KINGSTON HOCKEY CLUB INCIDENTS OF THE DAY

ORGANIZED FOR THE SEASON ON MONDAY EVENING.

William Cook Elected President—Intermediate and Junior Teams to be Entered in the O.H.A.

There was a splendid meeting of hockey enthusiasts on Monday evening, and the organization of the Kingston Hockey Club for the coming season was completed. The executive contains the names of veterans who brought victory to Kingston in former years, and their presence is a guarantee that the science of the stick and the puck will be imparted in a thorough manner and that the material finally selected for championship honors will be of the truest metal. The officers chosen are: Honorary patrons—Brig-Gen. T. D. R. Hemming, Brig-Gen. J. S. Maunsell, Brig-Gen. A. E. Ross, C.M.G., M.P.P.; W. F. Nickle, K.C., M.P.; Col. G. Hunter Ogilvie, Col. Harry Genet, J. J. Hart, William Casey, Mayor Hughes, Major T. A. Kidd, Major Richardson, C.A.M.C.; E. O. Siler, Lieut.-Col. J. R. Gardiner, A. Rankin, M.P.P.; John Sowards, Major W. J. McMillan, J. D. McMillan, President; William Cook, vice-president; J. P. Fleming; manager; J. Powell; treasurer; W. J. Driver; secretary; G. P. Alarie; executive committee, S. McCullagh, John McDonald, Thomas Angrove, J. P. Walsh, Edward Hartick, Arthur Cook; honorary members, William Cook, Thomas Angrove, Jack Evans, Robert Stanton.

Kingston referee, George Van Horne; physician, Dr. Robert Hanley.

Two teams, junior and intermediate, will be entered in the Ontario Hockey Association. During the last two years the club entered a junior team, which went into the semi-finals, but this season the club expects to bring the championship to Kingston.

CHURCH GAVE RECEPTION

To Staff-Sergt. Sherbourne Wilder on Monday Evening.

A reception took place on Monday evening in Princess Street Methodist church to Staff-Sergt. Sherbourne Wilder one of the original first contingent boys who returned home recently. He was wounded and lost an eye at the second battle of Ypres. Rev. J. A. Waddell, pastor of the church, made a splendid address of welcome. Miss Mabel Waddell presented Sergt. Wilder with a beautiful bunch of chrysanthemums to convey to his mother, who was unable to be present. Addresses of welcome were also given by the Rev. H. B. Short, J. Peters, Fred Rutherford and W. G. Graves. Staff-Sergt. Wilder made a suitable reply. Solos were rendered by Miss M. MacFarlane, Miss Gertrude Peters, Miss Anna Timmerman, T. H. Baker and Master Willie Timmerman. Mrs. H. Baker contributed a piano selection, and Miss Gertrude Peters and Bert Cooper a duet. Readings were given by Miss Edna Daley and Miss Shirley Barrot. Refreshments were served during the evening.

Experiences in Belgium. The address to be given by Mademoiselle Silvercrucy, of Brussels, on Friday next, affords an opportunity none should miss of having a graphic description of the German invasion of Belgium and of the suffering and devastation which followed that event. Mademoiselle Silvercrucy tells of the massacre at Dinant, the burning of Louvain and of her vivid experiences as a nurse, which included a narrow escape from paying the death penalty for effecting the escape of wounded Belgian soldiers. Convocation Hall, on Friday next, at 8.15 p.m. Women's Canadian Club members free; public, 25c.

Boys Caused Damage. Boys broke into the main building at the fair grounds, and did serious damage to the government exhibit of grains, and also made off with four flags. Sergt. Bateson and Constable Downey located the flags and corralled a number of boys, who were dealt with in Juvenile Court. One boy was whipped for stealing the flags.

In Marine Circles. Cleared: Keypont and Keybell, Erie; Sarnor, Follett, Omaha, Oswego; McCluth and barge, upper lakes.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas King, Wellington, are preparing to move into the beautiful brick residence they purchased from Mr. Sprung.

Thomas May, son of the late Samuel May, died in North Bay recently. The remains were sent to Eganville and interred.

All the things which were sent to soldiers in France, Flanders and Italy are needed for the Canadian men in Siberia.

Eganville and Wilberforce subscribed over sixty thousand dollars to the Victory Loan.
