HAD FEED OF APPLES. Hungry Boys Landed on Barrel On the Market.

Boys will be boys. Saturday a bunch of hungry youngsters came across a barrel of apples, left on the market square by a rather absent-minded purchaser, and it is a shame to say just what they did to the fruit. When they had satisfied their appetite, they had cleaned out one-half the barrel. When the owner came back to claim his apples, he was given quite a shock when he found that he was shy half the quantity, but he took the matter good-naturedly, and just to show that he had the true Christmas spirit he offered the remainder of his stock to some needy families.

Cooke's Church Young People. The young people's department of Cooke's Presbyterian church on Monday evening made arrangements to have the officers for 1919 installed at a special church service for young people to be held in the church on Sunday evening, Jan. 5th. The speaker for the evening was M. M. McIntyre Hood, who gave an address on "Conditions Necessary for World Peace." The main ideas of his speech were abolition of conscription, disarmament, the League of Nations and International Christianity.

Masterlinek's New Book. The Betrothal, a sequel to The Blue Bird. In this new fantasy we see Tyltyl approaching the threshold of Grown-up-dom and learn of the adventures that befell him in his search for a sweetheart under the guidance of Fairy Berylline. There is the same imaginative beauty and delicacy of fancy which have endeared Masterlinek's work to the readers of all nations. Price $1.50, at the College Book Store.

Some Petty Thefts. According to reports made to the Whig, quite a large number of petty thefts have been committed around the city and vicinity. It is stated that a number of citizens who have been patronizing some of the dances, have been losing articles of wearing apparel. It is also reported that at Eaton's pasture just recently, where a crowd was skating, one young fellow lost a pair of rubber boots and an overcoat.

A Merry Christmas To All!

This is the first Christmas since 1913 one could wish his friends—A Merry Christmas, and really believe that the wish was possible of fulfillment. And even now, the joyous celebration of the Yuletide season must accentuate the loneliness and grief of those whose loved ones have made the sacrifice that this wonderful Victory Christmas might be possible—so let us add a spirit of thankfulness and reverence to our rejoicing, a small tribute to the memory of those who earned for us this festival of peace and goodwill.

ANOTHER DARING THEFT.

Woman Robbed of Purse and $15 in Post-office.

Another daring robbery took place in the lobby of the Kingston post-office on Monday afternoon. Mrs. Warner, who gave her address as 14 Vine street, was engaged in sending off some parcels, and left her purse, which contained $15, on one of the counters while she looked after the posting of the parcels, and when she came back found that her purse and money were missing. The lobby was well filled with people at the time, and although an attempt was made by the post office authorities, no trace whatever could be found of the purse or money.
