MYER'S CAVE.
Nov. 4.—E. H. Perry and son Ebb, Centreville, are spending a few days here. Mr. and Mrs. W. M. McCausland, Clayne, spent Sunday at H.H. crest. Mrs. D. Rintoul is at C. MacGregor's. T. D. Perry called at James Perry's one day last week. Miss M. MacGregor, accompanied by her brother Duncan, has gone to Ottawa to have her ear treated. Mr. and Mrs. S. Cuddy called on friends here Saturday. J. MacCausland and family are on the sick list.

GLENEVALE.
Nov. 4.—Several are suffering with Spanish flu. The school is closed. Miss Mildred Orser has returned from the General Hospital, where she was undergoing treatment. She is much improved in health. Rev. Mr. Parsons made some calls in this vicinity last week. Miss George Amey, Buffalo, N.Y., was a recent visitor at J. O. Ellerbeck's. Mrs. Snook, Bellefleur, visited her sister, Mrs. William Hamond, recently. Mr. and Mrs. B. Coulter, Glenburnie, spent Sunday at L. Gordon's. James Mercer, who has sold his farm, intends having a sale of stock and implements soon.

LAKE OPINION.
Nov. 4.—The cheese factory will soon be closed for the season as the supply of milk is getting small. The local hunters are getting a few ducks. The farmers are all busy ploughing. Edward Hunter spent a few days of last week in this vicinity. Frank Smith and F. Best moved to Morton one day last week. Miss Hayes and Miss S. Tolson spent Sunday at Mrs. M. Farling's. Mr. and Mrs. A. Darling, and Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Sharpe, moved to Violet and were the guests of Harvey Sharpe. Miss Effie Likhtaker has returned home after spending some time in Kingston. Frank Best and family moved to Clear Lake on Sunday.

GLENDOWER.
Nov. 5.—There is still a large amount of sickness in the vicinity. The farmers are now doing their fall ploughing and cutting their winter wood. S. Leaman and his wife are visiting at Sanford Leeman's. The roads are in bad condition, and a gang of men from the mines have been fixing them. Richard Wilson is sawing wood at his home with his new engine. The loons have now left the lakes and have gone to a warmer climate. The duck hunting is in full swing.

OCONTO.
Nov. 5.—Miss Strong returned from her home Sunday, where she has spent the past two weeks owing to the epidemic of influenza in the section. School re-opened Tuesday morning with a small attendance. Harold Pappa is confined to his bed with the "flu". Mrs. E. Rally has returned home from Queensboro. Miss Coral Code spent Sunday at James Tryon's. William Tryon spent Sunday under the parental roof. Mr. and Mrs. J. Raymo left for Queensboro Saturday to visit their son, who is seriously ill. Johnson Young, Toronto, is home for a few days. Frank Davison has gone hunting in the north. Service will be held Sunday at 2:30 in the afternoon.

MOUNTAIN GROVE.
Nov. 4.—Influenza and wet weather do not seem to discourage hunters, as the most of the local men have gone, and a great many have passed through here. Mrs. W.W. Barr, suffering from a relapse of influenza, is reported better, as also is J. F. Cox, who was very low. Mr. and Mrs. Mullen, Tweed, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hill. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Somers, Toronto, are spending their holidays with their parents. Mr. and Mrs. George Somers; Miss Evalena Price returned to Mallorytown on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Godfrey and family, Calgary, are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Godfrey. Miss Florence Abbott, who was at her home for the last two weeks, as her school was closed on account of influenza, returned on Saturday.

WRONG BOTTLE AGAIN!
Mr. Thomas Wade, of Alma, N.B., accidentally applied some acid to a sore leg, thinking the bottle contained liniment. Writing of the effect, he says:
"The acid burned deep into my flesh and set up poisoning, causing me intense pain. I really thought I should lose my leg, but a friend advised me to try Zam-Buk. I did so, and the effect was marvellous! Zam-Buk very quickly ended the pain and drew out the poison. Eventually it completely healed the sore place."
Zam-Buk is best for all skin injuries and diseases. All dealers, 50c. box, 3 for $1.35.

CAINTOWN.
Nov. 4.—Miss Susie Hollingsworth, Mallorytown, was a recent visitor here. Elmer White was called to Smith's Falls one day last week owing to the death of his brother-in-law, Radley Johnston. Miss Alma Dickey is in Mallorytown with her aunt, Mrs. Blake Hains, who is seriously ill. Mr. and Mrs. James L. Scott spent Sunday last among friends at Rockport. Frederick Tennant and Thomas Tennant attended the funeral of their uncle, the late Edward Tennant, Athens. Herman Meit, who has spent the summer with Eli Tennant, has gone to his home near Lyn. Mrs. Mary A. Hayes, who has been ill, is able to be around again. Mrs. Nancy Tennant and Miss Alice Tennant, who for the past few weeks have been visiting friends at Guelph and other western points, have returned home. Miss Katie Leeder has been spending a few days with her cousin, Miss Helena Hefferman at Trevelyn. Harold White has returned home from the west, where he spent several months in the harvest fields.

PHILIPPSVILLE.
Nov. 4.—The farmers in this section have about finished threshing. The amount of illness seems to be abating somewhat this last few days. Mrs. Rubeen Haskin is ill of gripe. Miss Halliday and Miss Fern Halliday are improving from attacks of gripe. Mrs. - Stanley Haskin, who has been very low of pneumonia, is slowly improving. Mr. Haskin, who also had gripe, is better. Mrs. Cecil MacKinnon is still very ill. Mrs. Lynn has returned from a visit to her niece, Mrs. Tubot, of Harlem. Born to Mr. and Mrs. F. Hynes a son on the 19th inst. Mr. and Mrs. Riley Davison, of Forfar, spent Sunday with Miss Amanda Algire. E. A. Gibson, of Toronto, spent the week-end with his father, Mr. Gibson, at Chantry, who has not been well. Mr. and Mrs. W. Tackaberry and family spent Sunday with the latter's father and brothers at Chantry. Mr. Curtis, proprietor of the "Wardrobe House, Westport, was a recent visitor in town. Thomas Webster has the foundation of stone and cement about ready for the new addition to his stable. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Tackaberry, on Oct. 13th, a son, Clatrance Gibson.

ELGIN.
Oct. 31.—Born to Dr. and Mrs. Brackett, a son. Born to Mr. and Mrs. W. Kelsey, a daughter. Mrs. Perryman is very ill of pneumonia. Miss Stillwell is home from her school, Vankleek Hill. Mr. DeWolfe, Lansdowne, has purchased the M. Rape farm from J. Donovan for his son. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Elias Gray, a daughter. The funeral of the late Mrs. Walter MacMachen was conducted at her late home on Sunday morning by Rev. Mr. Stillwell. The remains were placed in the vault. Deceased was a bride of a few months, only getting settled in her new home. She leaves to mourn her early demise her husband, father and mother, and one brother. While Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Edgars, of Morton, were here to attend the funeral of their niece, Mrs. MacMachen, on Friday, they received the sad word that their youngest son, Merrick, had met with the unfortunate fall and fracture his skull, causing death. Mr. and Mrs. Mustard are preparing to move to their farm for the winter. Mrs. George Warren has recovered from her recent attack of influenza. A sad death occurred in the village on Friday morning, when Mrs. Perryman passed away after a brief illness of pneumonia. Her husband, Pte. Perryman, is overseas. One little daughter, Dorothy, survives, besides her foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pennock, with whom she made her home.

Lanark

MABERLY.
Nov. 4.—Little Harold Palmer is convalescent. Dr. Robinson has moved to his store in the village, which he purchased from H. Buchanan. School has opened again, but there is a small attendance. One party of Mabery hunters has been successful in getting a deer. They report deer to be quite plentiful. Miss Maggie Morrow was operated on in the General Hospital in Kingston last week for appendicitis. She is improving nicely. Word was received that Pte. James Greer has been wounded and admitted to a hospital in London. Rev. Mr. Clarke received word that his brother was seriously ill in the Gravenhurst Sanatorium. Mrs. Duffy has recovered after her recent illness, and will shortly leave for her home in Saskatoon. The Bishop of Ottawa will visit this parish at some later date, as he thought it better to postpone his visit on account of the epidemic.

Lennox and Addington

ENTERPRISE EAST.
Nov. 4.—Fall work is greatly retarded by the heavy rains. The hum of the threshing machine is heard in this vicinity. Deer hunting is now the order of the day. School is closed owing to the illness of Miss Milna. Mrs. James Dillon and Mrs. Timothy Dignogue returned home on Tuesday after spending the past three weeks visiting relatives in Detroit. Mrs. W. H. Dawson is at her home in Trenton. Miss Helen Finagan, Erinville, visited at John Scanlan's during the past week. Miss

Prince Edward

BLOOMFIELD.
Nov. 4.—Bloomfield allotment toward the Victory Loan, of $27,500, has been over-subscribed the first week. Rev. Mr. McCutcheon is the canvasser. A flag has been presented to the headquarters at Picton. Caniff Haight, Morris Huff and W. V. Pettet are the canvassers for Hallowell. There are a number sick, but none dangerously. The school and churches are still kept closed. A. H. Taylor and wife and Curran, an uncle, visited friends at Trenton on Sunday. The canning factory is still working at pumpkin. The evaporators have had to stop taking apples, owing to the large amount on hand. The price for dried apples is not up to expectations earlier in the season. The wet weather still continues and greatly hinders all work.

Death at Amherst Island.
Stella, Nov. 5.—The sad death occurred on Monday, Nov. 4th, of Melville, only child of Mr. and Mrs. William Montgomery, of Amherst Island. Attacked by influenza, after seven days' illness, the end came to a young man of 21 years. All that medical skill could do was applied, but of no avail. Melville was one of the promising, manly lads, not yet nineteen. Of genial nature, kind to everyone, he made friends as he went along. Ever trying to make life worth living was his. To the grief-stricken father and mother is extended deep sympathy in their sad bereavement.
