IN MANY BIG "SCRAPS."

Sydney Pearn Tells About Cruel Treatment of Huns.

William Pearn, of 305 Montreal street, a member of the Dominion Police force, who did his "bit" overseas, has received a letter from his brother, Sydney Pearn, a member of the Royal Strathcona Horse, who has seen considerable service at the front, and who was wounded once. He is a son of William Pearn, of 154 Colborne street. He tells about several interesting "scraps" he was engaged, and also refers to several cases of cruel treatment of the Germans towards women and children which came under his notice. He declared that he would never agree to any peace terms with people who handed out such treatment as this. He spoke about a German general who smiled when he noticed some of the Canadian boys being killed.

REVERTED TO RANKS.

W. M. Potter, Formerly of Kingston Does Gallant Work.

Word has been received in this city that Corporal W. M. Potter, of Saskatoon, formerly of Kingston, who served with a captain's rank in the 96th and 112th battalions, has been recommended for decoration and promotion in recognition of gallantry under fire.

Falling to get overseas, Corporal Potter paid his own fare to England last March, and on his arrival enlisted as a private in the C.E.F. After five months' training he was sent to France. In one engagement he got his machine gun to its objective and later in another carried wounded comrades off the field under heavy shell fire.

He is a brother of Mrs. William Jackson, Upper William street.

He is survived by his parents, two brothers, Herbert, who is serving in the Canadian navy, and Cape William, of the Canada Steamship Lines, and one sister, Edith, at home.

The Late John Inglis.
The funeral of the late John McDougall Inglis took place on Wednesday morning from his mother's residence, 52 O'Kill street, to Catharqui cemetery. Rev. John W. Stephen, of St. Andrew's church, officiated at the service. A large number of Oddfellows attended under the direction of William Harwood. Postmaster James Stewart and twenty-two letter carriers attended in a body. The pallbearers were chosen from among the letter carriers, Messrs. Allmark, Connors, Murphy, Murray, Woods and Buck. THEATRICAL.

At The Grand.
The Grand will offer an especially fine programme for the last half of the week. The feature picture will be "Madam Who" and will star that petite actress, Bessie Barriscale, who is well known to the patrons of the Grand after her work in other Paralta plays that have appeared from time to time. Her latest one was "Rose o' Paradise," and in that her splendid work won admiration from all, and "Madam Who" is even better. She has a role in which her charming mannerisms have full play and one that is sure to win for her many new admirers. Don't miss this six-reel photoplay that will delight you and also entertain you to the utmost. There will also be the Pathe News, a Lonesome Luke comedy, a Big "Y" comedy that is a scream, and other fine films which will include a Victory Loan picture that will be worth seeing. An act of high class vaudeville will round out a bill that will be hard to beat, so be sure and see it when it will be shown to-night and also Friday and Saturday, both matinee and night.

At the Strand.
For the week end programme Mae Marsh appears in "The Glorious Adventure," the best and most notable of the Goldwyn productions. The story is of a quaint little girl who brings happiness to scores of mill workers, and finally makes its owner the bride of the wealthiest man in town. An added feature will be "A Japanese Nightingale," starring Fanny Ward. This is the latest play that Miss Ward has appeared in. The entire story takes place in Japan, and the Japanese scenery, customs, buildings, costumes, etc., have all been faithfully produced. Miss Ruby McAllister will continue her engagement for the balance of the week with a complete change of selections, and on Saturday afternoon she will introduce a number of new selections especially for the kiddies, so bring them along for they will be sure to enjoy it all.

CLAIM OF MILK DEALERS

That They Are Not Making More Than Legal Profit.

There was a conference in the mayor's office on Thursday morning between the milk dealers and Dr. G. W. Bell, milk inspector for the city, over the price charged for milk in this city. The order-in-Council fixed the profit that might be made on the sale of milk in Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island at five cents a quart. In the western provinces that profit was fixed at 5 1/2 cents a quart. The local dealers asked the mayor to appoint a committee to investigate their costs, claiming that scarcity of labor and expense in handling and the initial cost to them warranted them in charging 13 and 14 cents. Formerly they were able to buy the milk at $2.50 per cow, but the military hospitals and the dairy school made contracts at $2.00 and $3 per cow, and they were accordingly called upon to pay the same prices. They say that they are not getting more than the legal profit of five cents a quart.

Ottawa, Nov. 14.—In view of the number of requests received at military headquarters for allotments of war trophies to provinces, municipalities and various public bodies, it is pointed out that trophies and war material will be dealt with in accordance with a considered plan and that it is impossible at the present juncture to deal with any such applications or requests.
