SMILES FOR WHIG READERS

THE MEANEST EVER
Microbe—Go 'way from here! I'm a perfectly respectable germ, and don't want anything to do with you!

SUCH IS LIFE
Coal Shovel (to the Tongue)—Well, old chap, here's where you step out and I step in!

GOOD NEWS FROM HIM
Bug—You're happy.
Centipede—Sure. The government is going to lower the price of shoes.

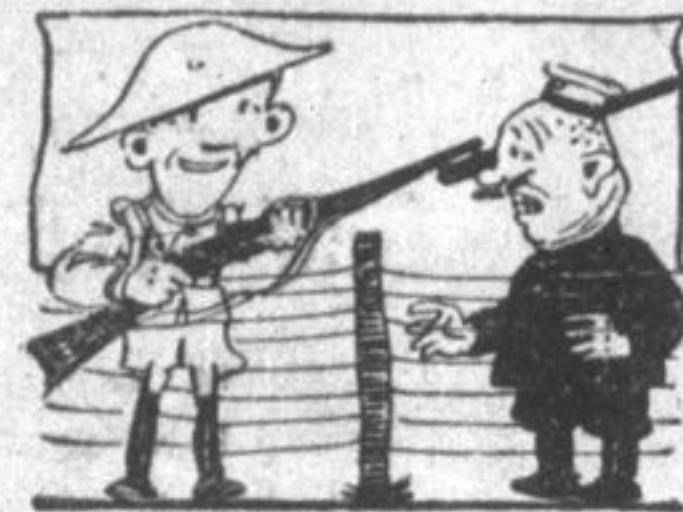

WARNING
Don't be a human atomizer. Think of others and be wiser; Smother your sneezes in your hanky and your fellow citizens will thankee.

WOODEN
A man's face is visible at 200 yards, but you can't distinguish his features. At 800 yards a man looks like a post. And some at less distance.

IN THE MAKING
Boarder—This tea is very weak.
Landlady—I buy only the best tea, sir.
Board—Doubtless! Its weakness is wholly structural, I believe.

MORE FRIGHTFULNESS
Guard—Line up you Fritzes. There's a bunch of skirts coming to visit you.
Prisoner von Kubuskoop—Gott in Himmel! The Ladies from Hell!

ORPHANED
"So your wife has taken up golf, too?"
"Yes, our children are now golf orphans."

DIDN'T LOOK GOOD TO HIM
"I am wedded to my art."
"Then me for the single life."

PROF. SWANSON'S VIEW

With Regard to University Athletics in the West.

H. D. B. writes in the Ottawa Journal as follows: "Few sport followers may know that Saskatoon is the present home of a man who has had years of connection with the cleanest body of sportsmen in Canada, the Intercollegiate Athletic Union. The Intercollegiate has had its ups and downs, it is true, but there has never been any professionalism connected with the good name of the Intercollegiate Union. No other league can boast of this record. Getting back to the subject of our sketch, Professor Swanson, professor of economics at the University of Saskatchewan, was for several years very closely connected with the Queen's Athletic Association, particularly with the rugby team, which held its own for years against the much larger (in the number of students) universities of the east, McGill and Toronto. He was a warm personal friend of two of Queen's greatest athletes, the late Marty Walsh and Lieut. Ken Williams, who gave his life that sport might be perpetuated. Professor Swanson is of the firm belief that the big Western Canadian universities, Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, will in the near future be on the same basis for intercollegiate athletic competition as are their older sisters in the east."

A PROFITABLE VENTURE.

Promoters of Six-day Bicycle Race Realized $35,000.

The six-day bike race, which closed Saturday night at New York, and which was won by McNamara and Mangin, was a record-breaker in attendance, though the mileage record was away behind previous years. The amount of receipts was close to $70,000. According to the promoters, the riders get $16,000 in purses; the Garden, for rent, $12,000; the Government, $7,000 in taxes, with other expenses, bringing the total up to about $35,000, which leaves $35,000 in profits.

Giants To Train In Florida.
Following the announcement that the Yankees probably would forsake Macon, Ga., as a training camp and move along to Florida, comes the announcement that the Giants are likely to do their spring work in the same state. As it is customary for the clubs training close to each other to arrange inter-league games in the spring it is possible that the troupes of McGraw and Huggins will come together in a set of games in the south, and before the opening of the regular season. The Braves and Phillies will train in Florida, also the Mackmen, so there promises to be plenty of pre-season activity of the inter-league variety in that state.

The Inter-Lake Yachting Association will hold its annual regatta at Put-In-Bay next summer. The man who bows to the inevitable seldom does it as a matter of courtesy.

Many a man who claims to be self-made is really father-in-law made. When a girl is in love she is hungry only between meals.
