GIVEN TEN YEARS IN "PEN" INCIDENTS OF THE DAY

ON CHARGE OF DESERTING AND FIRING AT OFFICERS.

Inspector J. Graham and His Men Nabbed Pte. Martin Crivea After a Lively Shooting Affray at the Home of the Prisoner at Otter Creek.

Ten years in the Portsmouth penitentiary for the sentence meted out by Magistrate Farrell in the police court on Thursday morning to Pte. Martin Crivea, aged twenty-three years, for deserting and firing several shots from a rifle at Chief Inspector J. J. Graham, of the Dominion Police, and two of his men, Constables Johnson and Hunt, when they went to his home early on the morning of Oct. 22nd to take him in charge.

Inspector Graham told of going to the prisoner's home at Otter Creek with a posse of nineteen men, on the morning of Oct. 22nd, and arriving there about 2.30 o'clock. Crivea had his house barricaded, and was upstairs with a rifle in his hands. The inspector told the prisoner who he was and what he had come for, but the prisoner's reply was to fire several shots. One just grazed Inspector Graham's head. Another shot lodged in the floor at the inspector's feet. Crivea put up a lively scrap for a time, but eventually Inspector Graham and his men surrounded him and got possession of the man and the rifle. The rifle was exhibited in court. Crivea had fourteen shells, and these were also taken by Inspector Graham. The latter also had an interesting souvenir, that of one of the bullets fired at him, and which lodged in the wall. The rifle was loaded when the inspector took it from the prisoner.

Inspector Graham informed Magistrate Farrell that the prisoner had been apprehended on two previous occasions.

J. L. Whiting, who appeared for the prosecution, stated that the extreme punishment for such a crime as Crivea had been found guilty of was life imprisonment. The prisoner had a close call from facing a charge of murder. He asked that the court impose severe punishment. Magistrate Farrell, in passing the sentence of ten years in the penitentiary, stated that there was not one redeeming feature in the case against the accused. It was a shame to think that a man would use his rifle against his own countryman. The accused has for some time been regarded as a bad man in his own neighborhood, and people in his district have been living in terror as a result of his actions. It is alleged that he was responsible for the killing of cattle in his district. The prisoner is married, his wife being in the house at the time the shooting took place.

ST. ANDREW'S SOCIETY

HELD ITS ANNUAL MEETING ON WEDNESDAY EVENING.

Grants to Patriotic Funds—Principal Bruce Taylor to Preach to the Society on Sunday, Dec. 1st.

The seventy-eighth annual meeting of the St. Andrew's Society of Kingston was held on Wednesday evening. The financial report showed a cash balance of $179.62, and a bond for $200 of the Victory Loan issue of 1917, a total balance of $379.62. The secretary was instructed to invest $150 in the 1918 Victory Loan. The officers for 1919 were elected as follows: President, J. F. Millan; first vice-president, J. D. Barker; second vice-president, H. C. Welsh; chaplain, Principal Bruce Taylor; honorary secretary-treasurer, James Stewart; piper, J. W. Fraser; auditor, J. McL. Stephen; committee, J. E. Gow, D. Murray, W. G. Craig, D. Couper, W. A. Newlands.

A resolution was passed that the secretary be instructed to convey to Mrs. J. Dall, the widow of the late Captain Dall, who was president of the society from 1917, the sincere regret and sympathy of the members. His loss will be greatly felt by the society.

Owing to war conditions it was decided to dispense with the annual dinner. The annual divine service of the society will be held in Chalmers church on Sunday evening, Dec. 1st. Principal Bruce Taylor will preach the sermon. The Scotsmen for that occasion will each be given a spray of heather. Mrs. Dall, widow of the late president, has sent four boxes of it, and it was decided that these be sold and the proceeds handed over to the Red Cross.

The society made the following donations: British Red Cross, $10; Canadian Red Cross, $10; Belgian Red Cross, $10; Kingston General Hospital, $10. The secretary was instructed to send parcels for Christmas to the members of the society now on service at the front. A number of new members were received at the meeting, and these will help to keep the society in a flourishing condition.

AWARDED MILITARY CROSS.

Major F. P. Strachan Decorated For Good Work on Field.

Major F. P. Strachan, son of Archibald Strachan, collector of customs, a member of the Second Battalion, C.E.F., who went overseas with the first contingent from Moosejaw, Sask., as a private, and who won his commission in the field, has been awarded a military cross for dash and courage during an August engagement.

Lieut. R. C. Lyon III. Robert Ernest Lyon, 447 Johnson street, received a cable on Monday informing him that his son, Lieut. Rossell Cameron Lyon, Canadian Medical Services, is seriously ill in the Canadian Convalescent Hospital at Bramshott, England. Lieut. Lyon graduated in medicine at Queen's in the spring of 1918, and enlisted immediately. He went overseas on Sept. 7th, and was attached to the 21st Reserve Battalion, Bramshott. His sister is a nursing sister at No. 12 Canadian Hospital at Bramshott, so it is possible that she may be nursing him.

Kingston received a telephone message from Toronto at noon announcing the report that the armistice had been signed, but it was canny and waited, as it did not want to spoil its celebration by going off "half-cock" as other places did. Just as soon as official word comes all places with bells, whistles and guns will be asked to get busy and make all the noise possible.

The Whig telephone was kept buzzing early Thursday afternoon when it was rumored that peace had been declared. Calls were received from Watertown, N.Y., Brockville, Smith's Falls, Gananoque and many other centres. At Watertown it was stated that all the whistles and bells had been sounded, and that there was a big celebration.

From all over the city the Whig also received many anxious inquiries about the report that peace had been declared.

People all over Canada and the United States appear to be keyed up for the receipt of the joyful news.
