GANANOQUE

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
 Nov. 2.—Four aeroplanes from Camp Mohawk, near Deseronto, arrived here about two o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, and, accompanied by the blowing of the factory whistles and the ringing of bells, proceeded to bombard the town again with Victory Loan literature. Two of the machines returned to Deseronto during the afternoon, the other two remaining, and yesterday afternoon did some loop the loop stunts over the town. Last evening the subscriptions amounted to about $125,000, which is considered as a very good showing.

GET RID OF HUMORS AND AVOID DISEASE

Humors in the blood cause internal derangements that affect the whole system, as well as pimples, boils and other eruptions. They affect all the organs and functions, membranes and tissues, and are directly responsible for the readiness with which some people contract disease.

For forty years Hood's Sarsaparilla has been more successful than any other medicine in expelling humors and removing their inward and outward effects. It is distinguished for its thoroughness in purifying the blood, which it enriches and invigorates. No other medicine acts like it, for no other medicine is like it.

SERGT. ALLAN W. SHEA DEAD.

He Passed Away in Queen's Hospital Friday Night.

LATE ALLAN SHEA.

Still another Kingston young man, who went overseas at the opening of the war, and did his "bit," has passed away, in the person of Sergt. Allan William Shea, son of the late John Shea, who died on Friday last, at 11 o'clock in Queen's Military Hospital. Deceased had been in poor health for some time, but it was on Sunday last that he was removed to Queen's Hospital.

The news of the death of Sergt. Shea caused widespread regret, as he was well known and very popular with his many friends and acquaintances. He was a young man of sterling character, made many friends by his kindly manner and disposition, and was beloved by all.

The late Sergt. Shea was twenty-five years of age on the 18th of August last. He was born in Kingston, and attended the public school and Collegiate Institute, and later on Queen's University, where he was taking a course in science, when he heard the call of his country, and dropped his studies. He went overseas with Queen's Engineers under Major MacPhail, and it so happened that he left here on his birthday on August 18th, 1914. His first voyage was to Valcartier, later on to England, and then to France, where he was engaged up till two years ago, when he was called home owing to the serious illness of his father. He was gassed, and on two occasions suffered from shell shock.

Sergt. Shea was a member of Queen Street Methodist Church, also a member of the Young Men's Club of that church, in which he took an active part. He was also a member of the Great War Veterans' Association. At the time of his death he held a position at the armouries with the Army Service Corps, under the A. D. of S. and T. He is survived by his mother, who is at present very ill. Deceased will be buried with full military honors. The family home is at 190 Barrie street.

AT SATURDAY'S MARKET

Prices Were High—Eggs Hit 80 Cents a Dozen.

The usual crowd of housewives on the hunt for bargains in farm produce invaded the market square on Saturday morning. The fine seasonable weather brought out a large crowd of customers, and a full turnout of farmers and market gardeners. Prices in most cases were on a high level, and those who expected to find supplies cheap were disappointed.

In the inner market eggs and butter were plentiful, but there was no reduction of prices. Eggs had risen again, and were selling at from 70 cents to 80 cents a dozen, with the bulk going at 75 cents a dozen. Butter was steady at 55 cents a pound, in spite of a largely increased supply, owing to the Wole Island cheese factories having suspended operations. Nice chickens were selling at $1.25 each, with fowls at $1.50. Live fowls were going at $1.50, and ducks at $1.75. One farmer's wife had on hand a good supply of duck's eggs, which she sold at 75 cents a dozen.

In the meat section there was a good supply of lamb and pork. Fronts of lamb were selling at from 25 to 27 cents a pound, and hind-quarters at 28 to 30 cents. Pork was a little dearer, being 28 to 30 cents a pound for hams, and 30 to 32 cents for hind-quarters.

Fruit and vegetables were there in profusion, but prices were not low. Apples varied in price according to quality. One farmer had a load of snow apples, 50 cents a peck, another was selling some lovely eating and cooking apples at 60 cents a peck. Only one farmer remembered that Hallowe'en is pumpkin time, and he had a few beautiful yellow specimens at 25 cents each. Cabbage were cheap at 5 and 10 cents each, and lovely cauliflower were selling at 20 cents. One farmer's wife had a few bushels of crab apples, "lovely for jelly," she said, at 30 cents a peck, and she soon disposed of them. Celery was selling at various prices, ranging from 8 cents a bunch to four bunches for 25 cents. Beets and carrots sold at 25 cents a peck, parsnips at 35 cents, and onions at 40 cents a peck. Quite a number of farmers had potatoes, for which they charged $2 to $2.25 a bag.

In the inner market a few farmer's wives had brought to market some home-made cakes, cookies, pies, pickles and preserves. These looked very tempting, and were eagerly snapped up by the housewives.

PTE. GEORGE TIMMS WRITES

He is in Hospital in France With a Contused Foot.

Mrs. Thomas W. Timms, North Frontenac street, is in receipt of a letter from her son, Pte. George Timms, dated France, Oct. 9th, which is in part as follows: "I am in hospital wounded only slightly. I stopped a piece of bomb on my instep, but as luck would have it, it didn't go through my boot, only caused contusion. I don't expect to make Blighty, but wish I could make it as a present for my birthday next Wednesday. We are having some very cold weather here now, but not much rain. It is just two months since Cliff got hit. He got his Aug. 8th, mine on Oct. 8th. He is expecting to return to Canada."

Under date of Oct. 15th, Pte. Timms states: "My foot is about healed, but my arm, where I was unaccounted, is pretty sore, and I have to carry it in a sling. I am in the convalescent department now. I expect to be home for a month at least. There are plenty of Y.M.C.A. and other places to pass the time away and concerts and cinema. I don't know what we would do without the Y.M.C.A. and such like. They certainly break the monotony of a soldier's life. The war is certainly going fine and just my luck to get it near the end, but I guess I am through with the line for a while anyway."

Pte. Timms is a son of T. Timms, former of street, in Kingston, in the 13th C.M.R. in Oct. 1915. Upon reaching England he transferred to the R.C.D. and has served in this unit continuously. He is now a machine gunner in the first Canadian Cavalry Brigade. On arrival in England he suffered from diphtheria, but he has been twenty-one months in France. He is twenty-two years of age.

PERPLEXED!

Do you wonder why? Thrown suddenly into widowhood with all its worries and cares, the ever-haunting fear is with her that she will be unable to keep the home together. If the break comes, she dreads separating from the children whom she loves so dearly.

Her husband has been dead less than a year, and the major portion of his savings has been spent for funeral expenses and doctors' bills. The real estate they hoped would some day provide a tidy little nest-egg cannot now be realized on, and the fear haunts her that she will lose what already has been paid on account of being unable to meet the instalments and taxes as they fall due.

Her position is pitiful, yet not unlike that of hundreds of others. Her husband could have provided her with a monthly income for life at the price of a couple of smokes a day had he heeded the advice of The Manufacturers Life. If your wife became a widow to-night, would she, too, be perplexed? Have you so provided that she will not lack funds each and every month as long as she lives? Let us tell you about our Monthly Income Policy.
