DIED OF "FLU" IN ENGLAND, COULDN'T ASK FOR

SERGEANT RALPH RANGER FELL
AFTER SERVICE AT FRONT.

Went Overseas in 1916 With the 155th Battalion and Was Wounded, Gassed and Injured in Accident —Was Qualifying For Commission.

After serving two years at the front, it fell to the lot of Sergt. Ralph Eugene Ranger, a young Kings-ton-ian, and son of T. A. Ranger, grocer, 36 Division street, to fall a victim of the much-dreaded disease, influenza-pneumonia. His parents have received the sad news that he passed away in England, after four days' illness.
The late Sergt. Ranger was twenty-years of age on June 18th last. He went overseas with the 155th Battal-

LATE SERGEANT RALPH E. RANGER ion in 1916, signing up in Prime Edward county, and spent some time with this battalion at Barlefeld. He was born at Brockville and educated at Oshawa, and, previous to enlisting, was engaged as a drug clerk at Picton. Deceased was a bright young man with a most promising career.

He was well liked by a wide circle of friends and sincere regret has been expressed over his death.

The death of Sergt. Ranger occurred under very sad circumstances. He was wounded and gassed in October a year ago, but recovered and was about to return to the front when he met with an accident. He was in swimming, and had the misfortune to fall off a spring board and wrenched his back. He was getting along nicely, but on Oct. 28th last he was attacked with influenza-pneumonia, and died on Oct. 31st. At the time he was gassed he was for forty days and nights without the use of his speech. Since his death, his parents received a letter from him, dated Oct.
8th, in which he stated that he was taking a course in England for a lieu-tenancy in the Imperial army, and that he was getting along fine with his work, and was looking forward with much interest to the time when he would receive his commission and return to the front.

Deceased is survived by his father and mother, five sisters and one brother, Mrs. Edward Root, of Ottawa; Mrs. Wilfrid Lloyd, of Gananoque; Vera, Mabel and Irene and Clarence, all at home.

ALMOST BLIND
FROM
HEADACHES

It is hard to struggle along with a head that aches and pains all the time. Headache seems habitual with many people; indeed, some are seldom, if ever, free from it, suffering continually, and wondering why they can get no relief.

In nine cases out of ten, persistent headaches are due to poisoned blood, the blood being rendered impure through some derangement of the stomach, liver or bowels.

The reason Burdock Blood Bitters makes permanent cures of all cases of headache, is because it starts the organs of elimination acting freely, and the poisons and impurities are carried off from the system, purified blood is again in the brain cells, and instead of pains and aches there is revived mentality and bodily vigor.

Mrs. Geo. Monck, Arden, Ont., writes: "I have been troubled a great deal with sick headaches, and at times would almost go blind, and have to go to bed. I tried different kinds of medicine without any benefit until I was advised to use Burdock Blood Bitters. After taking it, I have not been troubled since."

Miller Gains 20 Pounds Taking Tanlac—Wife Regains Health Too.

"No one could see the wonderful change that has taken place in me during the past few weeks and doubt Tanlac being a great medicine," said W. H. Miller, while in a Bartell drug store, recently. Mr.
Miller superintends the general repair work of the Puget Sound Dredge and Bridge Company, and lives at 25 Scaview avenue, Seattle, Wash.

"I have picked up twenty pounds," he continued, "and I feel that I would be doing anybody who is suffering like I was a good turn by putting them on to Tanlac. I have had so much trouble with my stomach for the past ten years that I could hardly eat or sleep. I had no appetite at all, and what I did eat would ferment, causing gas, bloating and misery. I was constantly belching up my food sour and undigested, and my condition kept getting worse in spite of all I could do."

"I finally got some Tanlac and soon found it was helping me. So I stuck right to it until now it has completely cleared up my trouble.
My appetite is splendid and my stomach is in such a good condition that I can eat just anything I want and all I want without suffering a particle afterwards, and I simply sleep like a log every night. I had gone down to one hundred and fifty pounds, and I now weigh one hundred and seventy, which is a gain of twenty pounds."

"My wife, whose condition was just about as bad as mine in every way, is now taking Tanlac, too, and it is doing the same good work for her. It did for me. I couldn't ask for better results than we have got ten from Tanlac and I don't hesitate to recommend it to everybody."

Tanlac is sold in Kingston by A.
P. Chown, in Pievna by Gilbert Ostler, in Battersea by C. S. Clark, in Forthright by E. J. Martin, in Ar-dock by M. J. Scullion, in Sharbot Lake by W. Y. Cannon. —Advt.

WORK OF THE CANVASSERS

STORIES TOLD BY BOOSTERS FOR THE VICTORY LOAN.

One Good Lady Had Money in Her Stocking When Canvasser Called.
Another Made Bee Line For Street
When He Found House Placarded
"Scarlet Fever."

The men who are conducting the canvassing for the Victory Loan figure in some amusing incidents. They are all keen for business, are jolly good fellows, and see the humorous side of the affair.
A certain well-known canvasser, who has been taking a leading part in all the "stunts" pulled off to boost the loan, struck a house the other afternoon. As he mounted the front door step he could hear a sewing machine going at top speed. However, the lady of the house answered the bell promptly, and Mr. Canvasser announced his business. She said promptly:

"Yes, I want to give to that, but I got all my money in my stocking, and I cannot give it to you just now."

Now, the canvasser did not take to his heels and run. He was ready for the occasion, and very politely thanked the good lady, and said that he would call again in a short time, after he had completed his rounds in that neighborhood.

The canvasser came back as he agreed, and the bond was taken out.
It was a good hat, one, too, showing that there was no small sum in the stocking.

Another canvasser struck a house which was placarded "scarlet fever," but he did not notice the sign. He stood on the door step with his back to the sign, and the woman who answered the door did not care to talk business. He was bound to put through the deal, but bolted for the street when the woman pointed to the sign.

A canvasser struck a pretty well-to-do man, and, after much talking the fellow decided to take a $50 bond. He said the money was in the bank, whereupon the canvasser asked for the amount of his bank account.

"I think it is about $1,100," replied the man.

"Better put a little more into bonds if you have that much in the bank," said the canvasser, who stuck to his man until he had raised his amount to a more substantial sum.
This was certainly good work on the part of a canvasser.

Two canvassers were doing up a certain street where they knew the people well. Both were trying to pick out the "good ones." Coming to a house one said to the other, "Now you take this one, as I would rather go and see Mr. So-and-So, for he is sure to give a big sum."

The other fellow agreed to the scheme, but in a few minutes when the two met to exchange notes, they had a good laugh, as the one who felt sure he would make a big haul came back empty handed, while the other fellow reported big business.

But this is all in the game, and the canvassers work for all they are worth, dealing with all sorts of conditions and people of different types.
