

NOTICE

Military Service Act, 1917. EMPLOYMENT OF MEN IN DEFAULT UNDER THE MILITARY SERVICE ACT.

The following Regulations, recently approved by the Governor General in Council, impose strict obligations upon every employer TO ASSURE HIMSELF THAT EACH OF HIS EMPLOYEES OF MILITARY AGE AND DESCRIPTION IS IN POSSESSION OF DOCUMENTS PROVING THAT HE IS NOT IN ANY WAY IN DEFAULT UNDER THE MILITARY SERVICE ACT.

An employer who is charged with having a defaulter in his employ must be able to prove THAT THE MILITARY SERVICE PAPERS ISSUED BY THE REGISTRAR OR MILITARY AUTHORITIES TO THE EMPLOYEE IN QUESTION WERE PRODUCED FOR HIS INSPECTION at the time when the employee was taken into his employment, and that it was reasonably established to his satisfaction that the man was not in default under the Military Service Act. It should be clearly understood that the Canadian Registration Certificates given on June 22, 1918, at the time of general registration, in no way define the status of a man under the Military Service Act.

REGULATIONS.

"106. Every person who employs or retains in his service any man who has deserted or is absent without leave from the Canadian Expeditionary Force, or who is in default in the performance of any obligation or requirement for reporting or for military service, imposed upon him by the Act or Regulations, or any proclamation thereunder, shall be guilty of an offence punishable on summary conviction by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by a penalty of not less than One Hundred Dollars, and of not more than Five Hundred Dollars, or by both such imprisonment and fine, unless such person prove that he made due inquiry and that THE MILITARY SERVICE PAPERS ISSUED BY THE REGISTRAR OR THE MILITARY AUTHORITIES TO THE MAN SO EMPLOYED OR RETAINED IN HIS SERVICE, WERE PRODUCED FOR HIS INSPECTION, and that it was reasonably established to his satisfaction by such inquiry and papers that the man was not a deserter or absent from the force without leave, or in default in respect of any of the obligations or requirements aforesaid."

"106A. Every person who HARBOURS OR CONCEALS OR IN ANY WAY ASSISTS ANY MAN WHO IS A DESERTER OR ABSENT WITHOUT LEAVE FROM THE CANADIAN EXPEDITIONARY FORCE, or who is in default in the performance of any obligation or requirement for reporting or for military service imposed upon him by the Act or Regulations, or any proclamation thereunder, shall be guilty of an offence punishable upon summary conviction by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by a penalty of not less than One Hundred Dollars, and of not more than Five Hundred Dollars, or by both such imprisonment and fine, unless such person prove that he was not aware and had no reasonable ground to suspect that the man so harboured, concealed, or assisted was a deserter or absent from the forces without leave or in default in respect of any of the obligations or requirements aforesaid."

APPEALS MADE IN BEHALF OF THE VICTORY LOAN.

Bishop Bidwell Presents Claims of Christian Religion Upon All the Professed Adherents For Fidelity to Highest Ideals.

All Saints Day was observed at St. George's Cathedral on Sunday, and the Bishop of Ontario was the preacher. Dean Starr, in making the announcements, directed attention to the government's Victory Loan appeal, which, he said, was as important as the call for troops in 1914. All who are able to do so should buy Victory Bonds," he said.

The Bishop's sermon was a masterly presentation of the claims of the Christian religion upon all its professed adherents for fidelity to the highest ideals. He took for his text Rev. vii, 14: "These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb." We observe All Saints Day in commemoration of the Christians who have lived and striven for the attainment of what is highest and best, the Bishop said. The saints were not those who lived a secluded religious life, but those who in contact with all the forces of the world, though engaged in the struggle between the flesh and the spirit, still strove to attain the ideals which Christ defined. They carried the cross, and their lives were a constant spiritual and moral conflict calling for self-sacrifice and devotion. The Christian religion might seem to be pitched too high, but Christ would not die satisfied with a weak discipleship. The Christian is not satisfied with a stained robe. He is constantly called upon to strive toward higher and better things. An easy religion could not save the world.

There is no exhortation for us in the ranks of this great multitude, said the speaker. We cannot be satisfied with a stained robe, but, like them, must continue to fight for the things that are vital and eternal. It is for these that we thank God—and for the rank and file of His saints.

Impressive Service at St. James. There was a most impressive service at St. James' Church on Sunday morning, and it was well attended. It took the form of a memorial service for members of the congregation who had passed away during the year.

This service is usually held on All Saints day, but had to be postponed. The rector, Rev. T. W. Savary, preached a strong sermon, the title of which was "Glorified Through Suffering," in which he pointed out how people going through life called upon to go through much suffering. He referred to the heavy toll taken in the war and also the recent epidemic.

Following the sermon, the congregation stood with bowed head, while the rector read a list of the names of the congregation who had passed away at home, and those who had met death as a result of service overseas. The hymns sung were appropriate to the occasion.

A service was also held at St. James in the evening, when the rector preached a strong sermon on the subject "Depart Not From Your Steadfastness."

At Chalmers Church. Owing to three of his children being ill of influenza, Rev. Dr. R. Wilson was unable to officiate in Chalmers Church on Sunday. Rev. Dr. Scott, of Queen's Theological College, occupied the pulpit and preached splendid sermons to good-sized congregations.

At Cooke's Church. In Cooke's Presbyterian Church on Sunday evening, Rev. W. Taylor Dale, before commencing his sermon, made a stirring reference to the Victory Loan. He said that a splendid response was made last year, but that this year the country must do even better. There was no use of starting anything without carrying on with all the strength of the country until the eleventh hour, and then falling. The business must be carried on to the very end. In helping by buying Victory Bonds Canadians were not giving but investing, and investing to good advantage.

The speaker made mention of how men of all classes, farmers, college graduates, business men, mechanics,

Harmless Means Of Reducing Fat

Many fat people fear ordinary means for reducing their weight. Here is an extraordinary method. Extraordinary because while perfectly harmless no dieting or exercise are necessary. Marmola Prescription Tablets are made exactly in accordance with the famous Marmola Prescription. A reduction of two, three or four pounds a week is the rule. Procure them from any druggist or if you prefer send 75 cents to the Marmola Co., 864 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich. for a large case.

Best's Prescription Service

Is unequalled in this district. A capable dispenser at your service from early morning till midnight, means so much to the sick. Your doctor realizes this, and depending more and more on us—just as you expect him to do. The slogan "Take it to Best's," we want to be the watchword of the sick.

and clerks had given up their homes, their friends, their all, and had gone overseas to make the greatest possible sacrifice. Lending money in a Victory Loan is as nothing compared to their sacrifice. And as an investment nothing could be safer than the Victory Bonds, which have behind them the whole resources of Canada. It was the plain duty of all to buy bonds to the very limit.

FINE PROGRAMME WAS RENDERED

By the Victory Loan Choir in the Down Town Sections.

The Victory Loan choir, which is doing splendid work in boosting the loan, had a most successful evening on Saturday. They made a tour of the downtown section, and at various points gave a splendid programme of songs and Victory Bond choruses. At the corner of Montreal and Princess streets they attracted a huge crowd, which threatened to block the traffic. Mayor Hughes, who happened to come along as they were singing was immediately pressed into service, and gave a splendid five-minute speech, dwelling on the necessity of buying bonds, and the advantages they possess. He was greeted with hearty applause. At the close of his speech, a soldier made the remark "What about the boys who have just come home?" to which the mayor promptly replied "They are the best ever," and refused to be drawn into any street corner argument. Later the choir gave another concert outside the store of George Mills & Co., on Princess street, followed by an eloquent and telling speech by George Smith. After their evening's work the choristers were entertained at the home of Mrs. Thomas Mills.

UNITE TO HELP VICTORY LOAN

WAR MEMORIAL

ONE MILLION SCHOLARS! ONE MILLION DOLLARS!

A million Sunday school scholars and members of the Young People's Associations of the Anglican, Presbyterian, Baptist, Methodist and Congregational churches are co-operating on a plan which has the three-fold purpose of helping to boost the Victory Loan over the top; assisting the churches to extend their mission work, and commemorating the heroism of church members who have fallen at the front.

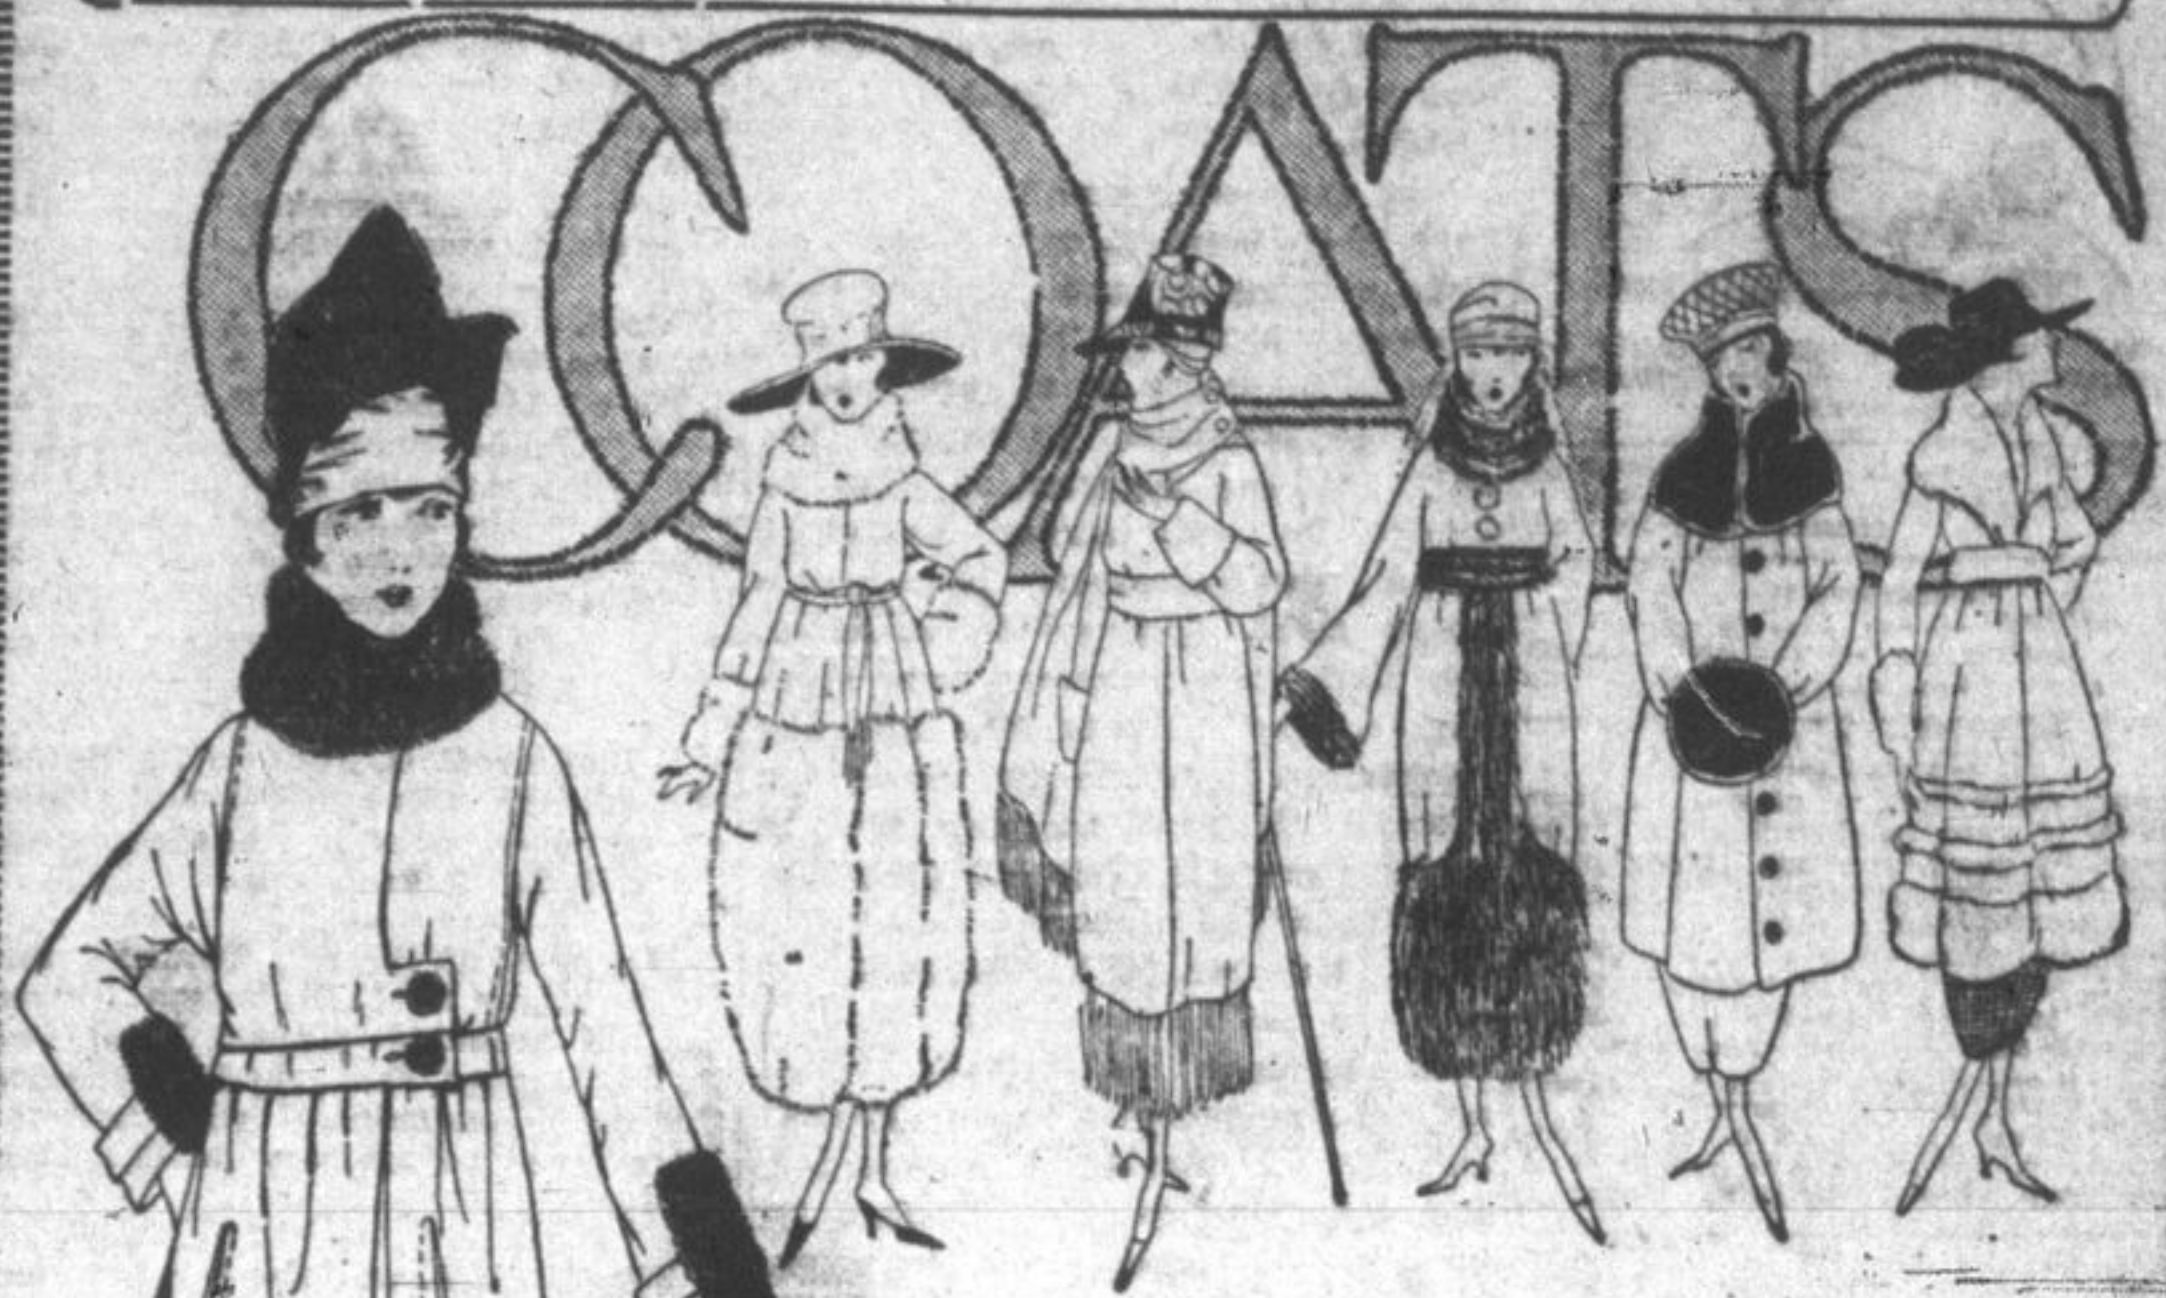

"Every school at least one bond" is the cry that will help to carry the 1918 Victory Loan to the Sunday schools' million dollar objective. Above is a reproduction of the shield to be presented to each Sunday school subscribing a bond.

A SHOOTING ACCIDENT.

Young Man Badly Injured Near Washburn's Corners. Nov. 2.—A shooting accident occurred about one mile from here on Friday night. Charles Wright, the 18-year-old son of Albert Wright, was taking a loaded gun from a boat. The gun went off and the contents entered his shoulder and arm. He was taken to Brockville hospital, where he lies in a critical condition.

A MEMORIAL SERVICE

Held in the Salvation Army Citadel on Sunday Evening. An impressive memorial service was held on Sunday evening in the Salvation Army Citadel for the late Lieut. Cora Beck and the other members of the Kingston corps who passed away during the epidemic. After the open-air meeting at the Randolph Hotel, the corps formed, and to the strains of the "Dead March in Saul" marched to the Citadel, which was packed, and many impressive speeches were made. Mrs. Nicholson, of the Salvation Army Home in Ottawa, who nursed the late Lieut. Beck during her final illness, spoke in fitting terms of the deceased officer. Adjutant Smith paid a tribute to Mrs. Batman, wife of Lieut. Batman, who died two weeks ago. Mrs. (Adjutant) Smith speaking on the text, "Why are these in bright array; whose robes have been washed in the blood of the lamb," spoke feelingly on the splendid qualities of Miss Treneer, Mrs. Fuller, and Mrs. Snowdon, all of whom were salvationists who have died recently. Sergeant-Major Graham, on behalf of the Kingston corps, extended sympathy to the bereaved. The band then played the "Dead March" for the departed. Appropriate music was rendered during the evening.

NEW CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING RATES

Owing to the greatly increased cost of newspaper, ink, labor, etc., the British Whig has been obliged to advance its advertising rates somewhat. A sincere effort has been made to minimize the advance as much as possible. The increase now announced applies only to classified advertising, and then only when it is charged. When cash accompanies the copy, the following old rates will prevail.

- One Insertion (25 words or less) 25¢
 - Three Insertions (25 words or less) 50¢
 - Six Insertions (25 words or less) $1.00
 - One Month (25 words or less) $2.00
 - Over 25 words, 1c a word first insertion, and 1/2c a word for each subsequent, consecutive insertion.
- If ads. are to be charged, the rates will be double those above quoted.
- The cost of sending out a man to collect small accounts today amounts to more than the total revenue derived from such advertising. Hence the increase.
