Victory Loan Sole Topic for Canadians During Next 10 Days

To This All Other Features of the War Must be Completely Subordinated.

The Victory Loan must monopolize the attention of Canadians during the next ten days. There will be lots of time after the campaign to speculate on the prospect of peace. In the meantime the call comes to all—"Carry on." The people in the rural districts especially should realize this.

Canadians at home must take their cue from Poch. When he says "Let up," they may be justified in doing so. But while the men are overseas the need for supplies will continue.

Bear in mind also that Canada's war expense will not cease at the moment when the soldiers lay down their arms. A long time must elapse before the boys overseas can be brought back. Probably 450,000 of them have gone over, and good judges say that they cannot be brought home under 16 months. In the meantime they must be kept.

Be it also remembered that a large proportion of the Victory Loan money will go to finance the sale of Canadian products abroad. The farmer is dependent on it for the sale of his wheat, beef, pork, butter, cheese and eggs to Great Britain.

So if the Canadian Army is to be maintained, and the farmers, manufacturers, mechanics and business people generally are to be kept busy the $500,000,000 wanted must be raised.

BUY VICTORY BONDS.

Victory Loan Promotes the Farmers' Interests

The Victory Loan and the Farm go together.

Canada's surplus farm products could not be sold without the Victory Loan.

If the surplus could not be sold, prices in the home market would go to pieces.

It is one thing to raise farm products, but it is another thing to sell them for cash.

A large proportion of Canadian farm products could not be sold for cash, if it were not for the Victory Loan.

The farmer who invests in Victory Bonds thus helps to protect his own business.

LEND TO YOUR COUNTRY.

MANY YOUNG FARMERS HAVE GONE OVERSEAS.

From the farms of Canada thousands of young Canadians have gone overseas. These boys have acquitted themselves splendidly. Now when the call comes for $500,000,000 to support the army, and keep the business of the Dominion going on a war basis, the people in the homes from which these boys have gone will not be lacking.

Liberty Loan Set Canadians High Mark

The United States did so well in the recent Fourth Liberty Loan campaign that Canada, in justice to herself, must do unusually well in the present drive, or she will suffer by the contrast.

The Americans started out with $5,000,000,000 as their objective. They actually raised $5,856,000,000. The number of subscribers is placed at 21,000,000, or about one for every five of the population.

To do as well as this Canada must raise over $500,000,000. If she secures the same percentage of subscribers to the population, instead of having 1,000,000, she will have 1,600,000. As can readily be realized Canadians have their work cut out, but they are equal to it.

HAS YOUR COMMUNITY AN HONOR FLAG WITH CROWNS?

See to it that your community gets an Honor Flag, and gets it at once. What is more, see that it gets a few Crowns on it. An Honor Flag is good; but Crowns are better. It is a fine thing to reach the objective set, but it is much better to go away beyond it.

Don't rest until you see that Honor Flag flying in your district. When it is hoisted you will think so much of it that you will insist on a few Crowns being placed there.

EVERYBODY'S DUTY.

Canada expects every Canadian to do his or her duty in this campaign. Half a billion dollars must be raised and there are only ten days more to do it in. The money can and must be raised. Thought of failure cannot be tolerated. The least that those who stay at home can do is to buy all the Victory Bonds they can and induce others to do so.

BACK UP THE BOYS.

DOUBLE UP. "Double" is now the popular slogan in the campaign. Throughout the Dominion it is sweeping in a way that bids fair to accomplish surprising things. It is the spirit that wins for it is the spirit that characterizes the boys at the front. Double up! The cause is a good one. It is worth every dollar we can lend.

the journey of a ten dollar bill

I am a Ten Dollar Bill.

I may also add that I am a Canadian Ten Dollar Bill and naturally doing all I can to help our fighting boys win this war.

About a year ago when I was only a few days old, I was handed out by one of our chartered banks to a storekeeper named John Doe. I was crisp and clean then, with a bright yellow back.

I was crisp and clean then.

I have spent a mighty busy year, and faded out a lot, but, believe me, my usefulness is as great as ever.

When I first started out in life the Victory Loan Campaign of 1917 was on. In fact, my very first job in life was to help pay for a Victory Bond John Doe had bought. Together with millions of other bills, large and small, that answered the 1917 call, I was sent to Ottawa. But I didn't stay at the Capital long.

"Here's the ten dollars I owe you."

The very next day I went to pay a lumber dealer in British Columbia for some spruce he had sold the British Government for aeroplanes. The lumber dealer immediately put me in the bank.

But just as I was getting used to my surroundings I was taken from the bank and soon found myself slipped in a small yellow envelope with some other bills and handed out one Saturday to one of the lumber company's employees, who carried me home with him, where I remained all night.

He carried me home with him.

The next day in he goes to a storekeeper: "Here's the ten dollars I owe you," he said to the storekeeper, who immediately "rang me up" in his till.

But my stay there was brief. Next day the storekeeper totalled us up, and I heard him say to his assistant: "Collections are splendid again. I can pay all my accounts this month."

Shortly after this I came into the possession of a commercial traveller, and I next saw the light of day in a small restaurant in a grain town away out on the broad prairies. No sooner had I got comfortably settled in the safe when it comes a farmer with an elevator receipt which he had received for a load of wheat. "Cash this for me," he asked, and I passed into the farmer's wallet, but only for a few minutes—for on his way home he spent me at the hardware store in town for gasoline to operate his threshing outfit.

I next saw the light in a restaurant.

I am not going to take your valuable time going into details of the different hands I passed through in my trip east—through Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Ontario, until I found myself in the services of a firm in Montreal engaged in making munitions. Here I took another trip to the bank.

In the service of a firm making munitions.

It was very peaceful and quiet in the bank vaults. But I was glad they did not keep me there long. I don't want to be idle when there is so much war work to do. And I wasn't, for on Friday I once more found myself in a pay envelope. The man who got me said to his wife that evening—"Here is the money for the household expenses."

The following Monday I was traded for shoes for the man's children.

The shoe dealer almost immediately sent me to a leather firm. They turned me over to a tannery. The tannery passed me on to a farmer to pay for some hides. The farmer bought a tractor and sent me to the city. Here I was once more enclosed in an envelope and handed to a workman on pay day. He used me to help buy a suit of clothes. The tailor sent me away down east to square his account with a cloth maker. He turned me over to a coal dealer. He spent me for fish, and I took a short trip on a fishing boat and heard the men talking about U-boats and I looked anxiously around the horizon. But we got safely home with a fine catch. The fisherman needed some new tackle, so once more I started inland.

The farmer bought a tractor and sent me to the city.

He used me to help buy a suit of clothes.

He spent me for fish.

I am a Ten Dollar Bill—that's my face value. You can see I am plainly marked "Ten Dollars,"—But the strange thing is that during this year I have bought hundreds of dollars worth of goods, paid hundreds of dollars worth of debts on my journey from place to place in Canada. And what I am doing, forty-two million other ten dollar bills who volunteered to serve their country at the last Victory Loan, are also doing.

"Cash this for me?" he asked.

Older bills I have met—bills that were in circulation before the war—tell me that Canadian people don't use us for the frivolous purposes they once did. This, of course, is as it should be, because we must defeat the Germans. We must maintain our boys at the front, which we could not do if my efforts and the efforts of my fellows are ill-spent.

Now, Canadian ladies and gentlemen, I am going to bring my talk to an end by telling you the queerest thing of all about my travels.

My present home is in the bank, the officials of which gave me permission to come here and address you in the interests of the Victory Loan 1918. I am at this very moment lying at the credit of the same John Doe, storekeeper, where

I was traded for shoes for the children.

I was last year. I heard him say when he handed me to the bank—"Put that ten dollars to my credit, please. I am going to buy some Victory Bonds next week."

So, I presume, I am destined for another trip to Ottawa, and another busy year going up and down the country—keeping factories, farms, lumber camps and stores paid for their goods and their labor. And I am proud to be of such service to my country.

Just one thing more and I am through: I hope each Canadian will do everything he can to defeat the Germans, because, if he does not, I, as a Canadian Ten Dollar Bill, will not be worth much—and German money, which I understand, is called "marks," will travel up and down Canada in our places, and my race will disappear from the face of the earth.

Thanking you greatly for your attention, ladies and gentlemen.

We got safely home with a fine catch.

We got safely home with a fine catch.

Some Sad Cases. Belleville, Nov. 4.—Capt. T. D. Ruston, agent of the Children's Aid Society came across two sad cases in Marmora, on October 23rd. Harry Keegan died and two hours later his wife passed away. They left three children. On Oct. 22nd William Morrison died and on October 27th Mrs. Morrison died. They left four children. All were victims of pneumonia following influenza. Captain Ruston took the seven orphan children in charge and he has been successful in placing the little ones in good foster homes.
