Charles Brown, who has been employed as a clerk in Sand's cigar store, is leaving on Tuesday for Depauville, N.Y., where he will take up his residence. He will manage an hotel for his father. Mr. Brown is a native of the States and came to Kingston seven years ago. He made many friends in this city.

The funeral of Emery Docteur took place at James Reid's undertaking parlors to William cemetery on Saturday. The deceased was thirty-one years of age and is survived by his wife. He had been in the employ of Routledge many years, and was brought to the Kingston General Hospital suffering from influenza.

Moving Pictures for Men Only. A wonderful five-reel moving picture film will be shown at the Military Y.M.C.A. on Tuesday, Nov. 19th, at 7.30 p.m. Dr. O. J. Wilbur, noted lecturer, will comment on the film. All men are invited to be present. There is no admission fee. Special music will be discoursed. Do not miss this opportunity of seeing this great picture.

Lieut. Lyon Has Recovered. Mrs. R. Lyon, 44 Johnson street, received a cable Monday from her daughter, Nursing Sister Agnes Lyon, Bramshott, England, stating that her brother, Lieut. Roswell Cameron Lyon, who was recently reported seriously ill, has now recovered. Lieut. Lyon went overseas with a draft of C.A.M.C. officers in September.

On Nov. 8th the death of Phoebe E. Pfar took place at her residence, Glenora Road, aged eighty-five years. The deceased had been in poor health for many years, and that her brother, a youth residing on the fourth concession of Sidney, was seriously injured at the Corbyville crossing of the G.T.R.

O'Neill-Macdonald Nuptials. A quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Capt. William Liddell, 194 Barrack street, when Evelyn Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Macdonald, Toronto, was united in marriage to Robert James, son of James O'Neill, of this city. The couple were attended by the groom's sister and brother, Miss Loretta and John O'Neill. The groom's gift to the bride was a tie pin set with pearls, and to the bride a brooch set with pearls. The outside guests were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charest, of Montreal, and Miss Agnes Flanagan and Miss Gertrude Paus, Toronto. The happy couple left on the noon train for the bride's home in Toronto.

Appeal Against Drain. An appeal has been made by R. J. Wright, Barrack street, and Mrs. Crawford, Bagot street, against the award made giving the Angrove Garage permission to extend the drain running from their premises to the sewer on Colborne street. The award was made under the drainage and watercourses act, and as the drain runs through private property, Judge Lavell has been asked to set a date for an appeal.

Sergt. R. J. Wilson Wounded. Mrs. Sarah Wilson, 126 Stephen street, received word that her husband, Sergt. Robert John Wilson, mounted services, had been admitted on November 8th to No. 7 General Hospital, Letchford, suffering from gunshot wound in the left leg and chest. Sergt. Wilson left with the 146th Battalion.

For Fall and Winter. Prevost, Brock street, has a great assortment of ready-made clothing, and a splendid assortment of gentlemen's furnishings. His order clothing department was never better assorted with new goods. It will pay you to examine his stock before buying.

Has Been in France. Canon FitzGerald is the guest of Rev. Dr. Mahony, Provost of Trinity College, Dublin, and has been with him in France.

ALD. N. E. O'CONNOR.

For two years he was chairman of the fire and light committee and for the past two years he has been chairman of the Board of Works. During the past four years he has served on the finance committee of the council, so that he is thoroughly versed in everything pertaining to civic business.

Ald. O'Connor has been one of the "big men" of the council ever since he became an alderman. He never takes a stand on an important question without careful consideration, and when he comes to a conclusion he sticks to his view, even at the risk of coming into collision with friends. He is an able debater and talks to the point. Such confidence is reposed in him by his council associates.

Mayor Hughes having definitely announced that he will not be a candidate, the contest remains to be fought out between Ald. N. E. O'Connor and Ald. H. W. Newman. The former has had a longer and more varied municipal training, and would do credit to Kingston if elected to the mayor's chair. Mr. O'Connor had consented some time ago to accede to the solicitation of a large number of friends and supporters who urged him to offer himself as mayoralty candidate, but he refused to make any announcement to be made until the Victory Loan campaign was over. "I had no wish to distract attention from that campaign by rushing into the field with my announcement. I felt I should best do my duty by giving the loan canvassers a chance to finish their work in peace, without intruding a municipal contest at such a time. I am now in the field to stay."

Backed by a large following of representative citizens, who believe he is the best qualified candidate in the field, Ald. O'Connor comes before the people as "The Citizens' Candidate."

PAID SUPREME SACRIFICE

PTE. NORMAN S. CASSEL WAS KILLED IN ACTION.

Fell While Canadians Were Engaged in Severe Fighting Around Cambrai - Parents Received Letter From Chaplain.

The Whig was notified of another young man who has paid the supreme sacrifice, in the person of Pte. Norman Stanley Cassel, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Cassel, of Westbrook, who enlisted with the 146th Battalion, and went overseas with the 156th Battalion. He fell in action on Sept. 27th. He was a fine type of young man. He was just twenty-three years old, and will be much missed by a wide circle of relatives and friends. Previous to going overseas he was engaged on a farm. Besides his parents, he is survived by three sisters and five brothers. One brother, Archibald Howard, is now serving in France.

The parents of Pte. Cassel have received a letter from M. H. Jackson, chaplain, in which he refers to the death of Pte. Cassel, and goes on to explain that he met death while the Canadians were engaged in taking from the Germans one of their strongest positions near Cambrai. The writer added: "In your sorrow it will be some source of consolation to ever keep in mind that when he made this noble sacrifice he was heartily assisting to drive the cruel invaders from the lands they so heartily ravaged."

Mr. and Mrs. Cassel also received a card of sympathy from the King and Queen. Deceased had the honor of being lined up for inspection before His Majesty.
