COMMENDED THE CANON

FOR HIS ZEAL AND DEVOTION DURING THE EPIDEMIC.

That Prevailed on Board a Ship While Crossing the Atlantic—Canon Fitzgerald Helped to Dispel Depression.

The Bishop of Ontario has received a letter from the officer commanding the transport on which Canon Fitzgerald lately crossed as chaplain, highly commending his zeal and devotion during a distressing epidemic of influenza which occurred en route. He says in part: "By his unswerving devotion to duty his worthy example, and his stirring sermons on the church parades, he helped considerably to dispel the depression that was so prevalent and hastening sickness. Both he and the medical officers had little sleep and much work that would surely try the powers of a staunch clergyman, but he remained resolute and resourceful throughout, and we are happy to think that it was a Divine Providence that sent him on board to be a comfort to officers and soldiers in their need."

The many friends of Canon Fitzgerald will be gratified to read this fine tribute.

Military News

Ptes. R. E. Edwards, J. R. Field, C. W. Warner, W. Dale and R. S. Charlton have been discharged from the casualty company, No. 3 District Depot, to civil life as medically unfit for further service.

The promotion of Lieut. R. A. Neilson, R.A.F., to captain has just been announced. Capt. Neilson went overseas with a battery of artillery from No. 3 Military District, and after serving two years in France transferred to the Royal Air Force. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Neilson, of Cobourg.

It is reported that the Military Medal has been awarded to Sergt. Ken Johnson, son of Percy Johnson, Pembroke street. Sergt. Johnson went overseas in the C.M.R., but is now serving in the 18th Battalion.

In spite of the general holiday and celebration of the peace announcement, work went on just as usual at the Tete de Pont barracks. The battery boys were out doing section gun drill on the parade ground all forenoon, while a party of them went on coal fatigue. They were not at all well pleased at being kept in barracks on such an occasion.

The band of the R.C.H.A. and a gun carriage took part in a military funeral from R. J. Reid's undertaking parlors at ten o'clock this morning. The deceased was Gunner Donovan of the Canadian Field Artillery.

A voluntary church parade of all troops in the Kingston garrison was held in St. George's Cathedral at noon today to offer "thanksgiving for the Allied victory."

Recruiting for the Royal Air Force has been discontinued.

Gunner H. J. Brady, Depot Field Battery, has been transferred to the Canadian Garrison Regiment, Fort Henry.

FOUR ABDICATIONS DURING THE WAR

Four rulers have already abdicated during the war. The Russian Czar was first, King Constantine of Greece followed, and since then King Ferdinand of Bulgaria and his son, King Boris, have abdicated in order. Emperor Charles of Austria has been many of the many of imperial powers, and may follow in the footsteps of the German Kaiser.

A Voice From The Front.

On Saturday J. O. Hutton 18 Market street, received a field postcard from a Canadian soldier who went to France with a Kingston battery. Every line on the field card was scored out, except this: "You must buy Victory Bonds to help us win this war."

That's the way the boys at the front feel about it; that is the message they send back to us. Are we going to fall them?

John McL, Stephen and James A. Richardson, Kingston, were introduced on 'Change, Montreal, by H. W. Nelles.

Autumn Footwear !!

Our shoes have a "chic" daintiness and refinement that is decidedly Parisian. They add a touch of distinction to the rest of the apparel.

Yet, they are so perfectly comfortable that walking in them is both easy and graceful.

We are showing a very choice assortment of fashionable models and would be pleased to have you inspect them.

DIED OF INFLUENZA.

Lieut. H. Lalonde Met Death Aboard Ship Going Overseas.

In a letter to Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lalonde, Cobourg, Capt. G. R. Stewart gives the particulars of the death at sea of Lieut. H. Lalonde, who went overseas from Kingston on Sept. 23rd.

"It was with deep regret that I recently learned the shocking news of Harry's death, and I wish to extend to yourselves and family most sincere sympathy. He was a close college chum of mine, and throughout college we were very close friends.

In case you have had no word from Lieut. Sidney Horne, who sailed on the same vessel, I thought you would like to know what particulars I have heard. I received a letter from Lieut. Horne, written on Oct. 16th, 1918, and will relate it as nearly as possible. He says: 'All went well until they were at sea two days, when a plague of Spanish influenza broke out. Harry and Sid Horne and a Montreal doctor had the same stateroom, and on Sept. 30th Harry and Lieut. Horne were taken ill with influenza. Lieut. Horne soon recovered, but on the third day Harry developed pneumonia. Drs. Pandat and Buck were his doctors, and Dr. Horne and Dr. Grunyon nursed him day and night. Dr. Horne says that he sat up with him all of the 4th and 5th of October, and did all within human power, but to no avail; for he died on Sunday, Oct. 6th, 1918, at noon. At 5.15 the same afternoon, the chaplain had a service and Harry and two others were buried at sea.'

"Dr. Horne says the voyage was very rough and nearly everyone was seasick. Three doctors, a nurse and forty men died of influenza at sea."

Rev. Charles Ryan, a former rector of St. James Church, Tweed, is now in charge of the parish of Rawdon.
