DUCTED AS PRINCIPAL INCIDENTS, OF THE DAY

DR. DYDE HEAD OF QUEEN'S THEOLOGICAL COLLEGE.

Rev. J. T. Hall, of Stirling, Moderator of Presbytery, officiated at induction service—Moderator of General Assembly. Delivered Charge.

All Queen's Convocation Hall on Monday night Rev. Dr. W. S. Dyde was inducted as principal of Queen's Theological College. Rev. J. T. Hall, of Stirling, Moderator of the Kingston Presbytery, officiated at the induction ceremony, the charge to the newly-inducted principal being delivered by Rev. Dr. Colin Fletcher, of Thamesville, Ont., Moderator of the Presbyterian General Assembly. A large number of the members of the Kingston Presbytery were present. Among those on the platform were Rev. Dr. R. M. Wilson, G. M. Macdonnell, Rev. W. T. Wilkins, of Trenton (clergy of the Presbytery); Prof. W. Moran, Principal Bruce Taylor, Rev. Dr. W. G. Jordan, Rev. Dr. Malcolm Macgillivray, Rev. Mr. Kidd, of Gananoque; Rev. J. D. Boyd, Rev. J. Stephens, Rev. Dr. Gracey, of Gananoque; Rev. Dr. Daniel Gordon was also present.

Rev. Dr. Ross read the Scripture lesson, Dr. Bruce Taylor offered prayer and Rev. W. T. Wilkins read the extracts from the minutes of the General Assembly, confirming the appointment of Dr. Dyde to the appointment of principal of the college. Following the charge of the Moderator of the Assembly, Dr. Dyde delivered his inaugural address.

In his charge, Dr. Fletcher spoke of the sacredness of the gospel of the ministry as a divine calling. He held that theological halls should be in close relationship to the university, if not actively a part of it. Dr. Fletcher said that he was not delivering a charge to a novice, but to one who had been tried and actively tested, and found fitted for the position, and who entered upon the new duties with every promise of great success.

The speaker referred to the great lack of candidates for the ministry during the past few years, but was firmly of the belief that the colleges had been faithful in their work, and that they were seriously thinking of the problems which had to be faced in the future. The days to come (which might be regarded as the days of reconstruction) would demand principals and professors of theological colleges who had strong hearts, clear heads and with faith to face the situation. There were many conditions and it was not, but he felt confident that the men engaged in the work realized the great responsibilities resting upon them, and would be prepared to meet the necessities of the world.

Dr. Dyde, in his inaugural address, spoke of the support and encouragement he carried with him in taking up his new position, and stated that he realized that the time called for the greatest energy. One great truth must never be kept in mind was that God is the Father of all mankind, and that we are brethren one with another. Practical theology brought home the truth that our practical sphere, not only as ministers but as simple Christians, had to do with whom we call our brethren. The great war just closed brought home this point more strongly than it had ever been presented before. The speaker set forth a strong appeal for a common effort—a unity of all who are in the world which would bring forth a better spirit to lay the foundations of a new world.

There was a great opportunity facing the church at the present time. There were many problems for the church to face, and in the next few years the church would undergo a great test, but the speaker had every confidence that the church would emerge from this test purified.

"And here at Queen's we trust that we shall be enabled by the grace of God to do our 'bit,'" said Rev. Dr. Dyde, in closing a strong and forceful address.

Killed Two White Deer.
Two white deer, called albinos, were this year shot by E. Scott, Renfrew, who formed one of a party hunting at the "Flum Trees," a point on the Madawaska about midway between the Duchesnes and the Coltons. They were male fawns. In nearly every hunting season a white deer is shot somewhere in Ontario, but very rarely do two of them fall before the rifle of one hunter in one season. Nimrod regards them as a freak of nature.

VESSEL WAS DELAYED.
Towed Here From Toronto by Three Tugs on Monday Night.

A new vessel recently turned out by the Toronto Shipbuilding Company arrived in port on Monday night, after being delayed for many hours on the trip down from Toronto. The vessel, which was towed by three tugs, is being taken on to Montreal. On Monday, it was feared that the vessel had met with a mishap, and the tug Frontenac, of the Donnelly Wrecking Company, was secured to make a trip out to search for the vessel, but it was found that the steamer had put into Cobourg at two o'clock on Sunday morning. Owing to the lateness of the season, the steamer was not equipped with its machinery in Toronto. The machinery will be installed in the steamer at Montreal. The steamer was towed here by the tugs O'Brien, Burke and Argyle.

The tug Florence, one of the best-known tugs on the River St. Lawrence, has made her last trip, and will be replaced by a new tug under construction at the marine railway at Ogdensburg.
