NO PARTY INTERESTS TO SUPPORT GOVT.

Bowmanville, Dec. 19. — There is criticism of the Union Government, because there are no party interests to support us," declared Mr. Rowell, speaking at Bowmanville, "and there are men in both parties who seek to discredit us in order that they may get back into power again. No act of the Union Government has created more hostility than the abolition of party patronage. Much of the criticism that has been leveled against the Government is because men have lost hope of gaining reward for service to the party. But if the country wants a business Government it will have to support the Union Government."
