Told In Twilight

(Notice—Hereafter, the Whig, in common with other papers all over Canada, will make a charge of 50c. for inserting an engagement, marriage or reception announcement.)

It would be hard to describe in detail the decorations at the Royal Military College dance on Monday evening. The gymnasium was transformed into a veritable fairyland with its quantities of cedar boughs, red and white bunting, many, many flags and myriads of softly shaded lights, and here the large number of guests were welcomed by Colonel and Mrs. Perreau, the latter wearing a handsome gown of black sequins and carrying an armful of crimson roses. The floor was in perfect condition and a splendid orchestra rendered delightful music. In the basement, the walls, floor and ceiling were completely concealed by evergreens, through which tiny colored lights peeped, while cozy sitting-out places were cleverly and artistically arranged round a fountain, which played in the centre. Supper was served in the mess room in the north building at long tables, which were bright and pretty with lovely flowers. Among those were noticed General and Mrs. Hemming, Col. and Mrs. Ogilvie, Col. and Mrs. Gardner, Col. and Mrs. Genet, Col. and Mrs. J. N. S. Leslie, Gen. and Mrs. G. S. Maunsell, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Kent, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Macnee, Dr. and Mrs. W. Ross, Miss Eleanor Creighton, Major and Mrs. Passy, Major and Mrs. Porter, Major and Mrs. Lawson, Capt. and Mrs. Cecil Adams, Major and Mrs. C. S. # Why Can't I Get To Sleep?

Thousands of people all over the country ask this question, but still continue to toss night after night on a sleepless bed, and it is impossible for them to get a full night's refreshing sleep.

Some constitutional disturbance, worry or disease has so debilitated and irritated the nervous system that it cannot be quietened except by the pernicious use of opiates or narcotics. Or again, you have heart palpitation, and sensation of sinking, a feeling you are going to die, or perhaps you wake up in your sleep feeling as though you were about to choke or smother, and the only way you can get relief is to sit up in bed.

To all who suffer in this way, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills offer an inestimable boon. They bring back the much-needed night's rest by improving the tone of the nerves, strengthening the heart, enriching the blood and making the whole organization act in harmony—then you sleep as peacefully as a child.

Mrs. James Latimer, 39 Leinster St., St. John, N.B., writes:—"At night I could not sleep. I had to sit up in bed, my heart beat so fast, and when I walked up stairs I would get all out of breath. A friend recommended Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and after using two boxes I can sleep all night and am not out of breath after walking."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are for a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

TELLS DYSPEPTICS WHAT TO EAT

Avoid Indigestion, Sour Acid Stomach, Heartburn, Gas on Stomach, Etc.

Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble, say medical authorities, are due nine times out of ten to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach. Chronic "acid stomach" is exceedingly dangerous and sufferers should do either one of two things.

Either they can go on a limited and often disagreeable diet, avoiding foods that disagree with them, that irritate the stomach and lead to excess acid secretion or they can eat as they please in reason and make it a practice to counteract the effect of the harmful acid and prevent the formation of gas, sourness or premature fermentation by the use of a little Bismarated Magnesia at their meals.

There is probably no better, safer or more reliable stomach antacid than Bismarated Magnesia and it is widely used for this purpose. It has no direct action on the stomach and is not a digestant. But a teaspoonful of the powder or a couple of five grain tablets taken in a little water with the food will neutralize the excess acidity which may be present and prevent its further formation. This removes the whole cause of the trouble and the meal digests naturally and healthfully without need of painful pills or artificial digestants.

Get a few ounces of Bismarated Magnesia from any reliable druggist. Ask for either powder or tablets. It never comes as a liquid, milk or chocolate and in the Bismarated form is not a laxative. Try this plan and eat what you want at your next meal and see if this isn't the best advice you ever had on "what to eat."

The the dansant in the City Hall on Tuesday afternoon, which Capt. and Mrs. Cecil Adams gave in honor of the gentlemen cadets of the Royal Military College, was very much enjoyed by the members of the staff and their wives, the younger town girls and many visitors who were here for Monday's dance at the college. Capt. and Mrs. Adams received, the latter wearing a very smart gown of blue velvet with corsage bouquet of pink roses and hat of gold lace. The lights in the hall were all shaded in red and white, and the long tea table, with many tall vases of crimson carnations, and flickering candles in silver sticks, gave a most artistic effect.
