulu, T.H., Oct. 31.—Prince George Lovoff, first premier of the Russian provisional government set up after the revolution, left here recently for the United States. He said Russia is a horrible nightmare, with ruthless murders, torturing and atrocities in those sections controlled by German-led "Reds."

Jacob Sills, for years a resident of Canifton, died Oct. 23rd at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Gilbert Caniff, Toledo, Ohio. He was aged ninety-one years.

On Tuesday the death occurred of Daniel Cummings, front of Sidney.
He was owner of a dairy business.
He was born in England twenty-eight years ago.

K. Gordon Grant, son of the late Governor Grant, Perth, died in Montreal from influenza. He was born in Perth.

Harry R. Neapole died suddenly in Pembroke while conversing with M. E. Malcolm in the latter's undertaking rooms.

Everything is Peaches Down in Georgia American Quartet 18497
Carolina, I'm Coming Back to You
Peerless Quartet
"Everything is Peaches Down in Georgia" is as lively as the words would lead you to expect. Carolina, I'm Coming Back to You" - on the reverse side - is quite a contrast to the above; more tender in sentiment.
Oui, Oui, Marie
Arthur Fields 18505
We Don't Want the Bacon
Peerless Quartet
"We Don't Want the Bacon (What Want is a Piece of the Rhine)" is a typical doughboy song; full of ginger. It's worth a pocket full of money; to hear Arthur Fields rip out "as and "as" in the refrain of "Oui, Oui, Marie" on the reverse side.
Hindustan - Fox Trot Jos. C. Smith's Orch. 18507
"Hindustan" has the essential touch; vigorous melody and instant rhythm. On the reverse side is "N' Everything," full of energy and "pop."
Oh! How I Wish I Could Sleep Until My Daddy Comes Home
Henry Burr 18506
There's Nobody Home But Me
Chas. Hart
The expression for bedtime for the little one in "Oh! How I Wish I Could Sleep Until My Daddy Comes Home" is brought out strongly by ballad song by Henry Burr. On the reverse side - "There's Nobody Home But Me" - applies to the brave spirit of a little eight-year boy in khaki by Charles Hart.
